> Some Important Questions Which will Come Before the Body

> Episcoualians are looking forward with much interest to the meeting of the General Convention, which assem-bles in Washington on October 5. Sev-eral prominent churchmen from Raleigh expect to attend.

The General Convention, which is the chief legislating body of the Protestant Episcopal Church, meets triennially, and this year the session will be held in Washington for the first time, the hurch of the Epiphany being utilized for the meetings.

It is exepected that about bishops and some 460 clerical and lay delegates will attent the convention.

The bishops compose what is known as the House of Bishops, while the clerical and lay deputies form the House of Deputies. Each of the fifty-eight dioceses of the church sends eight deputles, divided equally between the cler-gy and laity, to the convention. The joint action of the two houses is requisite on all resolutions and matters legislation before they can become op-

PHILIPPINE QUESTION

The Belief that this Country will Practically Win, Cenainly Control, the Philipin s Steedaly Gains Ground

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor. WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 .- The impression is steadily growing here that when the terms of peace between the United States and Spain are finally concluded they will be found to include a provision for the practical ownership and certainly the control of the Philippine Islands by America. Although nothing official can be learned further than the statement made by Judge Day last night, a member of the administration circle said today regarding the control of the Philippines: "There is no escape from it; the American people demand it; the conditions are such that there is no alternative."

Senator Frye, of Maine, said that the dea of holding all the land secured by conquest is steadily growing. It is believed that the instructions which have been imparted to the peace commissioners are not hard and fast except as to the general policy, which in their discretion to deal with any unexpected developments as they may oc-

STRANGE ADVENTURES OF MISS BROWN

The Norfolk Landmark of Septemper 13th says: At the Academy of Music last night

this farce received its initial presentation in Norfolk. The audience was large and enjoyed the performance thoroughly. The plot hinges on the offorts of a captain of the Dragoons to keep his wife, who is a ward in chancery, and who is married while at a boarding school. This captain has to enter the school as one of the girls, and in consequence is subjected to many trying situations. There is nothing que about it, but there are many ludi crous scenes, which thoroughly amuse, The company which is presenting the farce is large and thoroughly competent, so that taken as a whole, the "Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" will prove a laugh-producer of the first water. This wonderful company will appear at the Academy of Music in this city Monday night September 19th, 1898. Prices: Gallery, 25c.; general admis sion, 50c.; reserved seat 75c and $1.00.

IT IS DISGRACEFUL.

Mr. Editor: While ladmire your able defence of the boys of the Second Regiment for their hilarity and lack of gentility in yesterday's paper, yet there is a screw loose somewhere in discipline of this regiment. A disgraceful and disugsting sight is a swaggering soldier with huge bowie knife stuck in belt parading the streets like a Spanish desperado. Many of such can be seen Others get rowdy and do not hesitate to whip out a pistol at any moment when spoken to about their rowdyism.

This is not intended to reflect upon the large percentage of gentlemanly soldiers in the regiment, but there are some, and they ought to be known to the officers, who should be confined in
