THE DEATH OF MR. PULLEN.

Raleigh's greatest public benefactor lies dead today, and the community mourns. Yesterday when the words were said, "Stanhope Pullen is dead," all sorts and conditions of people felt sincere sorrow. Mr Pullen was always a quiet citizen, and his rule of life was to mind his own business; the rule which the great American philosopher, Ben. Franklin, set forth in such strong terms. But Mr. Pullen was a man of rare unselfishness. He was one of those who during his life was a public benefactor and whose private charities were far more numerous than even his most intimate friends knew of. He made Raleigh a noble gift in the seventy acres of the park which bears his name. He made the state another notable gift in the shape of the seventy acres on which the agricultural and mechanical college now stands. These will be a lasting memorial of this good man and honored citizen. Yet THE VISITOR would be glad to see some other public memorial of a man whom the city and its citizens delight to honor. The universal expressions of regret which are heard on all sides are beautiful tributes to a memory which will always be kept green here.

The price of cotton has receded 1-16 of a cent, as a result of more hopeful views of the crop situation and the absence of strong speculative support.

The exodus of summer travelers to Europe last Saturday broke the record for June, none of the eight transatlantic steamers which left New York having an unoccupied stateroom, while even the berths of the ships' officers were taken by tourists.

American ships have won the pennant for looks in the international naval competition at Kiel, Germany. Even the English newspaper press has sought but unqualified praise for them. Their machinery is the finest in the world. They are graceful and attractive.

The official statistics prove that labor has been less affected by economic changes than any other source of income in this country. In 1892 wages were nearly 61 per cent higher than in 1860, and more than 8 per cent higher than in 1873.

A curious fact about the present secretary of state of the United States, Richard Olney, is that though he has been a citizen of Boston over thirty years not 200 men know him by sight on the streets of that city, and if he were to walk up and down the main street of his native town of Oxford, Mass., not half a dozen people would recognize him. Yet this man occupies the most conspicuous position in the nation, next to the president.

Cuban hatred of Spain has been shown by seven rebellions since 1829. Here is the case: The Spaniard goes to Cuba to make what he can out of the island, and then, as a rule, he goes home. Cuba has been Spain's oyster for centuries. Most of the thousands of Spanish incomers are government officials, employes and soldiers, whose business it is to make all possible pickings for Spain, and incidentally to line their own pockets well. The Cuban stands no chance except in the industrial and commercial lines.

To drink or not to drink, that is the question. Scientists say drinking water is so impregnated with bacteria as to be unfit for use. Prohibitionists denounce wine and beer. It is urged that tea produces insanity, and coffee dyspepsia and insomnia; while it is declared poison looks even in innocent lemonade. Put the world will keep on using all of these beverages.

In 1800 H. Impley Davy in England produced electric light by means of carbon points, and exhibited his invention before his scientific friends, and from that time on attention was given to the subject by different scientists until 1846, when a tolerably effective apparatus for regulating the light was devised by W. Staitte, and was patented the same year.

The decision of England to build a railway from the coast to the heart of Africa will probably induce France to go into a similar enterprise. Henry M. Stanley recommends the construction of a track from Algeria to the Soudan, and says that one of the greatest needs of Africa is a north and south railway through its central regions from the Mediterranean to the Cape.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else; then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful, it is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in cough and colds. Free trial sent at John Y. MacRae's drugstore. Regular size 50c and $1.

ABERDEEN, O., July 21, 1891. Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.: Dear Sirs—I bought a bottle of your P. P. P. at Hot Springs Ark., and it has done me more good than three months' treatment at the Hot Springs. Send three bottles C. O. D.

Skin Cancer Cured.

Testimony from the Mayor of Seppin, Tex. SEPPIN, TEX., January 11, 1902. Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer of thirty years' standing, and found great relief. It purified the blood, and removed all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly, CAPT. W. M. BURT, Attorney at Law.
