STATE NEWS.

ITEMS OF ALL KINDS FROM ALL PARTS.

The North Carolina Happenings Briefly Collated.

Charlotte is having a number of burglars and attempted burglaries.

Rev. Dr. Peyton Hoge of Wilmington has declined a call to Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Lewis Rightsell of Ayden, N. C., dropped dead yesterday. Her husband is the principal of the Christian (Disciples) college at Ayden.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the state horticultural society and a general convention of horticulturalists and florists will be held at Greensboro August 21.

W. W. Long, late of Hughes, O., was arrested yesterday at Skyland, near Asheville, on the charge of bigamy. Long has a wife in Ohio and married the second time at Skyland. He gave $3,000 bond for appearance.

An excellent photograph of Anderson Brown, who will be hung at Salisbury next Thursday, was taken yesterday. The artist wanted a picture of Whit Ferrand but the officers did not care to run any risk by removing him from his cell.

A snake tale comes from the Brushy mountains in Wilkes. A large rattlesnake was discovered, and in its mouth was a big old rooster. The snake had swallowed the rooster as far as the spurs. When discovered both were dead.

China Grove was a scene of a sad suicide yesterday evening. Mr. M. P. Cline escaped from justice in Rowan county a year ago and since that time had been living in South Carolina. Becoming tired of the life of a fugitive he told his family he had decided to return and give himself up to the authorities. Yesterday morning he arrived in China Grove with his family. In the afternoon he bade them goodbye, saying he was going to Salisbury, and immediately stepped into another room and shot himself through the heart. He was at one time a prosperous merchant at China Grove, the Concord Sun says.

Summer complaint and bowel troubles quickly relieved by Hicks' Astringent Blackberry Cordial, 25c a bottle. Only at Hicks & Rogers' drug store.

A nice line of gent's four-in-hand ties at Woolcott's.

Duck and linen suits made to order and they fit too, at Woolcott's.

THEY DID NOT MEET.

The Nine Additional Members of the Penitentiary Board.

Mr. Bryan of Chatham, ex-member of the Arrington committee, and also would-be member of the board of directors of the penitentiary, was here yesterday. He was asked why he came. He replied: "Well, you know the legislative appointed directors of the penitentiary, when they adjourned did so to meet here today. After the decision of the supreme court in the other cases I do not think we have any chance of getting office. We think, of course, that the decision knocked us out. I don't think we will attempt to do anything more. I am principally here on private business."

The only thing Mr. Bryan got here was a watermelon. This he took home.

A Very Remarkable Case.

Living on a plantation of Col. O. H. Duckery, in Richmond county, is a negro girl, nine years old. For about a week she had been complaining of pains in one of her ears. Little attention was paid to it by her parents until the child came to her mother holding a common house fly in her hand and told her that it had flown from her ear. Upon looking into the left ear her mother was horrified to find the cavity in a perfect work, and swarming with flies. A doctor was sent for, and for three days they have been taking flies out of the ear, and up to a few hours ago the number had reached 169. Some came out alive, others dead—old ones and young ones—but all fully developed house flies. For a day the child has been having spasms, and her sufferings seem to be intense.

You Can't Down a Working Man.

Strike while the iron is hot, but never go on a strike. You will find it much more pleasant to go with the R. R. Relief excursion to Littleton, Saturday, July 20. Go and take a day off, it will cost you only $1.00, and when you return, if you want a safe, reliable investment call on C. C. McDonald, of the Raleigh branch of the Southern, and take some stock with him. SAVE SOMETHING!—Don't spend all of your hard earnings. Do you know that if you will save 10 cents a day, and put it in the Raleigh branch of the Southern, that at maturity (estimated 7 years) you will have $500.00, and will only have paid out $254.00, a net profit to you of $246.00.

A complete line of ladies' underwear at a very low price at Woolcott's.

Gent's gauze shirts, good ones for 25 cents each. Woolcott & Son.

EXECUTIVE NEWS

A REQUISITION MADE FOR A CHEROKEE CRIMINAL.

An Earnest Appeal for Monuments at Chickamauga.

Gov. Carr makes requisition on the governor of Georgia for E. E. Sharp, who is wanted in Cherokee county for outraging Abbie Holland. He is under arrest in Townes county, Ga., for a misdemeanor. Sheriff Davidson of Cherokee has gone after Sharp.

T. B. Parker is appointed a director of the eastern insane asylum at Goldsboro vice H. L. Grant. The latter sent in his resignation as a director because he was awarded the contract to build an addition to the asylum and to continue to be a director would violate section 1011 of the code.

An earnest appeal is made for funds with which to place stone monuments on the battlefield of Chickamauga. Col. Gilley and Maj. Hall, the officers who located the positions of North Carolina's troops there, put up wooden monuments at their own expense. They report that North Carolina troops went further than any others, and today, in reply to an inquiry made by governor Carr, call on the people of the state to contribute, so the stones can be put up before the battle ground is dedicated next September.

THE WEATHER.

Conditions and Forecast.

For North Carolina: Fair. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Fair, continued warm; probably followed by thunderstorm Saturday evening.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m.: Maximum temperature, 97, minimum temperature, 74, rainfall 0. The highest pressure is found over the Atlantic states, the lowest over the lake region and Kansas and Texas. Good rains occurred at several places in the west, but little is reported east of the Mississippi. The weather is generally clear east of the Mississippi this morning. Temperature continues very high over the southern states, but it is considerably lower on the north Atlantic coast. The conditions are favorable for fair weather until Saturday afternoon when a thunderstorm may occur.

THE STATE PRESS.

The Annual Meeting of the Association at Greensboro.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, C. L. Stevens, Southport leader; vice presidents, W. F. Marshall, Gastonia Gazette, W. W. McDiarmid, Lumberton Robesonian, W. K. Jacobson, Washington Progress; secretary, John B. Sherrill, Concord Times; orator, W. E. Dowd, Charlotte News; poet, Hal W. Ayer, Caucasian; historian, Jas. D. Kernodle, Alamance Gleaner; delegates to national editorial association, Joseph P. Caldwell, W. C. Erwin, John P. Carr, J. W. Bailey; alternates, W. W. McDiarmid, Josephus Daniels, J. A. Robinson, D. J. Whichard.

Yesterday the convention went on a special train to Guilford battle ground. At banquet last evening editor E. J. Hale of the Fayetteville Observer was to act master.

Those who replied to toasts were, John Gray Bynum, Hal W. Ayer, Charles H. Ireland, Josephus Daniels, Chas. D. Melver, James E. Boyd, Inc. L. King, W. F. Marshall, H. A. London and B. M. Douglas.

The editors are to be the guests of the Atlantic hotel at Morehead City, Saturday and Sunday. They left for Morehead this morning.

The City Cotton Market

The local receipts here since September 1 are 36,516 bales against 29,321 to this date last season. This week's receipts are 59, against 438 during the corresponding week last year. The stock on the platform is 80. Shipments 39 for the week. Middling cotton is quoted at 71-8.

Woolcott has a few things that will interest you if you call at their store. Dress goods of all descriptions.

A SUGGESTION

That the Streets Around the Market be Cleaned at Night.

It is the custom here to clean the streets north and south of the market late Saturday afternoon. Teams stand on those streets until 10 o'clock. The result is that Sunday morning those streets are filthy and appear as if they had not been swept. The proper thing to do is to clean the streets after the teams have left, and to make them leave at 10 o'clock. Then everything will be clean and tidy on Sunday. This is particularly called to the attention of the officials.

REMNANTS.

The local thunderstorm this afternoon was rather a surprise.

Rev. W. G. Clements says the crops in western Wake are only about half an average.

Editor Dowd of that sprightly paper the Charlotte News was here this afternoon.

Mr. Walter Woolcott and family returned from Copal Grove yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Simmons and daughter are taking their summer vacation at Chapel Hill which is quite a summer resort.

The university summer normal school thrives. The whole number registered is 137, while the law school has 32.

About 35 of the members of the state press association passed here this afternoon on the way to Morehead City. They were dusty and mighty dry, but happy.

Near Haw River the east bound train today killed a white man about twenty-three years of age. He was drunk and was lying on the track and was horribly mangled.

The highest temperature yesterday at the weather station was 96 7-10. Today it was just the same. This beats the summer's record save during the notable heated term of late May and early June.

State geologist Holmes says that this week the experts will complete their examination of and reports on the great water-power of the "Narrows" of the Yadkin.

A prominent republican of this city says that quite a number of populists and republicans have the "gubercular fever" in bad form. He declined to mention the names of any of the sufferers.

Dr. McNeill of Connecticut, who has a fine farm and vineyard at Pine Bluff, was here today to see the authorities in regard to corporation taxes. While here he visited the jail, in which there are now only seven prisoners.

Though the owners of the Raleigh mills were deeply interested in the drainage matter which was recently decided here, they took no part in the prosecution and contributed no funds. For this they were scored by counsel.

Grand master Sovereign of the Knights of Labor has issued a manifesto to his organization and to the Farmers' Alliance, people's party, reform clubs and kindred societies, reciting what he declares are the wrongs of the masses and calling for a general boycott on national bank notes in all dealings between individuals; the boycott to go into effect September 1.

THIS IS A NEWSHOW.

A Railroad Will Let Two Engines Come in Collision at Full Speed.

COSTOCON, July 18—A novel exhibition will be given on the Cleveland Southern railroad on Saturday. A great amphitheatre is being erected and two forty-ton engines are to be allowed to come in collision head on at full speed before thousands of spectators. The engines have been christened "Protection" and "Free Trade." They will be magnificently decorated, and it will be placed one mile apart at starting. They will meet in an inclosure without automatic gates, after having been started by two engineers. The engines are now being exhibited along the line.

Rensburg of Fayetteville, one of the finest solo clarinet players in the south, will play with the Capital City concert band at Brookside park this evening.

A general order from military headquarters states that supplies to troops will be issued every six months; in July and January. The enlisted men in the state guard are to be provided with two pairs of trousers, for undress and dress. Supplies for six months are at all times to be kept in the arsenal.

Curbing and posts to be put up around the confederate monument have arrived, and will be in place in about two weeks. Iron chains will be stretched from post to post. It is proposed to have an electric light placed on the west front of the capitol so its light will powerfully illuminate the monument. The first electric lights at the capitol were on top of the building.

At Charlotte yesterday the people turned out in great numbers to see a game of baseball between two colored teams, for $100. The teams were the Charlotte "Quicksteps" and the Greensboro "Blue Shirts." The first named which gave the challenge, won, 9 to 8. The Charlotte Observer devotes two columns to a description of the game. Another game was played this afternoon by the same teams.
