

FOUR HUNDRED

KILLED IN BATTLE

SPY DISCHARGED

Water at Grimes Camp Found Pure

SUSPECTED RELEASED

He Gave His Name as Bonner from New York--He was Told to Leave the City Immediately.

The stranger arrested at Camp Grimes yesterday, who was suspected of being a Spanish spy was liberated this morning.

The prisoner's movements about the camp yesterday attracted some suspicion and it was feared that he had poisoned the water supply for the camp. This morning samples of the water were examined chemically and it was pronounced pure. There was no positive evidence against the prisoner and he was given his liberty.

Col. Harrell examined the stranger today. He ascertained that he was a half Indian. The man gave his name as Bonner. He had a ticket from New York to Atlanta. After being liberated he was escorted to the depot and told to shake the dust of Raleigh from his feet by first train.

Last night the prisoner was placed under heavy guard. Eight men stood around him with bayonets glaring in his face.

A PIANO RECITAL.

Given by the Graduates in Music at Peace Institute Last Night.

Last night at Peace Institute, before a few personal friends of the young ladies taking part Misses Marguerite Eleanor Exum and Annie E. McLean gave the recital necessary to their receiving diplomas in music. It is seldom that two young ladies possessing such unexceptional talent are found outside the larger cities. Their technique is brilliant. They played the entire program without notes, demonstrating great powers of physical endurance. Miss McLean excels perhaps when light and fairy-like rapidity is demanded. Her staccato work is clear and crisp, and her phrasing was given with taste and skill.

Miss Exum is a player of unusual powers with a beautiful singing touch. Her climaxes were always well graded, dispelling the too common error of anticipation in its rendition. She plays with a graceful ease and repose, which greatly enhances the effect. Considered from the critic's standpoint, their interpretation may not at all times be entirely satisfactory, but this could only be expected from mature artists; therefore these young ladies have ample opportunity to develop their talent in this direction. The rendition of the program demonstrated conclusively the thoroughness and excellency of their training by Prof. Gilmore Ward Bryant. These young artists were assisted by Miss Maggie Moring, who accompanied them on a second piano, showing marked ability, and Misses Benja McLean and Nellie Shaw, as readers, reflect great credit on their instructor, Miss Caspart. The following is the program as rendered:

Concerto in C maj. (First Movement), Beethoven; Miss McLean.
(Orchestral accompaniment on second piano by Miss Moring.)
"The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," Dewey; Miss Exum.
"Spinneried," Wagner-Liszt; Miss McLean.
"Sonata, op. 57" (First Movement) Beethoven; Miss Exum.
"Willie and His Girl" (Selection), Edwin L. Barker; Miss B. McLean.
"Etude, op. 10, No. 12" (Two pieces), Chopin; Misses Exum and McLean.
"Concerto in A Minor," McDowell; Miss Exum.

(Orchestral accompaniment on second piano by Miss Moring.)
"Romanza in F Sharp," Shumann; Miss McLean.
"A Coquette in Difficulties" (Selection), Rhoda Broughton; Miss Shaw.
"Erlkonig," Schubert-Liszt; Miss Exum.
"Hexentanz," McDowell; Miss McLean.
"Octave Etude in E Flat" (Two pieces), Kullak; Misses McLean and Exum.

Robert Bolts, from Carteret county, North Carolina, was killed in the bombardment at Cienfuegos.

THE A. AND M. COLLEGE.

The debate, given by the Pullen Literary Society, at the A. and M. College, last night, was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever given at the college. By 8:30 o'clock the hall, which had been beautifully decorated in pink and white, the society colors, was crowded with the friends and admirers of the young men.

The declamations, essays, and speeches were so very good that it took the judges some time to make a decision. They awarded the "Declamations" medal to Mr. Wilber C. Cook, of Louisville, and the "Essayist" to Mr. John H. Birdsong, of Raleigh. The debaters medal was given to Mr. Joe C. Moore, of Glouce, N. C.

The query was, Resolved, that the elective franchise should be limited by educational and property qualifications.

The subjects were well handled and all the speeches were splendid. After the exercises were over a most delightful German was given in the mess hall, about 30 couples dancing. First Lieutenant John Haward, of Tarboro rifles leading.

The judges were W. J. Peel, R. O. Burton and Hugh Morson. Mr. Peel awarded the medals, with a very nice little talk. The judges decided in the negative but the medal was given to Mr. Moore, of the affirmative.

The re-arrangement of the carrier route, which was made necessary by the consolidation of the two papers, has entailed an immense amount of work and the absence of the editor from the city on the sad mission for which he was called south has made this work difficult. However, the management expects to have things in smooth working order by the middle of next week. If you fail to get your paper please let us know because if you are not heard from the supposition is that your paper is going to you regularly.

Subscribers to the Times and the Press-Visitor, who are in arrears, will please remember that subscriptions to the Times-Visitor are strictly payable in advance. Generally cloudy weather prevails in the northwest, and at scattered stations in the east, but continues fair in the south and over most of the Atlantic States.

Owing to the absence of a district area of high barometer the weather conditions are unsettled and showery weather is probable. A slight high area is central over the upper Ohio valley, with a little cooler weather over New England; elsewhere the temperature continues high.
