The Spaniards have been criticised for calling Americans "pigs." In the majority of cases the name does not apply, but from the appearance of some of our sidewalks one would judge that expectorating "hogs" resided in this city, all of which disgusts the ladies of Raleigh who love to be cleanly attired.

It would be of interest to know whether the messages from Cervera and other Spanish officers had war revenue stamps attached.

Editor Bailey of the Recorder seems inclined to oppose the establishing of a "canteen" so far from the city.

Admiral Sampson by his rank alone is entitled to bounty for the destruction of Cervera's fleet.
