UNDER ONE FLAG

The following appropriate, truthful and tender sentiment is clipped from a New York Tribune editorial, and will meet a responsive sentiment in the breast of every true American: "It is worth while also to remember that the South furnishes the first sacrifice of this war. Ensign Bagley was a native of North Carolina. With his blood he has sealed the union in arms of the North and South. A people who once fought against the Stars and Stripes send one of their sons as the first sacrifice for the honor and glory of that flag. There is no North and no South after that. We are all Worth Bagley's countrymen."

WORK RESUMED.

"After repeated attacks of the grip I was a weak I could hardly drag about. I was nervous, had palpitation of the heart and food did not agree with me. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and after taking four bottles I resumed my work and now enjoy the best of health." Mrs. M. F. Murray, Stainback, N. C.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, headache.

Madrid, May 14.—A telegram from Martinique says that only one war vessel, a torpedo-boat destroyer, carrying despatches, has entered the harbor of Fort de France. A despatch from Porto Rico says that one officer and three soldiers were killed in the engagement at San Juan, and thirty were wounded. The steamship Roata, it is stated, has reached San Juan with a cargo of coal.
