HOUSE.

The House met at noon and Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, offered prayer.

Isaac Smith, member from Craven, arose to a question of personal privilege, in regard to action of Republican caucus in expelling him last Saturday night. He said he was part and parcel of the grand republican party, representing the noble people of Craven. He claimed that the action of the caucus was an unjust and unwarranted attack on one member and was therefore on all; that it was an unfounded attack by a caucus said to be republican.

"They say I am read out of the party. These same fellows said during the late campaign that the democrats would disfranchise the negro, and yet before the democrats had even a chance to go out and disfranchise the only member of their race who has acted in its true interest. They have disfranchised me because I had the courage to do what was right. I came here saying I was in favor of good government. How else can you prove you are for good government unless you vote for it, in other words by doing as I did? Because I vote for a democrat I am declared not a republican. I brought out McKinley 3 years before any body else did. I spent more money during the last campaign than any other republican in the State. Russell would not have been Governor but for the negroes. He has appointed only 8 of us to office he says, and yet we gave him 120,000 votes. Yes, all he does wrong my race is charged with. God bless your sweet souls, my white friends, don't charge us with what Russell has done. The Lieutenant Governor who owes his election to negroes presided at this caucus. I shall claim the right to vote as I please, which is guaranteed to all good citizens."

Retiree, republican, rose to a question of personal privilege and said he introduced the resolution regarding Smith in the caucus, but denied that it was an attack on good government. He declared he favored white supremacy in North Carolina.

Resolutions were introduced as follows: By Carraway, ordering that the State flag be displayed on the capitol. By Giles, to create a joint committee on repealing statutes.

Bills were introduced as follows: By Giles to amend chapter 1722 the Code.

By Allen, to amend chapter 138 of the Code, regarding internal improvements; to prescribe short forms of crop liens and chattel mortgages. By Harrison, to repeal the act creating the Railway Commission. By Roberson, to protect the lives and property on railways by providing against incompetent employes.

By Clarkson, to establish the Vance textile school (appropriating $15,000, the location to be at the place which gives a like sum or more). By Beasley, to repeal chapter 287, public laws of 1895. By Austin, for the relief of ex-Sheriff Hoskins of Jones. By Abbott, to repeal section 2, chapter 557, acts 1897. By Winston, to allow Bertie to issue bonds and levy special tax; to allow the corporate limits of the town of Kilduff; to amend chapter 288 public laws 1895, regarding Bertie and Craven Superior Court. CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH.

Services were held on the Sabbath both in the morning and at night, conducted by our pastor, the Rev. E. C. Glenn, and were quite interesting.

The congregations were good. The first Scripture lesson in the morning were parts of the 18th and 19th chapters of 2nd Samuel, and the second lesson was the 13th chapter of 2nd Cor. The text was 1st John, 3 chapter and 1 and 2 verses.

The theme was "Love."

The text of the sermon at night was taken from 2nd Peter, 3 chapter and 18 verse. "Glad in grace, and in knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. This epistle said that there were 3 things which it would not, in order to grow. 1st, our knowledge of our literature; 2nd, our associations; 3rd, we desire especially to spend a good deal of invitation to aid to come and worship with us."

MARRIAGE.

On yesterday at 8 o'clock p. m., and by invitation, Mr. B. Harris, Justice of the Peace, visited the residence of Mrs. Ben Justice, on Smithfield street, and being urged to lose no time, proceeded rapidly to perform the marriage ceremony. The contracting parties were Mr. Allen Maynard and Miss Hattie B. Mayan, both of Wake. Except the contracting parties, there were but three persons present. The Justice of the Peace thought he heard outside, and confused voices, some imprecations on somebody, attended with what seemed to him a preparation for an immediate attack. It being no fight of his, the Justice fled under the cover of the thick darkness of the locality, and by un-frequented streets made his way back home. However, the ceremony was performed.

RAIN AND WARMER.

The weather bureau predicts for Raleigh and vicinity, increasing cloudiness followed by rain tonight and Tuesday, warmer.

The forecast for North Carolina issued at Washington is threatening weather with rain tonight and Tuesday. Light southerly winds becoming southeasterly.

The barometer is high over the Middle Atlantic State, and north of the Lake region. A storm has formed over southwestern Texas, which is causing cloudy weather in the Mississippi valley with small amounts of rain at many stations. A little snow has fallen in the east Lake region. The temperature continues below zero in the extreme northwest but has moderated considerably elsewhere. The greatest rise in temperature occurred over Texas. Fair weather prevails over the middle Atlantic States and on the Rocky Mountain slope.

MUSTERED OUT HERE

Loose Third Regiment in Raleigh

PLANS CHANGED

The Citizens of Macon, Georgia, Did Not Want the Third Regiment Mustered Out in that City.

The plans have been changed and it now appears that Third North Carolina Regiment, composed of negroes, will be mustered out in Raleigh. It was supposed and regarded as settled that the regiment would be mustered out in Macon, Ga., but at the request of the citizens of Macon this order will be recalled. Senator Bacon has so informed the citizens of Macon.

Major Davis, at the Adjutant General's office, has not yet been notified of the change but he will probably receive notice today or tomorrow. He was not greatly surprised when told of the change.

This rather unwelcome news to a majority of Raleigh's citizens since it was hoped that this regiment would not be mustered here.

Concerning the change Sunday's Atlanta Constitution says: The Sixth Virginia and the Third North Carolina regiments will not be mustered out here. Mr. F. D. Tinsley received a telegram from Senator Bacon last night asking if he thought Senator the people here wanted the troops mustered out at their present camp. Mr. Tinsley held a conference with several prominent citizens and wired Senator Bacon that the people wished the regiments to be sent back to their respective States or somewhere else to be mustered out. Today Senator Bacon wired that they would not be mustered out in Macon and that orders had been issued to that effect. A meeting of the citizens was held yesterday, and they protested against the action. They called on General Gordon and wired Senator Bacon of the results the mustering out of the negroes would have and asked that steps be taken to prevent it.

It is now an assumed fact that the negroes will be sent away from Macon at an early date. The news of this order will be read with great pleasure by the citizens of Macon, who have been somewhat uneasy in regard to the matter.

TROUBLE IN PHILIPPINES.

A Fight Between Natives and Americans Seems Certain.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The administration is not yet ready to make public the precise nature of the disturbing dispatches received from Manila yesterday, but it is not denied that the gravest anxiety is felt on account of this. It is recognized that the most serious situation is now at hand at Iloilo. It cannot be learned whether the War Department has heard, except through the press, of the attack the natives made on the United States artillerymen in the harbor of Iloilo. But it is believed that the message contained dispatches from OMB. As far as can be learned Miller was not ordered to land. They are aboard the transports and the administration knows that an attempt to land will precipitate a conflict.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—A representative of the Philippines received a cable from the Filipino agent at Hong Kong saying: "Fight with Americans is unavoidable. We are not aggressors."

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 9.—Ten Augustine friars from Philippines arrived recently. Two were stationed at the island of Luzon, two came from Zebu, others from different districts of Pamp. The question of today is whether the Filipinos are savage or could be made a desirable addition to civilized races. All the priests agreed the natives were good, quiet people, but small in number and their leaders cause turmoil on the islands. The Filipinos, they say, can be easily governed and the islands have rich resources.
