Mr. Harry Cavendish has just left England for Pacagonia on an exploring expedition. Edawrd Dodson accompanied him as naturalist on behalf of the British Museum, Paragonia has already yielded some rich "finds" in fossils, and Mr. Cavendish will devote a good deal of time to excavations. Among other things which he means to obtain, if possible, is a mysterious quadruped which is said to exist in the interior of the kerritory of Santa Cruz It is believed that the expedition will have important results.

Wellington, Kansas, built a new jail last year, and the authorities determined to name it after the first prisoner who might be confined in it. This prisoner proved to be a woman, Mrs. Horton, and the institution was promptly named "Horfon Jail." Now it has been proven that the woman was innocent, and she proposes to sue Wellington authorities for damages.

FROZE IN HIS CHAIR.

Fire Went Out While a Grocer Sat and Slept.

Richmond, Feb. 15.-W W. Wade who was the proprietor of a grocery store at No. 14 North Eighteenth street, was found dead in his store at o'clock yesterday morning. He was sitting in a chair before the preless firepiece, his head lying over to onsiide, and his hands hanging down to the floor. He had frozen to death.

Deceased left home Monday more ing as usual, and was as well as usual. He was seen at his store as late Monlay afternoon as 4 o'clock.

It is supposed that he sat down be-ore the fire and dropped off to sleep. The fire burned down, went out presutiy, and the sleeper froze to death
