The Windsor Hotel Disaster— Ruins Still Too Hot for Workmen.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The ruins of the Windsor Hotel, which was destroyed by fire, are still too hot to permit work. It will be ten or fifteen hours before workmen can dig. The firemen say that there remains some forty-one missing to be found. Crowds hung about all night and this morning every avenue was choked with people waiting patient.

total of 102, as follows: Dead, 18; injured, 42; missing 42. The police made a search for those reported missing and found 22 at hotels and 4 at homes. This reduces the known list of missing to 12. The injured in the hospitals are doing well this morning. Probably only one of these will die. Two of the policemen reported lost in the ruins turned up safe. Two firemen are reported this morning in the ruins, but it is not confirmed, many persons, friends of servants in the hotel, were smuggled to the roof of the hotel to see the processions and their presence will add to the list and their presence at that time will add to the list of dead.

EXCHANGING BONDS.

Legislature Extended the Time for the Redemption of Old Bonds.

The act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, entitled "an act to compromise, commute and settle the State debt," ratified March 4th, 1870, authorizes the exchange of certain issues of the old bonds of this State. Under the provisions of the renewal and amendatory act, ratified March 8, 1890, the time prescribed for the exchange has been extended to January 1, 1901.

The several classes of bonds mentioned in the act are as follows: Bonds dated before the 20th of May, 1891, known as "old bonds." They are redeemable at 40 per cent. of the principal. The last date of this class is April 1st, 1891.

Bonds redeemable at 25 per cent. of the principal, described as follows: Issue since the close of the late war by authority of acts passed before the war, for the Western North Carolina Railroad, Wilmington, Charlotte, and Rutherford Railroad, bearing dates July 1st, 1862.

Western Railroad (from Fayetteville), dated October 1st, 1861.

Bonds to provide for funding the State debt, issued under act of March 10th, 1860, dated January 1st, 1860, and the bonds issued under act of August 20th, 1862, to provide for funding the matured interest on the public debt, dated October 1st, 1868, redeemable at 15 per cent. of the principal.

The new bonds to be issued are to bear one per cent. interest, and are exempt from taxation. Their coupons are receivable after maturity in payment of the interest, and it will be promptly paid as it accrues.

The act authorizes the exchange of bonds to the amount of $12,027,000, of which nearly $11,000,000 have been exchanged.

The following mentioned bonds are excluded from the act. The issues known as "special tax" bonds, which the holders can readily identify by the statement on the face of each bond; the issue to the Charleston Railroad Company under an ordinance of Convention of 1868, dated April 1, 1868, $1,000 each; the issue to the Wilmington and Tarboro Railroad Company, under the same act, dated October 1, 1869, $1,000 each; the bonds issued on account of the Penitentiary, under act of August 24, 1868, dated October 1, 1868, $1,000 each.

FOR CHIEF.

Editor of Times Visitor: As we have seen the race for Chief of Police spoken of in your columns, we wish to enter another gentleman, Mr. Festus B. Phillips. "They all run but one obtain the prize." I will say that I have known Mr. Phillips from childhood. The city could not make a better selection for the office. Encourage young Democracy. A VOTER.

FOR ALDERMAN.

Mr. Editor: For Alderman in the "Old Bloody Fifth Ward." We are now in the second division of the First, but while we have changed our numbers we have not changed our natures, we want the best, the truest men, who will represent the whole people. Men who belong to no one, men who will do their own thinking, who have convictions and the courage to maintain them. Now there may be, and are many such in the city but who are tax-payers and who take a lively interest in the real progress of this grand old city, desire to not only to suggest, but to urge every mechanic in the city to turn out and vote and work for the winning team, Messrs. J. D. Turner and Brown Pagan. One comes from the extreme eastern the other from the extreme western part of the ward. These gentlemen are the choice of the majority of the voters. Others had better withdraw and list only these two names come before the primary.

TAX-PAYING MECHANIC.

ALDERMEN, THIRD WARD.

Mr. W. E. Faison and Mr. Marshall Spence.

Mr. Editor: There is now, and will be until the Democratic primaries are held, a great deal being said about who shall represent us as aldermen from the various divisions of the city.

While there have been several good gentlemen mentioned to serve us from the Third Ward, First Division, it is a well known fact that only two will be selected; therefore we must settle on two good men.

Mr. Marshall Spence, now serving as alderman, and filling the unexpired term of Mr. Potter, is a gentleman well known to the citizens of our city. He is a young man and a sincere pure Democrat, and his ability to serve the people of this division is unquestioned.

Mr. W. E. Faison, an aldermanic mate with Mr. Spence, is a young Democrat, and a very popular man, having been for one term chief clerk to Labor Statesman Lacey, and recently received the same appointment under Mr. Lacey for the ensuing term. Mr. Faison's ability to serve as alderman is unquestioned by any one.

Messrs. Spence and Faison represents the working classes, both being skilled mechanics.

With Spence and Faison and the rest of our aldermen composed of good, progressive citizens, we need not fear but what this trust reposed in them will be nothing more than a broad and progressive administration.

The election of these two gentlemen will give entire satisfaction to all classes. Let us go to the primary and elect Spence and Faison.

ODD FELLOWS COLUMN.

The children at the Orphan Home have all been recently vaccinated.

The Grand Master will soon become a full pledged Rebekah.

Three of the children of Bro. J. A. Coye, deceased, of Durham, have been accepted and are going to the Orphan Home.

The encampment branch of the order in Raleigh seems to be in excellent condition at present it does not seem to trouble anybody.

The wide awake, up to date Odd Fellows usually carries a blank petition or two in his inside coat pocket, ready for use.

The 80th anniversary of the founding of our order will soon be here, and all lodges should begin making preparations to properly observe the day.

If the members of the order would obey its precepts, carry out its obligations and live as they are instructed to live, they would have but little desire and no time to join in with every frivolous concern that comes along.

How many Odd Fellows can answer the following questions? How much an order have we paid in since benefits? How much have we paid for funeral benefits? How much have we given away in charity? How many orphan asylums do we own? How many inmates? How many widows do we care for? What are we worth as an order? How many members have we? How many new members did we gain last year?

"At all events we are the richest and strongest order in the U. S. If the other side don't believe it, count noses. Put your wits together brethren. You are wiser than I am and there is no need of side degrees to make a lodge meeting interesting. Feed the brain. Support it all right, but cultivate the brain."

"I go into many towns and never see a sign of an I. O. O. F. lodge. Use your bulletin boards and the post office. Take all the papers published in the interest of the Order you can, and advertise. Some lodges are like a man winking at a pretty girl in the dark. He knows what he is doing but she don't. Let your light shine and don't use a tallow candle. Remember that in the early age of the world Noah had to use an ark; that is he made the ark light on Mount Ararat and if he had not, where would we have been?"

"Advertise daily, hourly, and don't fail to keep the order before the public. If you love the order, treat it as you would your best girl, and think about how to improve the next meeting. Go around and stir up the lazy members as though they had votes and you were running for office. Don't neglect your duty because the other fellow does, but advertise. Tell what good you have done, and tell it boldly and openly. When you think you have advertised enough do it some more, and advertise."

"THE HIGHWAYMAN."

The Broadway Theatre, the home of Comic opera in New York, is sending its own stock company including Miss Camille D'Arville on tour in the presentation of the most successful comic opera "The Highwayman" by DeKoven and Smith, authors of "Robin Hood," etc., and will be heard here next Tuesday night at the Academy of Music. The company was organized at the beginning of last season and its personal includes some of the brightest lights of the lyric stage. Everywhere the company has been spoken of as the strongest comic opera organization heard for years. "The Highwayman" was its initial production. So great was the success of both opera and company that over three hundred performances have been given one of the biggest runs ever achieved by light opera in this country. An event of unusual interest may be looked for in the engagement of this strolling organization. Reserve seats new on sale at King's, and box office of theatre.

GODFREY'S BAND.

Lieut. Dan Godfrey's British Guards' Band gave a concert in the Academy last night which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The audience was not as large as expected but this was not the fault of Manager Rivers or the Band.

Lieut. Godfrey was unwell and did not appear so Mr. F. L. Kettlewell led. The best judges of music in Raleigh pronounced it fine and declared that the rendition was fully equal to Sousa's Band which was here this season.

The best selection last evening was: "The Star Spangled Banner," and "God Save the Queen."

COMMUNICATION.

Raleigh, March 18.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space to make this statement, as I have been agitating the plan of promoting the police force by taking the chief from the force. And as a good many citizens believe to be a good scheme, but after consulting the majority of the force I find that the force do not want the present chief removed and do ask that he be kept for another term at least as they all say that he has given the force the best efforts and they would not like to accept his position if forced upon them.

One who started the ball.

A. JACKSON.

"The scheme does not affect the present chief of police, as he is a member of the force. Hence the plan to take the chief from the force will not prevent the re-election of the present chief.—Ed.)

A HOT TIME.

At Finnigan's Ball Monday Night With Murray and Mack.

There will certainly be a "Hot in time in the old town" next Monday night at the Academy of Music, when the celebrated Irish comedians, members of the Mack—a couple of funny fellows—present the latest edition of the laughing skit "Finnigan's Ball." That they have a novel performance, filled to completion with bright material, a large supporting company, pretty girls, gay costumes, picturesque scenery, and everything in the of wit, song, music and beauty, should prove sufficiently potent to attract big audiences during their engagement and present one of the most enjoyable performances that the heart of the most blasé theatre-goer could desire, and the company being made up of sterling worth, and including such farceurs as Mr. Fred Wilson, Len. Delmore, John Tiers, Charley McCarthy, Fred De Noe, H. H. Frank, Misses Fannie and Mae Trumbull, Kittie Beck, Peine Gale, Mona Carrington, Blanche Crago, Kittie Hawthorne, Gracie Wolfe, Kittie Cummings, Mand Leekley, Constance Windom, Effie Fay, Queenie Teenie and Geraldine McClain—truly an assemblage of wonderfully clever people.

"Finnigan's Ball" with Murray and Mack will undoubtedly prove one of the most desirable of the season's farce comedies. Reserve seats now on sale.

THEY WANT TO HONOR DEWEY.

Farrisburg, Pa., March 16.—A resolution was offered in the House today by Mr. McWhinney, of Allegheny, and adopted, requesting Governor Stone to name Monday, May 1, 1899, as "Dewey Day," and designate the same as a legal holiday. The preamble to the resolution recites that the victory of Admiral Dewey and his brave followers in Manila harbor, on May 1st last, was one of the greatest achievements in naval warfare the world has ever known, and that it is proper that the State of Pennsylvania should in a fitting manner, commemorate the battle of Manila on the first anniversary of that day by showing the appreciation of her people for the hero of that engagement and his brave men.
