A YOUNG MAN'S WAR.

The average age of the volunteers who have collisted for this war is only twenfy-four. The arms we are sending against Spain is, perhaps, the coungest that ever went to battle. The youthfulness of the volunteers from the North and West who have passed thipugh Atlanta has been a subject of much remark, and the Georgia valunteers are mostly very young men. The enthustism and vigor of youth are of great value in war. Our boys are going out with light Kearts and with the flush of confidence on their cheeks. They will gain experience rapidly and many of Mr. Hill E. King has been deputized them will distinguish themselves. The by the Great Incohenia of the United youth of the country has responded States to institute the sew order policy to the gall for troops, as American nobly to the call for troops, as Amerlean youth always has. In every one ested to meet at the court house of her wags young men have won promptly at the hour named on Friday. The chief promoters of the new tribe are Messrs, Hill King and J. M. Bishop.
