REFUSES ADVICE

Aguinaldo Has His Advisors Executed DISAGREED WITH HIM

Gen. Lagarda Decapitated for Saying the Filipinos Ought to Give Up—Other Filipinos Killed for Giving Advice.

MANILA, March 20.—Aguinaldo is taking extreme measures to suppress signs calculated to cause a cessation of hostilities. Twelve adherents to the plan for independence, residents of Manila, were condemned to death because they wrote advising surrender, and all loyal Filipinos have been called upon to perform national service in despatching them. Friday last General Lagarda visited Malolos for the purpose of advising Aguinaldo to quit. He argued with the insurgent leader and attempted to convince him of the folly of his persistence in the face of overwhelming odds. Aguinaldo is furious at the advice, ordered Lagarda executed immediately. The unfortunate general was promptly decapitated.

ELECTROCUTED

SING SING, March 20.—Mrs. Place was electrocuted this morning. The procession started for the death chamber at ten forty five and the electrocution was immediate, two shocks were employed. Although the prisoner was somewhat hysterical through the night, but recovered her nerve this morning. She was still brave at the critical moment, and was accompanied to her chair by her old pastor, Dr. Cole, of Yonkers, who stood at her side offering spiritual consolation to the last. Two newspaper men were present according to the edict of the Governor. Dr. Jennie Griffin, of Troy, the well known physician, was also present, at the request of the Governor. Other witnesses were principally physicians and professional men.

SEVENTY TWO YEARS.

Steady Progress of W. H. King & Co. in Drink Business. Seventy two years in the rug business is the record of the company and W. H. King and Company. Yet they have kept in the front and are ever progressive. This firm has an announcement in this issue. They are making a specialty of flower seeds now. At their famous soda water fountain a new drink has been introduced called "King's Celery Coco" and it promises to prove very popular.

THROAT CUT

Negro Whacks His Antagonist

A desperate fight ensued between two negroes on the Bowery Saturday night in which Frank Richardson, a negro hack driver, cut Ed Rose, another negro, dangerously in the neck and throat. Richardson then jumped in his hack, drove to the stable, and ran off leaving his team standing in the street. He has not yet been captured. Rose is now at Rex Hospital and is improving. It is thought that he will recover.

PRIMARILY SPEAKING.

On April the fourth, so we learn from the papers, The Democrats meet, and may cut some queer capers; In selecting the men to fill all the places, There's going to be sadness to some in the races.

There is room for some more under the new city charter, Which accounts for so many among the fresh starters; But when they come round under the finishing string, There are some who will find they are not in the swim.

Now watch the young racer who boasts he can carry All the votes in his ward, every Tom, Dick and Harry, When the votes are all counted; now what a surprise, He comes up defeated with tears in his eyes.

The winners may laugh and enjoy, without pity, The good things they feast on at the expense of the city; But they should not forget that they'll soon be bereft, Because two years from now they may sadly get left.

POSTMASTER

SPIER WHITAKER

Report That He May Get the Job at Scotland Neck

(Special to The Charlotte Observer.)
Scotland Neck, March 18.—It seems that nothing is more likely than the appointments for the Scotland Neck post-office. First Collin Anthony was appointed and his appointment was recalled, and Tom Shields was appointed. Since Major Spier Whitaker spent several days on a visit here last week there is a general rumor that he may be the postmaster for this place. It seems that Tom Shields' appointment by the President has never been confirmed by the Senate and his commission is now to be recalled and Major Whitaker appointed in his stead. There is still another surmise that perhaps the major will be given Bernard's place as district attorney. Some think that perhaps the authorities at Washington were not pleased with Bernard's failure to make prosecutions at Wilmington over the election troubles, and that he may be displaced by Whitaker. Mr. Drew Browell, a well-to-do and highly-respected farmer, died at his home four miles from town yesterday. He was stricken with paralysis about three weeks ago. He was one of the best and truest Democrats in the State.

FINNIGAN'S BALL TONIGHT.

The Wilmington Star says of Murray and Mack's performance in that city Friday night: A large audience witnessed the presentation of "Finnigan's Ball," by the famous Irish comedians, Murray and Mack, at the Opera House last night, and every one pronounced the "Ball" a thorough success as a mirth-provoking farce comedy. Throughout the performance—during the "quiet morning on Finnigan's boulevard," "at W. A. L. and K. depot," and "at Finnigan's Ball," the three acts of the comedy there was a constant succession of funny situations, brightened by an easy flow of Irish wit. There were also a number of interesting specialties which were well received. Murray and Mack's "Finnigan's Ball" made a pleasing impression in Wilmington and will be well patronized should they play a return engagement.

COMIC OPERA—THE HIGHWAYMAN.

The Broadway Theatre Opera Company, headed by Miss Camille D'Arville in "The Highwayman," DeKoven and Smith's latest and most successful comic opera to be heard at the Academy of Music Tuesday night, takes the part of an adventuresome young lady of quality, who for the sake of the hero, dons the garb of a freebooter and holds up a real stage coach in order to recover him his pardon which has been withheld by an enemy. The part is especially fitted to Miss D'Arville's natural attainments of voice and figure and she assumes the braggadocio of a daring young blade, it is said, in a manner thoroughly convincing. From all accounts Miss D'Arville excels in parts where she has to reverse her sex and makes a better figure than one usually sees when a prima donna assumes such a role. It is said that in the scene where she stops the stage coach, one almost forgets that it is only a woman with a brace or fempy pistols, so strongly dramatic and earnest does she play the part. Reserve seats now on sale at King's and box office of theatre for gallery.

T. O. FAUCETTE FOR CHIEF.

Mr. Editor: As there seems to be a general sentiment that our next Chief of Police shall come from the ranks of the representative mechanics, and a worthy, competent, and efficient man in every way, I desire to mention the name of Mr. T. O. Faucette. This will recognize the inclination on the part of some to demand a recognition of the force—or rather, that the chief shall come up from the ranks. Mr. Faucette has been a policeman, and given entire satisfaction and he will fill the higher position with much ability and grace, and satisfy organized labor, and the mechanics of the city generally. I have nothing against any of the gentlemen mentioned for this position, but am confident Mr. Faucette will give universal satisfaction.

XOPHINE.

The three elements of farce, specialty comedy and spectacular show are combined in the latest and most successful comedy skit, "Finnigan's Ball" which is being presented by the famous, original Irish comedians Murray and Mack and an extraordinary strong cast of farce comedy players. This attraction will be seen tonight at the Academy. Go and have a good laugh.

NOTICE OF ELECTION AND REGISTRATION.

"Be it ordained by the Board of Aldermen of the city of Raleigh that the election for municipal officers of said city shall be held on the first Monday in May, 1899, under the provisions of the act of the General Assembly of 1899 entitled "All act to provide manner of election and the registration of voters in cities and towns and for election upon local questions in counties and townships," ratified March 6th, 1899, and that for the purposes of said election a new registration shall be had as provided in said act." The above ordinance was adopted by the Board of Aldermen at a meeting held March 18th, 1899.
HAM F. SMITH, Clerk.

"Finnigan's Ball" with all its novel features, bright music, superb costumes, pretty girls and an excellent cast and last but no means least, the famous, original Irish comedians, Murray and Mack, as the principal fun-makers are the inducements offered theatre goers at the Academy this evening.

CAUSE OF DEATH.

Doctor Says His Patient Died Without His Aid. Sometime since a death certificate here was filled out in an apparently most candid manner. After the query in the blank "Cause of Death" this doctor wrote "Died without the aid of a physician."

MEET THIS EVENING.

Session of the Monday Evening Club at Dr. Daniel's Tonight. The Monday Evening Literary Club will hold the next regular meeting at the residence of Dr. Eugene Daniel, on this evening the 20th. The subject will be Robert Louis Stevenson's life; his island home and its surroundings; His style, methods and aims; his successes and failures in fiction; his poems. These papers will be prepared by talented members of the Club and a most enjoyable evening is anticipated.

PEST HOUSE

Place Selected in Case of Smallpox in Raleigh

Sanitary Officer T. P. Sale has finally decided on the location of a place to be used as a pest house to which small pox patients will be removed, if any more cases appear here. The place will be the old penitentiary house just beyond Walnut creek on the Holleman road. The house is about two miles from the city. The place will be enclosed by a high fence. The house has six rooms. The negro who had small-pox on North street is entirely well now and will be discharged the latter part of this week. He would have been discharged before but the other eight negroes in the house had variged. They are well now. One negro tried to play a trick and it has been turned on him. One night while the guard was standing in front of the house a negro came up and declared that he had small pox. He rolled over on the ground and said that he was dying and insisted on being let in the small pox house. The guard complied with his request. Next morning when officer Sale visited the place he found the negro in the room, perfectly well. He wanted to come out then but his prayer was scorned and he was locked in with the other patients, one of whom was his wife. He has been confined there ever since. His trick cost him a case of variola and six weeks confinement. The case of small pox on North street has cost the city several hundred dollars.

FOUND DEAD

John Green Dickerson Expires Very Suddenly

Mr. John Green Dickerson died early Sunday morning at his home in Brooklyn, the western suburb. Mr. Dickerson had suffered a stroke of paralysis and his health had been poor for some years. He died as usual Saturday night and seemed to rest well. When his wife woken in the morning she found her husband dead at her side. Mr. Dickerson was seventy one years old. He was a native of Franklin county. He leaves a wife and one son, Mr. Edward Dickerson. The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Dr. Marshall from St. Saviour's Chapel at three o'clock this afternoon.

HEAVY FROST.

Continued Fair Weather With a Heavy Frost Tomorrow. The forecast of the weather bureau for Raleigh and vicinity says: Fair tonight and Tuesday; heavy frost Tuesday morning.

There are two storms visible on the map this morning; one is passing off the north Atlantic coast, the other is developing over the Rocky Mountain region. The first caused some rain in eastern states yesterday, but the weather is clear and cold throughout the entire central valley and east this morning. Frost was reported at Wilmington, Augusta, and Montgomery. The storm in the west is causing a little precipitation over Nevada and the Dakotas. The temperature is still below zero from Marquette to Bismarck.

INTERNATIONAL CURTESY.

The Raleigh Hoists the Spanish Flag Near Algeiras

GIBRALTAR, March 20.—As the Spanish squadron, under Command of Admiral Camara, was leaving Gibraltar bay yesterday it met, near Algeiras, the United States cruiser Raleigh, returning home from Manila. The Raleigh hoisted the Spanish flag and the Spanish admiral replied, hoisting the stars and stripes. This was the first act of international courtesy between the United States and Spain since the outbreak of the war.

WAKE COUNTY MAGISTRATES.

The list of magistrates elected by the Legislature for Wake county were certified to the Secretary of State and sent to Clerk of the Court Russ today. There terms run for six years beginning April 1st, 1899. They must qualify by June 1. Ninety four magistrates were elected for this county.

What Raleigh needs and should have is a board of aldermen composed of broad-minded men with liberal ideas, of progressive business qualifications. We have had enough of sentimentalism and ridiculous catering to individualism. Let Raleigh go pushing ahead in municipal prosperity and let factions take care of themselves. We have a great record of the past and a most opportune present, may our future be the brightest and most interesting portion of our history.
