The plant of the Carolina oil and crockery company at Wilmington being removed to Norfolk, Va. It has been purchased by Mr. E. A. Buel, of Norfolk. The reports of the oil plant will not be taken away, as it is contemplated to organize a company in September or October to manufacture wood oil, wood alcohol, etc.

Ex-state senator R. S. Mitchell, of Caswell county, has suddenly disappeared. He is said to be heavily involved and is charged with the misuse of trust funds, and his disappearance is attributed to the latter fact. A number of attachments have been served on his property.

A Pointer for the Authorities.

The new city charter does not give the police jurisdiction at Pullen park. Ever since last Friday evening the mayor has received complaints of the bad behavior of a number of young boys there. The authorities of the county can send a constable there. That course ought to be taken. People who like good order and who propose to have it will cheerfully aid a constable in securing it. Ladies must not be in any way given annoyance at the park.

Mrs. George S. Terrell returned yesterday from a six weeks visit to Richmond, Baltimore and Washington.
