QUIET PREVAILS AT WILMINGTON.

However the Great Strain Has Not Been Lessened.

Two More Negroes Killed—An Infamous White Man Punished—Negro Leaders Made to Leave Town.

WILMINGTON, N. C., NOV. 11.—TWO MORE NEGROES WERE KILLED LATE LAST NIGHT WHILE TRYING TO PASS THE GUARD ESTABLISHED THROUGHOUT THE CITY BY THE WHITES. EARLY THIS MORNING A LARGE BODY OF WHITES WENT TO THE HOUSE OF A WHITE JUSTICE OF THE PEACE WHO HAS A NEGRO WIFE, BROKE OPEN THE DOOR, AND FORCIBLY EJECTED HIM, AND DESTROYED THE FURNITURE.

AT PRESENT QUIET PREVAILS BUT DOESN'T LESSEN THE STRAIN.

SEVEN NEGROES WERE JAILED LAST NIGHT AND ESCORTED TO THE TRAIN THIS MORNING BEING TOLD IF THEY EVER REAPPEARED IN THE STATE THEY WOULD BE SHOT IMMEDIATELY.

THE CITY IS STILL UNDER MARSHAL LAW AND COLONEL WALKER TAYLOR IS PROVOST MARSHAL. HE HAS COMMAND OF THE STATE TROOPS HERE.

MISSIONARY RALLY.

Last night a most interesting missionary rally was held at the First Baptist church.

Rev. W. C. Tyree, of Durham, was the first speaker. His subject was "China," and he delighted and stirred his hearers with descriptions of the country and the need of the mission work there.

Prof. E. W. Sikes, of Wake Forest College, spoke on "Cuba and Porto Rico," and the necessity of increasing missionary activities in those islands.

Rev. Dr. Barton, of Richmond, who is corresponding secretary of the Southern Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, spoke last. His subject was, as he announced, "All Creation," and he showed the urgent need and the responsibility imposed upon Christians of carrying the gospel to all people of the earth.

MRS. ROBERTS DEAD.

Mrs. Mary J. Roberts, mother of Mrs. George C. Upchurch of this city, and relict of Mr. Edwin M. Roberts, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg, died here last Tuesday, at the age of 55. The funeral was held on Wednesday, from Mr. Upchurch's home on East Hargett street, Rev. Mr. Glenn of Central M. E. Church officiating, and the interment was in the family burial ground in the City Cemetery. Mrs. Roberts' husband was one of the first volunteers in the civil war to leave Raleigh.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

For Raleigh and vicinity fair, colder tonight; fair Saturday.

The storm has moved off the New England coast. Rains over one inch occurred at Philadelphia, New York and Boston, and the weather is still cloudy in that vicinity. Another area of cloudy weather prevails over Texas and Louisiana. Throughout the remainder of the country the weather is now clear and cold.

The cold wave has advanced rapidly eastward during the night, and a fall in temperature of from 10 to 20 degrees occurred in the east. The weather is becoming warmer in the extreme north-west.

Mr. P. M. Pearsall, of Newbern, who has done effective work at the Democratic headquarters during the campaign, left today for his home. Mr. Pearsall had in his charge the arrangement of speaking during the contest.

President E. A. Alderman, of the State University, is in the city today. He says that the University now has 470 students, and the outlook is most encouraging. The fall term will tomorrow play the university of Georgia, at Macon, and next Monday they go to Auburn, Ala., to beat the Alabama eleven. The boys have a fine team this year.

Only one telegram was received from Wilmington today besides the dispatch below. The former stated that one more negro was killed today and the coroner was holding an inquest over the bodies of several negroes. Otherwise all is quiet. G. Z. French, a carpet tagger, was forced to leave the city.

The infamous negro Manly escaped in the night and went to parts unknown. A rumor this morning was current that he came to Raleigh. However, if he is his whereabouts are unknown. The report is extremely improbable. He would not fare much better in Raleigh than he would in Wilmington.

FOR MAYOR.

While the writer thinks and feels that by courtesy and right Alderman A. M. Powell should succeed Mayor Russ, yet if the Board of Aldermen should not determine to elect Mr. Powell, they could do no better or more graceful act than call to that position our venerable friend, staunch Democrat, progressive citizen and clever gentleman, Col. Middleton T. Leach.

WONDERFUL WARSCOPE.

There is no doubt but what the Metropolitan Opera House will be crowded from pit to dome next Wednesday and Thursday when the War Pictures will give their initial performance in the city.

You will see our gallant heroes on sea and land, captains of our navy, ships circling about in water, burial of the Maine victims, launch of battleship Alabama, Spain's most powerful battleship Vizcaya, Maine arriving in Havana harbor, capture of fort near Santiago, battleship Indiana that destroyed Spanish war vessel Vizcaya, July 3rd, 1898, and many other scenes too numerous to mention. You can hear the hurling of guns and almost smell the smoke as the Americans fire at the Spaniards. It is past belief that such scenes can be produced on canvas, but it is true and will be shown by the Warscope. You can see the Rough Riders coming towards the audience and are so true to nature as to almost force observers to rise in their seat, the sounds of the horses hoofs are distinctly heard. This is an entertainment that will please every American citizen and the only entertainment of the kind that has no intermission between scenes.

SUTTON DEFEATED.

There is now no doubt that Judge Sutton is defeated for the Eastern Circuit. Dossey Battle, Esq., of Rocky Mount, whose nomination in this city several months ago was considered an empty honor will succeed him. The defeat of Judge Sutton is one of the greatest surprises of the election. He created the district, out of the blackest counties, with a Republican majority of more than 8,000 and had himself appointed Judge. It is remarkable.—Fayetteville Observer

THE THIRD TO MOVE.

A telegram was received by Major Hemphill yesterday relative to the contract for moving the troops. It is as follows: "Third North Carolina comes to Macon when shipment is made. This means that the contract made with regard to moving the troops will have to be changed as the first contract was made with the Atlanta, Knoxville & Northern Railway to take the regiment to Americus, Ga., but it has been re-brigaded and changed to Macon the contract necessarily had to be changed.

PECULIAR MARRIAGE.

Dr. Barton Tells of a Romantic Affair. Rev. Dr. Barton, of Richmond, who is in the city, tells of a romantic marriage in Louisville, Ky., an account of which was given him by a reliable party. The contracting parties were both society leaders. The marriage was to be in the finest church in the city and the house was filled at the appointed hour, hundreds of invitations having previously been sent out. The minister took his place, the wedding party entered, and the service was begun. When the room was asked, "Will you take this woman to be your wedded wife?" to the amazement of all present, he promptly answered, "No." Nothing remained but for the party to retire without concluding the ceremony.

The young man afterwards felt that he had greatly embarrassed the young lady and was anxious to make amends. He wrote her a note accordingly. She replied requesting him to call. He did so and apologized profusely but said that a sudden feeling came over him as he went up the aisle that he didn't love her sufficiently to marry her, and offered to do anything to repair the insult to her. "That can only be accomplished one way," she replied, "and that is by our going through the ceremony again and allowing me to say 'No.'" He agreed to this, invitations were again sent out, the church was packed. The same minister started to perform the ceremony. He asked the groom if he would have the bride to be his wedded wife and he answered yes, according to agreement, but to the groom's amazement, when the bride was asked if she would have the groom, she too answered yes, and the minister immediately pronounced the unwilling groom and the crafty bride, husband and wife.

MARRIED AT CARTHAGE.

Yesterday afternoon at three o'clock Mr. Thomas Palmer Jernan, Jr. of this city, and Miss Cornelia Petty were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Petty, in Carthage. Rev. W. C. Norman, D. D. of this city officiated. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jernan left for Asheville and several other points in the State.

They will be at home on North street this city after December first. Miss Petty possesses rare attractions and is one of Carolina's handsomest daughters. She has numerous admirers and will be a valuable acquisition to Raleigh's society.

Mr. Jernan is one of Raleigh's most efficient and successful business men, and his hosts of friends heartily congratulate him. He is a partner in the Royal and Borden Furniture Company of this city.

WHAT A LOT OF RESIGNING.

Mayor Russ must resign to qualify as Clerk of the Superior Court. Alderman Powell of the First Ward must resign to be elected Mayor. Alderman Bonhall of the Second Ward must resign to fill the position of Representative to which he is elected. Alderman Potter of the Third Ward must resign to qualify as Constable of Raleigh township. Mr. Russ and Mr. Potter will qualify the first Monday in December. Mr. Bonhall will qualify the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January, 1899. So all those resignations must be acted upon at the December meeting of the Board of Aldermen, which occurs Friday, December 4, 1898.

JOSE E. POGUE FOR MAYOR.

Mr. Editor—While several good gentlemen have been mentioned for Mayor of our city to fill the unexpired term of Hon. William Russ, I desire to place in nomination one of Raleigh's most influential citizens and staunch Democrat, honest upright in every respect. Such a man is Joseph E. Pogue, Esq. Let us have Mr. Pogue to fill the unexpired term of the Hon. William Russ, and the city will poll a larger Democratic vote next May than ever before.

DEMOCRATIC VOTER.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

Prizes Bestowed on the Fortunate Winners. Last night's exhibit was a grand success. Sweet faces of the fair ladies peeping about amid the gorgeous blossoms shed their radiant beauty about the wants of those whose appetites relished the dainty delicacies offered by the menu. It was a grand and glorious achievement such as could have been expected from those having the show in charge. The elegant prizes offered were worthily bestowed upon the victorious competitors and perfect satisfaction given to all.

Tonight this grand display of autumn's gorgeous variegated blossoms will continue, and until a late hour one can well amuse oneself surrounded by so many lovely flowers, so much animated loveliness, and such an abundance of palatable delicacies. Let the ladies have a most liberal patronage tonight.

FIRST PRIZE—Largest and best collection of plants—by Mrs. Brown Pogram. In this exhibit were shown 75 varieties, most of them surpassingly lovely, and including rare specimens, among them being the McGinnis, the Yellow Queen, Bonaffon, Silver Cloud, Niveus, and the Mrs. George West. Mrs. Pogram has just cause to feel proud of this splendid exhibit, which all visitors so thoroughly enjoyed.

SIXTH PRIZE—This was a special, and was won by Mrs. J. E. Hatcher, for the largest and handsomest vase of one variety, though her attractive exhibit was by no means confined to this one.

OTHER EXHIBITS—Among the loveliest plants in the "show" are some shown by Mrs. F. H. Bush, who has a beautiful collection of several varieties. Her Vivian Morel and La France attract especial notice.

An exhibit that attracted general admiration was that of John H. Small & Sons, the leading florists of Washington, D. C. This exhibit was secured by Mrs. F. A. Olds and it was one of the features of the show. There were twelve varieties of perfectly formed and most beautiful chrysanthemums. Some of the specimens were among the largest and most lovely ever seen in the city.

A number of other exquisitely lovely flowers were seen, including the Minerva, the King's Daughter (a pure and radiant white specimen) and others, exhibited by a number of ladies.
