Report of War Investigators Forth Coming. General Miles and Emlalmed Beef--Fight Against Leader Bailey.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Janu (ry 2, 1899, Mr. McKinley is so anxious for the Senate to promptly ratify the treaty of peace that he took occasion to broach the subject to a number of Senators who shook hands with him at the New Year reception at the White House today. It is the antics of Aguimaldo, believed to have both Spanish and German inspiration, which are causing Mr. McKinley anxi-ty. He told the Senators that his hands were tied, outside of the territory stready occupied by our troops, until the treaty was ratified. Democratic opposition to the treaty itself has aimost entirely lisappeared, but Democratic opposition to our keeping the Philippines perma ently appears to be increasing. Presit indications are that whatever de y there may be in reaching a vote on e treaty, which will go to the Sene this week, will come from Repuban Strators, such as Hoar. Hale and
