Queen Victoria, while favoring peace, says she would have the English people study and practice themselves less in the art of war.

The best medicine you can take is that which builds a solid foundation for health in pure, rich blood—Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Merchant shippers have a holy horror of shipping a parson or missionary on board. They have a strong superstition that a parson on board bodes evil and disastrous voyage.

You will find in the Woman's Exchange Building third floor, Madam Lela Erado, the Palmist and photograph reader. The little lady can read your disposition and character correctly. Also tell your past, present and future. All money returned if not satisfied. She is no humbug. Price low and reasonable.

TO LEGISLATORS.
For pleasant room and board apply at 124 Hillsboro street. Third door from the Capitol.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mechanics' Dime Savings Bank will be held on that bank Tuesday, January 10th, 1899, at 8 p. m. Depositors will please leave their books at the bank in order that the interest may be posted in them.
B. R. LACY, Cashier.

FOUND.—Large gold ring at the Capitol. Apply at this office.

BOARDERS WANTED.—In private family, corner Edenton and Bloodworth streets. Can accommodate four or five with rooms and more for table board.

Why not be your own boss and make money? A 25-cent investment will give you a $100-a-week salary on sight in every household. Orders are making 100 to $200 a week. Send 25 cents and we'll start at once.
ARTHUR WALPARTH,
222 Midway St., Newark, N. J.

Boarders Wanted.
Mrs. J. H. Medlin, 243, South Person Street, East Side Moore Square.

NEW YEAR INVESTMENT.
For a New Year investment, for Young Men, and for Ladies, and for persons with capital to invest—there is nothing better, safer or more profitable than the new coupon certificates of the Mechanics and Investors' Union, which pay a semi-annual dividend of three per cent, free of tax, and are secured by Real Estate and Mortgage. Price $3.50.
GEORGE ALLEN, Secretary,
222 Pullen Building.

The choicest line of cigars in town may be found at Brown's Cigar Store.
