

MARIA TERESA LOST

Former Spanish Cruiser Sunk November First

ALL EFFORTS FUTILE

The Maria Teresa Was Enroute Under Her Own Steam From Santiago for Norfolk to be Docked and Repaired.

By Telegraph to The Times-Visitor.
CHARLESTON, Nov. 5.—The quarantine officer at this place reported the sinking of the former Spanish cruiser Maria Teresa. The crew manning the Maria Teresa and her convoy are now at the station of this quarantine officer.

The Maria Teresa was sunk in the battle of Santiago when Cervera's fleet was destroyed. She was finally raised by means of inflated air bags. Her raising was due to the untiring efforts of Lieutenant Hobson.

The Maria Teresa was en route under her own steam from Santiago to Norfolk, where she would have been docked and thoroughly repaired.

The tug of the Merritt Wrecking Company, which had the Maria Teresa in tow, arrived at Charleston today. The captain reports that the former Spanish cruiser sunk on the morning of November 1st off the Bahama group of islands. The crew which was taken to convoy the vessel were all saved. Nothing whatever could be done to prevent the cruiser from sinking.

TROUBLE NOT ENDED.

Other Question Arises to Strain the Anglo-French Tension.

By Cable to The Times-Visitor.
LONDON, Nov. 5.—The definite announcement of the evacuation of Fashoda lessens, but does not end the Anglo-French tension. The two governments are now ready to proceed with negotiations concerning Bahr el Ghazal, which is sure to be long and intricate, but will probably have a pacific outcome. The peril of them is the accumulated resentment of each nation against the other, which the Fashoda dispute revealed and concentrated.

ARMS TO RED SHIRTS.

Richmond Dealers Shipping Guns to North Carolina.

(Richmond Dispatch.)
Richmond is doing a big business in supplying arms and ammunition to North Carolina for possible use on election day.

The total number of rifles and shot-guns sent into North Carolina from Richmond during the past ten days will probably reach 300, the number of revolvers shipped will bring the total number up nearly, if not quite, to 500.

Still the demand is not supplied. One dealer states that he could send 150 rifles into the State if he had them in stock, but that he is not able to fill the orders. There have also been shipped large quantities of ammunition.

Cottrell, Watkins & Co. say that during the past ten days they have sent into the eastern and central portions of the State—the storm centre—between 200 and 300 rifles, shotguns and revolvers. They have also shipped large quantities of ammunition of every kind sold probably 150 more rifles if so many were in stock. It has not been able to fill all orders.

T. W. Tignor's Sons have also made very heavy shipments of arms and ammunition to the Black Belt of North Carolina recently, and have received from that section many letters of inquiry regarding the prices of firearms and ammunition. This firm expects to make heavy shipments within the next day or two.

The Richmond Hardware Company has made considerable shipments to North Carolina consignees recently and Baldwin & Brown have had their North Carolina trade in firearms considerably increased.

THE ELECTION.

Politicians are now busy estimating the result of the election in North Carolina next Tuesday. Great interest is felt in the result.

The Democrats are confident of a good majority in the next State House of Representatives, and a safe majority in the State Senate. They also state that the indications all point to the election of the following Democratic Congressmen: Small, in the First district; Kitchin, in Fifth; Bellamy, in Sixth; Klutz, in Seventh, and Crawford in Ninth.

The fusionists claim the State House of Representatives by a very narrow margin, and a majority in the Senate.

The Populists claim that they will get the following Congressmen: Skinner, in First; Fowler, in Third; Jenkins, in Fourth, and some of them claim Caldwell will carry the Seventh.

The Republicans claim White in the Second district, Adams in Fifth, Linney in Eighth and Pearson in Ninth.

The Baltimore Sun today says on the North Carolina situation: "The Democrats feel more confident of carrying the State than they have felt at any time since 1876, when Vance defeated Settle, and their campaign has been the most active and aggressive one since that memorable contest. At the last election the Republicans fused on Judges, solicitors, Congressmen, in fact, on everything except Governor and Lieutenant Governor. The Populists nominating candidates for their offices. They have done likewise this year, but the fusion is not as complete as it was then, because there was a pretty strong feeling among the Populists against fusion with the Republicans, and the fact that fusion was effected has driven many Populists, who were formerly Democrats, back into the Democratic party. This is one of the things the Democrats are relying upon to carry the State."

FEARFUL ACCIDENT

Ten Killed in Coal Mine Disaster

CRUSHED IN SHAFT

Loaded Coal Cars Ran Into the Shaft Crushing the Men Who Were Ascending in the Carriage.

By Telegraph to The Times-Visitor.
WILKESBARRE, PA., Nov. 5.—An accident in Exeter Colliery, Lehigh Valley Coal Company, today, resulted in killing Michael Smith, Andrew Tinche, Michael Podesabanny, Michael Brazuke, Joseph Culock, Michael Waslowski and Joseph Andrewski and fatally injuring William Pukos, Joseph Winslow and Paul Leckwopes. These men were descending into the mine on a carriage, when cars loaded with coal ran from the drift into the shaft in which the carriage was descending and came down upon them. The bodies of the men were horribly mangled. It is a miracle that all of them were not instantly crushed.

PEACE COMMISSION.

By Cable to The Times-Visitor.
PARIS, Nov. 5.—It is expected that the American reply to the Spaniards will be brief, insisting upon the right of effective conquests. The Spanish commission will next insist upon a discussion of the cession as a sale, not as an indemnity. Germany is prepared to offer two hundred million for the Philippines. Afterwards there will be a fight over the amount of the indemnity. Sagasia will remain in power while the negotiations last. There is reason to prolong the negotiation, but no rupture between the American and Spanish commissions is probable.

BEING FELT IN VIRGINIA.

A Deep Impression in the Black Belt—Winchesters and Revolvers For North Carolina.

SPECIAL TO BALTIMORE SUN.
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 4.—The phenomenal campaign going on in North Carolina is quite sure to have an influence in the black belt districts of this State. Information from the Fifth, which borders on the Old North State, is to the effect that the contest is making a deep impression in some parts of that section of Virginia. The same is likely to prove true in the Petersburg and Norfolk district, which border on North Carolina, and whose people are intimately associated with Carolinians.

The hardware merchants and gun stores have done a thriving business with North Carolina during the recent excitement. It is estimated that within the last ten days two hundred Winchester and one hundred revolvers have been sold to the white people of Eastern North Carolina.

BUTTONS FOR DEMOCRATS.

Mr. Edward L. Torsch, of Baltimore, has completed an order for 100,000 campaign buttons to be used by the advocates of a white government in North Carolina. The buttons are about the size of a silver twenty-five-cent piece, and are in two designs. One is a brilliant red, the color affected by the Democrats, and the other is in white, with red and blue lettering. The sentiment is the same on each. "White Union," around the edge of the buttons, with the word "Government" on a band across the middle.

PRISCILLA.

Mrs. Shipp, with her splendid troupe, will, on the 10th, put "Priscilla," a bright little opera, on the boards here at the Academy of Music for the benefit of Rex Hospital. Mrs. Shipp needs no introduction to Raleigh people. If in no other way, her presentation of "Princess Bonnie" here eighteen months ago would be a sufficient guarantee to secure her an audience. Then the Ladies' Hospital Association, under whose auspices the play is presented, have ever received such support from the Raleigh people that we feel sure they will not fail us now.

"Priscilla" is a bright, mirthful opera, and all who go will have nothing but fun to recall. Tickets will be 50 and 25 cents.

Faucett have filed with the Secretary of State articles of agreement for the incorporation of the Daisy Hosiery Mills, for the manufacture and sale of cotton and woolen hosiery. The principal office and place of business shall be at Burlington, and the capital stock is $2,900.

"A HIRED GIRL."

"A Hired Girl" received very flattering (?) notices from both morning papers. The News and Observer said: "Such a conglomeration as 'The Hired Girl,' at the Academy of Music last night, is rarely witnessed here. It might be fitly termed another batch of 'Blaney's Blarney.' It paired most beautifully with the section that passed earlier in the season under the disguise of 'A Boy Wanted.' Neither are wanted here again. The feature that is commended was the very, very slim audience."

The Morning Post said: "Another of Mr. Charles E. Blaney's 'latest successes' was exploited on the stage of the Academy last evening. This time it was 'A Hired Girl.' Let us hope that Mr. Blaney will not favor us soon with another of his 'latest successes.' 'A Boy Wanted' more than satisfied us, and we are not likely to soon recover from 'A Hired Girl.' If we are to be favored again with another production from the pen of Mr. Blaney, we sincerely trust that it won't be one of his 'latest successes.' Two a year is enough. Three might result disastrously."

The author announces that "A Hired Girl" contains no plot, but is one of his original jokes. Mr. Blaney should have the joke labelled and copyrighted. The performance last evening was one of the worst seen here in a long time. There is plenty of vulgarity, some singing, a funny black-faced comedian, and a fairly good skirt dancer in "A Hired Girl." A few good specialties were introduced. Best among these was the clever dancing of Happy Fanny Fields. The performance was tiresome and nauseating. That is as much as can be said for it. The advance notices in other papers gave the "attraction" a bad name, and as a result few people witnessed the performance.

ODD FELLOWS COLUMN

Some Items That May Interest Them.

Some Items That May Interest Them. We are pleased to learn that Helena Rebekah Lodge, at Greenville, is growing in interest and also in membership.

Brethren will please remember that the 24th is Thanksgiving Day, and that we ought to remember the Orphan Home.

Our Grand Secretary has prepared and is sending out an invitation card, to the lukewarm and those lacking interest, to try to get them to come back to their Lodges again.

The reply, "Can't do anything till after election," has become painfully frequent, to the urgent requests made to the members by the Grand Secretary. This will soon be over, we are glad to say.

It is a pleasure to know that Bro. Coble, the superintendent of our Orphan Home, who has been unwell recently, has about recovered his usual good health and spirits, and that the children are all well.

We see it stated in some of our exchanges that the Lodges in the State of Illinois have voted, by a large majority, that the Grand Lodge of that State should meet biennially instead of annually. It is further stated that the Grand Lodge of that State, which meets this month, will adopt the constitutional amendment carrying this into effect. If the large Jurisdiction of Illinois finds it to the interest of the Order to economize in this way, it behooves the smaller Jurisdictions to be looking into the matter.

A very able and interesting article written by Bro. Berry, Deputy Grand Master of Illinois, upon the subject, "Is the world growing better?" is going the rounds of the fraternal press. Anything Bro. Berry writes is interesting, but this is especially so, as the writer appears in his real character in the discussion of his subject. He believes the world is growing better daily, and his evidence to prove it will not be called in question by the most desyncetic pessimist of these latter days. We wish it could be read by everybody. It is good for the blues.

WHAT THEY DO.

We herewith give the occupation of the members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which includes the officers, representatives and past grand sires present at the last session, as follows: Lawyers, 58; merchants, 20; physicians, 12; insurance agents, 10; printers, 8; editors, 7; machinists, 7; bankers, 6; book-keepers, 5; manufacturers, 5; dentists, 3; real estate agents, 2; cashiers, 5; druggists, 3; contractors and builders, 3; grand secretaries, 4; secretaries, 2; treasurers, 2; foremen, 2; sheriffs, 1; undertakers, 2; brokers, 2; photographers, 2; ministers, 3; miners, 2; inspectors, 2; clerks, 2; superintendents, 2; judges, 2; farmers, 2; landlords, 1; surveyors, 1; music dealers, 1; oyster growers, 1; traveling passenger agents, 1; health commissioners, 1; conductors, 1; stock growers, 1; tailors, 1; bakers, 1; business managers, 2; salesmen, 1; civil servants, 1; civil engineers, 1. Quite a variety of different kinds of business represented, to say the least.—Western Odd Fellow.

INVESTIGATE FULLY.

The strictest care should be exercised by the committee to whom is referred the application of a stranger for membership. No point in character and standing should be overlooked, either public, private or domestic. The investigation should be so thorough that there would be surprise should there occur a lapse. The conduct of the person at home, toward father, mother, brother, sister, wife and children, all should come under inquiry; his honesty of dealing, payment of debts, sobriety and industry are pertinent matters for investigation. The health should not be overlooked, and a predisposition to disease is important in all benevolent orders. Make the inquiry thorough, and do not report upon the matter until the committee has conferred together and fully canvassed every point. This is one of the most important matters that comes before the Lodge; see that the duty is performed in a proper manner.—S.F.ings.

THE WEATHER.

For Raleigh and vicinity: Increasing cloudiness; warmer, with showers to-night or early Sunday, followed by clearing; cooler Sunday night.

The storm has moved from northern Minnesota to the upper Lake region and has increased considerably in intensity. The barometer at Marquette is below 29.5 inches. The weather has become cloudy throughout the Mississippi valley and over the Lakes, with small amounts of rain at several points. At 8 a. m. it was raining at Davenport, St. Paul and Cincinnati. There was much fog on the north Atlantic coast, where the pressure remains high. Small amounts of rain occurred on the south Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

Mr. E. V. Denton has a barrel of the famous "Old Log Cabin" whiskey, fifteen years old, which has had a sea voyage of 6,000 miles.

CAPE FEAR AND YADKIN VALLEY RAILROAD.

Rumors have been current that negotiations were pending between the rival reorganization committees of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad for the purchase by the Baltimore committee of the bonds represented by the New York committee. A letter from an authoritative source in New York, received yesterday in Baltimore, states that the report that negotiations were pending was false, and says: "There has been no negotiations and none are now pending."—Baltimore Sun.
