The audience was unanimous in pronouncing it the best sacred entertainment recently held in this city. "Delight need not be ashamed of home talent." It is a good sign when young people of the church best themselves and develop the social side of religion. Below is given the program rendered, at the conclusion of which Rev. K. H. THE NEW SCHOOL

It Will be Erected at Once—Now

ON WEST AND MORGAN

Will be Two Stories High and Accommodate Two Hundred and Fifty Pupils—School Board Meets June 29th.

The Times-Visitor is able to state that the proposed school building for the western section of this city will be erected and ready for occupancy by the opening of the Raleigh public schools for the fall term.

For more than a year residents of that part of the city have been anxious for a school building near their homes so that their children would not be required to go so far to attend school exercises. There has been during the past year numerous complaints from patrons of both white and colored schools, who allege that there is not sufficient room in the present buildings to accommodate the increased number of pupils in the schools. In several rooms the enrollment is said to have been several per cent greater than the capacity of the class rooms and in some instances teachers have petitioned for extra seats for their pupils, and have found the supply exhausted.

All reasons for the construction of a new building have been carefully considered by members of the School Board and it is now an assured success.

The Board is called to meet Wednesday, June 29th for the purpose of selecting plans and making final arrangements for beginning the erection of the building. The Board at present consists of Mayor William Russ, Dr. R. H. Lewis, Mr. G. Rosenthal, Editor J. W. Bailey, Mr. O. Burton, Esq., Mr. A. A. Thompson and Mr. Garland Jones and it is known that five members have expressed themselves as favorable to according to the request of the people of the western section of the town.

The School Board holds in trust the property on the corner of West and Morgan streets for which they paid $2,000, and on this lot the building will be erected.

The colored school on the old Watson property in South east Raleigh will take care of two hundred and fifty colored children. Thus relieving the overcrowded Washington and Garfield schools.

The Morgan and West street school, to be erected, will comfortably accommodate two hundred and fifty white children thus removing the cause of complaint at the Murphy and Centennial Graded Schools.

The building as it is now planned will be two stories high and will contain four large rooms, probably 18x25 feet and a passageway 12 feet wide. The passageway will not be in the center of the building as it will be when ready for occupancy next fall, but will be on the side of the building so that, when the Board can raise sufficient funds to complete a similar building beside the new one the hall way will be in the center and the building systematic. There will be nothing fancy about the new building. Though it will be one of the safest and most durable buildings in the city and will be perfectly adapted to the purpose. Besides the four school rooms in the first section to be erected there will be a cloak room for the use of the children and it is possible that some additional plans which are now being considered will enlarge the building.

The important announcement at this time is the fact that the school will be completed and ready for occupancy by the first of September and children in that section of the city will no longer be required to make the long pilgrimage to the Centennial and Murphy schools.

As to whether extra teachers will be required for this school has not yet been decided though it is believed that some one of the present corps of teachers will be clothed with the authority of principal.

A MOST CHARMING OUTING.
No more pleasant an enjoyable outing party has taken place this season than that of the "Children of Mary," an organization within the Catholic congregation of Raleigh and its friends. That elegant place of resort Tucker's Pond was the place and the party consisted of Miss Mary Ferrall, Misses Florence, Minnie and Eva Barbee, Misses Ressler Wharton, Miss Jennie Higgins, Miss Lillie Ferrall, Miss Nellie Wharton, Miss Rosa MacLenn, Misses Rosa and Annie English—under the general protection of Dr. J. E. Barbee. The party of young ladies were chaperoned by Mrs. Captain Mealeon, Mrs. Judge Harry Roberts and Mrs. J. Gelshoben.

The Good Shepherd Sunday School will join the Presbyterian in the picnic to Occochee Tuesday morning. Scholars, teachers and the congregation can secure their tickets Monday at C. C. McDonald's office.

There will be a meeting of the Young Woman's Missionary Society of Edenton Street Methodist church tomorrow (Sunday) at half past five at the usual place.

SECOND REGIMENT

No Orders to Move Yet Received

WHERE WILL THEY GO?

Governor Russell's Statement that They Would Leave Before Tomorrow Didn't Hold Water—Many Theories as to a New Camp.

The God of War, His Excellency Daniel L. Russell's statement to the contrary notwithstanding the soldier boys comprising the Second Regiment at Camp Dan Russell will spend another Sabbath day in Raleigh.

Tuesday last the Governor made the statement that the Second Regiment would be ordered to leave before tomorrow, but up to this hour of writing no orders or rumors of orders have arrived at the camp and Col. Burgwyn is as ignorant of the time of departure as is the humblest private in the rear ranks of the youngest company.

The boys, while anxious to go to the front, do not look forward with much pleasure to the probability of spending the summer at either Jacksonville, Tampa, or Chiefland Park and would greatly prefer remaining in Raleigh where the kind women of this city have looked after their welfare with such a kindly interest.

All statements as to the point to which the Second Regiment will be ordered are mere speculations though some may guess the camp at the Carolina boys will spend the summer.

Three weeks ago the theory was advanced that the Second would go to Manila with the reinforcements for Twelfth and closely following came rumors of orders near at hand calling the men to Jacksonville to be with the First Regiment of North Carolina Volunteers under General Lee to go to Porto Rico for the army of invasion to be sent at the time of the attack on Havana.

Others have presented the idea that Col. Burgwyn's regiment would be given coast defense duty, but this was not considered long as the condition of the war did not point to the possibility of infantry being needed as coast defense, in fact it was thought more probable that if the reported utterance of President McKinley, in which he was quoted as saying that the war would be carried into Spain, were true the Second would be used in the army to cross the Atlantic and march from Cadiz to Madrid. All the theories are equally groundless though army men generally say the second is certain to be ordered somewhere within ten days or two weeks.

General Burke, several days since, said to a reporter in Atlanta that he had no information as yet as to where the various volunteer regiments under his command would be ordered.

Out at camp Russell the boys are not complaining but they are deeply astounded of the deserters and are almost universally in favor of some severe punishment.

Tomorrow morning Chaplain Osborn will conduct the usual Sabbath services and the regiment will still be at the same old stand.

MISS HALE'S SUCCESSOR.

Mrs. Barbee Will Probably be Principal of Centennial School.
At the called meeting of the School Board on June 29th a successor to Miss Mable Hale, who recently resigned as principal of the Centennial Graded School will be selected.

The name of her successor is not known and the School Board's intention is to leave the matter entirely in the hands of Superintendent Moses, who is now in Tennessee getting ready to come here and prepare his permanent home for his family.

While it was suggested that a man should be placed in charge of the Centennial School this is not thought absolutely necessary and in fact it is thought a lady teacher fully capable of filling the position to the entire satisfaction of the patrons of the school is among the corps of teachers already employed.

It is known that the position was tendered to Mrs. Barbee and that she declined, but an extra effort is being made to induce her to accept and to take charge of the school. As a teacher she has few equals in the city and there is no better disciplinarian. There are also two new teachers to be elected and they will be named at the June meeting.

LIEUT. WOOTEN'S SUCCESS.

Lieutenant Bradley Wooten of the Second Regiment is well known in Raleigh and there are many people who rejoice in his success as an officer of the Second Regiment. It will be a pleasure to his many friends if the prediction of the New York Herald pans out for his good.

The Herald states that one hundred second lieutenants for the regular army are to be appointed from the volunteer forces and that Mr. Wooten, an account of his excellent record, both in the volunteer service and as a cadet at the A. and M. College, is to be the lucky man from North Carolina.

"THAT MOSQUITO FLEET."

Will not bother you at Ocean View if you are so fortunate as to get there in the Tabernacle over-land, June 29th. Well-bred sea-borne, fishing and bathing sailing. Are you in it? Round trip Wilmington, $2.00. The train runs through to the Beach without change of cars, round trip 25 cents from Wilmington.

There will be a meeting of the Young Woman's Missionary Society of Edenton Street Methodist church tomorrow (Sunday) at half past five at the usual place.

FOR ODD FELLOWS

News of the Order's Recent Workings

THE SECRETARY'S WORK

A War Story of Interest to Everybody and in it the True Fraternal spirit is shown—New Lodges organized.

Efforts are being made for new lodges at several places.
The prospectus of the new paper "The Orphan Home" is being sent out. Have you seen it?
Our city lodges are taking an outing during the hot nights. The members are mostly outside on lodge nights.
Many a lodge meeting is of more interest by the absence of disagreeable members, but that ought not to keep you away.
The Grand Secretary returned to the city Tuesday last from an interesting trip to Charlotte, and points in Cleveland county.

Gaston Lodge, No. 188, seems to continue on the boom. Their monthly dues of candidates for June, started in with six per initiation, and will all get through by the last meeting in the month.
The Grand Secretary, having been made the financial and traveling agent for the Orphan Home in Goldsboro, will spend several days next week investigating the Home and its management, as well as any history of the orphan children now in its care that might be worth the attention of the membership. Our readers may expect to see something of interest from the Home occasionally in this column.

The Odd Fellows in Charlotte are furnishing an Odd Fellows room in the city hospital, where any Odd Fellows needing care and attention will be admitted and cared for. All the furniture and other furnishings will be sent to Jacksonville to be with the emblem of the Order and the plate over the door will read "Odd Fellows Room." This is a praiseworthy move, led by our District Deputy, Bro. J. C. Palamounie.

The Charlotte Observer of the 14th has the following:
Charlotte Lodge, No. 88, I. O. O. F., held a joint session last night, on the occasion of a visit from Mr. H. H. Woodell, grand secretary of the grand lodge. The first business of the evening was the installing of Miss Laura Wadsworth as warden of the State Assembly of the Daughters of Rebekah. Miss Wadsworth is the past noble grand of Charlotte Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, and was elected to the post of warden at the session of the State Assembly in May.

After the installation, which was highly interesting to the initiated, the lodges listened to an instructive address from Grand Secretary Woodell on the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home at Goldsboro. One of the orphans lead his class at the Goldsboro graded school and won a scholarship at the University of North Carolina.

Noble Grand Bell of Charlotte Lodge, also made an interesting talk and commended the Daughters of Rebekah for the part they are taking in fitting up a room at the hospital for Odd Fellows.

Visiting Odd Fellows present were: Messrs. W. M. Jones, past grand, and L. G. Cathey, noble grand, of Gastonia Lodge.

"AS YE WOULD."

If I should weep
A brother languishing in sore distress
And I should turn and leave him comfortless
When I might be
A messenger of hope and happiness—
How could I ask to have what I denied,
In my own hour of bitterness supplied?

If I might share
A brother's load along the duty way,
And I should turn and walk along that day,
How could I dare—
When in the evening watch I knelt to pray—
To ask for help to bear my pain and loss,
If I had heeded not my brother's cross?

If I might sing
A little song to cheer a fainting heart,
And I should see my lips and sit apart,
When I might bring
A bit of sunshine for life's ache and smart—
How could I hope to have my grief relieved,
If I kept silent when my brothers grieved?

And so I know
That day is lost wherein I fail to lend
A helping hand to some wayfaring friend,
But if it show
A burden lightened by the cheer I send,
Then do I hold the golden hours well spent,
And lay me down to sleep in sweet content.

A WAR STORY.

Among the prisoners taken by the Union troops when Picket made his great charge at Gettysburg was a Virginia sergeant. He was an Odd Fellow.

Capt. John A. Kellogg, of the Sixth Wisconsin, gave him a drink of some thing reviving from his fainting and put some rations in his empty haversack. Their parting was that of brothers.

In December, 1864, when Kellogg was a colored commanding his regiment, I accompanied him on a ride along the picket line a few miles to the left of Petersburg. By some means, and without knowing it, we got between a belt suddenly by the following un-military salute:
"Is that you, Captain Kellogg?"
Looking up, and about two rods to the right, we saw a lieutenant and a
