N. C. CAR CO. MAKES DEED OF TRUST

Confessed Judgment for $18,580.25 to National Bank of Raleigh.

PROPERTY CONVEYED

Messrs. Ed. Chambers Smith and Charles H. Belvin, Trustees, to Sell the Property Either by Public or Private Sale.

The North Carolina Car Company today confessed judgment before Clerk of the Court for $18,580.25 owed to the National Bank of Raleigh.

As a sequel to the above the Car Company, through the President and Secretary of the company executed a deed of trust, recorded in the register of deeds of this county, to Ed. Chambers Smith and Charles H. Belvin, trustees, upon all and every personal property of the company to secure the indebtedness of the company.

This conveyance includes all the lumber and product of the company whether manufactured or in process of manufacture, horse and wagon, all claims due the company and all fixtures acquired since April 1st, 1897.

The trustees, Messrs. Smith and Belvin, shall proceed to sell and dispose of the property in such manner as they deem expedient, either by private or public sale and collect all claims due the company. The proceeds shall be devoted as follows:

First. The costs and expenses of executing this trust including counsel fees and commissions of five per cent. to said trustees.

Second. All taxes which the company owes.

Third. All amounts due by the company to any and all laborers who have been in the employment of the company amounting in the aggregate to about one thousand dollars.

Fourth. The indebtedness of the company to the National Bank of Raleigh upon four notes, each for the sum of $155.55, dated March 18th, 1898, also indebtedness to A. W. Goodell of Philadelphia in the sum of $17,000 being money advanced by Goodell to pay laborers; also to Wm. E. Ashley in the sum of $83.33, being money advanced by him to pay laborers.

Fifth. The indebtedness of the company to the National Bank of Raleigh upon a note for $523.05 for borrowed money and the indebtedness of the company to the Raleigh Savings Bank.

Sixth. And if any residue remain, to the payment of any other indebtedness due and owing by the company, shall and share alike.

Mr. Julius Lewis is president of the company and Mr. John Ward, Secretary and Treasurer.

THE CONTEST.

Mr. Editor: There seems to be a regular hatchery for demanding that a candidate be brought out for Alderman from the Second Division of the First Ward, it does not seem too late to go outside to get interested admirers to help hatch-up a man whose hands are not tied. You only have to throw a stone to hit one. They are so thick "by their work" they shall know them, or they will not be rewarded. Lay on McDuff and who who first cry, hold enough," select men who are not pledged and who will have the time to attend to their duties imposed on them.

SUBSCRIBER.

FINNAGAN'S BALL.

A rather slim audience greeted Murray and Mack in Finnigan's Ball at the Academy last night. The play was not very edifying, and some of the remarks were rather "rough," but the gallery gods yelled, of course. There was very little plot to the show and the specialties were not very new. The dancing was about the best feature of the performance.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

In the District Court, Eastern District of North Carolina, in the matter of J. A. Davis, Bankrupt.

The petition of T. A. Davis for a full discharge in bankruptcy, having been filed in said court. It is ordered by the court that a hearing be had on the 12th day of April, A. D. 1899, at 4 o'clock p. m., before the referee, Thomas P. Devereux, of said court, at Raleigh, N. C., and that all creditors and other persons interested may appear at said time and place and show cause, if any, they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

J. F. FORTUNE, Clerk.

This 21st day of March, 1899.

FAIR AND WARMER.

The forecast of the weather bureau for Raleigh and vicinity is fair, warmer to night and Wednesday; brisk south winds. The storm in the central Mississippi valley has developed in force this morning with the pressure below 29.70 inches from St. Paul to Oklahoma. The high area in the east is central on the middle Atlantic coast. The storm is not accompanied by much precipitation except along its northern border from Detroit to Huron, where snow is falling with easterly winds, but generally in small amounts. The area of cloudy weather is slowly advancing eastward. In the south and east fair weather continues to prevail.

ARSON

Two White Men Accused of Burning Stables

Two white men, Daniel Bridge and Jerry Bailey, were brought to Raleigh last night by a deputy Sheriff Page and placed in jail to await the next term of the Wake Superior Court to answer the charge of arson. They were committed to jail by Justices of the Peace Mangum, Lyman and Pearce.

Both prisoners lived in New Light township where the crime was committed. They are charged with setting fire to the barn and stables of Mr. Sherron, who keeps a store in New Light. His barn and stable were burned early Sunday morning and among other property lost was a pair of horses. The two men, upon whose suspicion developed and the evidence grew strong, were former customers of Mr. Sherron. Sometime since he refused to run them again this year and this is supposed to have led to the commission of the crime.

YOUNG AND PROGRESSIVE.

Messrs. Boylan, Pierce and Company are forging right to the front in the dry goods business. Their store is crowded and the customers find no difficulty in being satisfied.

Read the second page of this paper carefully today you will find it interesting and beautiful.

"THE HIGHWAYMAN" TONIGHT.

There was a time when the spectacle of a man sitting on a nail constituted the principal fun of a comic opera. Realizing that a long suffering public sighed for something more substantial, Manager Andrew A. McCormick of the Broadway Theatre, New York, gave the order to DeKoven and Smith the well known comic opera authors to try their hand at a plot from a straight consistent plot free from acrobatic turns and kindred inanities. "The Highwayman" was their offering, and it is said to fill all expectations as a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment, both intelligent and refined. To be at the Academy tonight.

HORRIBLY MUTILATED.

Headless Body of Miss Hoffman Found in Woods near Ruins.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The headless body of a woman which was found early this morning in the Windsor hotel ruins has been identified as Miss Dora Hoffman, of Baltimore. The body was found by workman Voling in the charred debris and a short distance away the disfigured head. The face was burned beyond recognition. The identification was made by the teeth, two being gold filled. She was sixty two years old and occupied the room on the fifth floor. Another body was found after Miss Hoffman's near the elevator shaft. It consisted of leg bone and ribs. More bodies are believed to be near.

The body found at the elevator is supposed to be T. A. Barrett, of London. A valise near him contained a travelling clock, which was still running.

A third body has been found today. It is a woman and has thus far not been identified.

For Alderman.

I now place before the voters of the Third Ward, men that deserve your consideration, men that are willing to serve for your interest and the good of the city and its people, and we should have men who will stand for such rights. Mr. Joseph Seawell, and Mr. W. E. Faison would fill the place creditably and acceptably to all, and for the good of our city. Consider this and use your influence in their behalf.

THIRD WARD VOTER.

LORD HERSCHELL'S FUNERAL.

LONDON, March 21.—There was a large attendance at Lord Herschell's funeral. United States Ambassador Choate was one of the pallbearers. The leaders in the political, legal and professional world were present.

IKE DONKEY WANTS A POLITICAL JOB.

There's me my political friends overflowing with the aspirations of young Democracy. I want a job, stand back you old Democratic lingers for the young specimen of Democracy is among you.

For a quarter of a century I have gazed on the old market-house with wishful eyes and ambitious aspirations. Now I'm a candidate for a job. A political job, anything from the city lot grind stone turner down to honorary mayor. I can scrape ice from the roof of public buildings, or entertain visiting delegations from Shanhi county, Klondyke. I can handle 'em lighting fire horses or the city grave yard nearse. Anything for a political job. They are sweet juicy and mellow. That why I want one. Oh how I would look slumbering back in any elder down bed, with the majority crown over my cranium or perambulating down the thoroughfares of our capital city with the badge of chief of police conspicuously displayed on my breast. Oh, how proud would I feel to drive 'em city garbage team and collect tomato cans from the doors of our wealthy citizens. Since I decided to be a candidate I have also decided to be one of the most sociable, friendly fellows you ever met. My once tender hands, are now blistered and rheumatic pains run up and down my arm from one effects of hand shaking while blisters upon my tongue tell of my conversation love and sympathy for my fellow man, politics demands it, but its got to be done, and I have got to have a job, if its pestle driver for sanitary officer. Now my friends spur on your ambitions for young Democracy. Let every man, woman and child go to the polls next may and whatever you elect me to, I pledge you one and all, I will draw my salary.

Yours for political job.

IKE DONKEY.

SLOT MACHINES

Treasurer Worth Sends Out a Circular to Sheriffs.

State Treasurer Worth sent out the following today:

"To Sheriffs and Tax Collectors:

"As we have received many inquiries relative to the changes in the Revenue Act, I send out this circular in advance of the Revenue and Machinery Acts for distribution. In answer to many queries received at my office, the section relative to slot machines is as follows: "On each slot machine where the return is uncertain one hundred dollars. The tax in this section shall be paid to the Sheriff or Tax collector, but shall not be construed as giving license or relieving any such person or establishment from the penalties incurred by violation of the law."

"The new law requires that horse dealers shall pay $25.00 license tax to the State and no tax to the county, and persons who sell less than twenty head of horses or mules in any one year shall not be liable to said tax. The collection of the tax on piano and organ dealers and the tax on druggists, liquor license shall be paid to the sheriff or tax collector, instead of to the State Treasurer as heretofore. The Revenue and Machinery Act will be ready for distribution in about ten days and will be sent to all sheriffs and tax collectors."

A wide departure has been made by Harry B. Smith in writing the book of "The Highwayman" to be heard at the Academy tonight. Comic opera nowadays has been characterized by horse play, vulgar display and coarse wit. In this new opera, the story has been written on legitimate lines, and it is said that there is no allusion to anything that would not be acceptable to the most fastidious.

The spectacle of a stage coach and four seems a bit melodramatic for a comic opera such as "The Highwayman" but its promoters say that it fits naturally in the story of the opera at a time when the robbery of a stage coach was an everyday affair. It is lively incident for comic opera to be sure, but it can be made quite acceptable, with music suggesting gay talky parties, the blare of trumpets, and clatter of horses hoofs. Disensions Among the Rebels in Philippines

MANILA, March 21.—Despite the condition the Filipinos have shown the fact that their commanding general, Antonio Luna, has been deposed. It became known here today and follows closely the beheading of Gen. Legarda for arguing that it was impossible to resist the advance of the Americans. Luna was dismissed as a result of a quarrel with the Filipino Secretary of War and the issuance of a manifesto requiring all foreigners to aid the native cause under penalty of death. Gen. Panteolon Garcia was appointed his successor. Luna retired to Pampanga where he is editing a newspaper.
