

THE TIMES-VISITOR.

NUMBER 8,834

RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 28, 1899.

25 CENTS A MONTH

GREAT BATTLE FOR TOMORROW.

In a Severe Engagement Last Evening Our Loss Was 4 Officers and 26 Men

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Washington, March 28.—General Otis cables at 2:40 this morning that General McArthur had severe fighting yesterday afternoon beyond Marialo. A brilliant charge by the South Dakotas, led by Drost, against some of the troops of Aguinaldo, brought from Malolos, repulsed the enemy with slaughter. Four officers and twenty enlisted men were wounded. The loss of yesterday was confined to this regiment. Partial destructions are now being repaired, and this is impeding McArthur's progress. A supply on the railroad trains has now reached Marialo. McArthur is pushing on. Small gunboats did great execution yesterday on the Ibulacan river, relieving the pressure on McArthur's front materially. Much of the country north is in flames in consequence of the proclamation of the General Chief of Luzon.

CORBIN TALKS.

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Washington, March 28.—Corbin said last night that he expected to hear of the capture of Malolos today. The same spirit of expectation reigns throughout the department today. All hands are anxious to hear of the capture of Aguinaldo.

THEY WILL VISIT RALEIGH.

Five discharged soldiers of the Second Ohio volunteers are making the journey from Macon, Ga., to Springfield, O., through the country, following the trail of Sherman's army, on its memorable march to the sea thirty-five years ago. They were in Fayetteville Friday. They will visit the famous battlefields of Smith's Farm, Bentonville, Raleigh, Durham and Greensboro. They are traveling with a four-man team. They will be in Raleigh next week.

HE IS NOT EXPECTED TO PARTICIPATE.

Mr. Editor: It will be a royal welcome to real soldiers that awaits Raleigh's Governor's Guards, when they return to the City of Oaks from Cuba, notwithstanding the card of the bulky captain, ex-marius, citizen-soldier, whose unpopularity with his company is as great as his pomposity is sickening to our people.

The citizens of Raleigh needs not the assistance of Captain Atkin to greet her soldier boys on their return, nor would these heroes feel flattered by his presence. There are mothers and wives and sisters and sweethearts, yea, fathers, brothers, friends, associates and admirers of the members of Company K, First North Carolina Volunteers enough to meet, greet and receive with warmest welcome these returning heroes. This fair city needs no such blossoms of this pompous captain to wreath in the garlands of honor, respect, love and affection which its citizens will hang around the necks of the soldier boys it sent to the front.

Raleigh is proud of Company K and Captain Atkin may stand aside and witness her citizens loving welcome to its return home. No one will know the captain is about, or that he ever writ a card.

H. H. ROBERTS.

THE CITY'S WATER AND LIGHTS

Editor Times-Visitor: It is being charged by some aspirants for office that the present city administration is responsible for the present grievous water and light troubles. They are also claiming that if they are elected, the city will have better water and lights at once. This is all nice campaign talk. But what about the facts. Can any citizen of Raleigh—who knows the facts truthfully say that the present administration has not done all in its power to improve the supply of both water and lights, as far as they could possibly do under existing contracts. The present existing contracts for light are much better than the one which only provided gas until 12 o'clock at night, moonlight nights excepted, and the city was to light and extinguish the same. The old contract was much higher in price than the present one, which requires lights to burn all night and lighted and extinguished by the company's messes. As to water, this has been a very difficult matter to deal with, punder the contract or franchise. Owing to the complications caused by the acid contamination the matter has become still more complex, and it took a good deal of time to work the proper changes in this matter. The present administration not only has done, but is still doing all that can be done legally to remedy these evils. There are some now who are candidates for office, who are passing as champions of light and water reformers, who were parties to the old contracts by which by being members of the board of aldermen at the time. Progress and improvement is the slogan of the hour, but let us have it fairly, not by trying to show the present administration as inferior to any past set of men, when all know that under the present management of city affairs, there has been more progress and improvement during the last two years—comparatively speaking—than there has been during any twenty years of the city's history. The writer is no candidate for office, and besides is not pledged to any man who is. He believes in primary's pure and simple, and not in cut or dried candidates, nominated by rings, over the will of the people. Let us have fair play and nominate men who will save the city without fear or favor.

FAIR PLAY.

Otis Tells of Prince Lowenstein's Death—The Work Being Done by the Gun Boats

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Washington, March 28.—General Otis cables that prince Lowenstein, with Wheaton's command, took refreshments to the officers of the Second Oregon on the firing line. He was cautioned of the danger, but advanced with the line when they charged the intruders. He was killed by the enemy, and his friend was wounded. His remains were delivered to friends in the city.

Adjutant General Corbin describes Otis' campaign as admirable in every way, and the situation is perfectly satisfactory. Otis' statement that our gunboats did great execution on the Rula can river, throws some light on the purchase of Spanish boats. He seems bent on having a fleet of different navies and the work done by the boats demonstrates the wisdom of the purchase.

LOWENSTEIN.

Prince Ludwig Karl Du Lowenstein-Wertheim, whose death was officially reported by Otis today, was caught between the lines in Sunday's battle with the Filipinos and killed by a shot in the side, attracted much attention a few weeks ago because of an advertisement in a London newspaper for information of his whereabouts. It was said that he had disappeared some months before.

Not long after the advertisement appeared it came out that he was in the Philippine Islands serving on the staff of General Miller at Iloilo.

The Prince, youngest brother of the head of the princely house of Lowenstein-Wertheim, was married in May, 1897, to Lady Anne Savile, the youngest daughter of the Earl of Mexborough. The princess is an heiress, and the wedding was a very fashionable and magnificent affair. The prince and princess led semi-detached lives after their marriage, and were often separated for months.

Four weeks ago information was received in London that the prince had enlisted in the United States Army and was serving as an aide to Gen. Miller.

It was also said that before Manila surrendered he was permitted to pass in and out of the Spanish and insurgent lines and that he was really an agent of the German government. These were among many mysterious rumors printed in the English newspapers.

The prince was tall, handsome and of athletic build; his wife a pretty blonde. He was a Protestant; she is a Catholic.

BANQUET.

The Capital City and Raleigh Council of J. O. U. A. M., at a joint meeting will give a banquet in Phalanx hall, over Julius Lewis store, Friday night, March 31st. Oriental Degree is to be conferred upon several. Every Junior in the city invited to attend.

FAIR ONCE MORE.

The forecast of the Weather Bureau for Raleigh and vicinity says fair to night and Wednesday.

The storm central yesterday over the west Gulf coast has moved rapidly northwestward, and at 8 a. m. was reported over the lake region. The high area and cold wave has drifted south and is central this morning over western Texas. Rain has fallen during the past 24 hours over the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, the Atlantic States, and the lower lake region, and light snow is reported from some of the lake stations. Abnormally cold weather prevails over the west and southwest, and zero temperatures are reported from the far northwest.

FOR SANITARY OFFICER.

I would beg leave to suggest Mr. J. E. Uzzle as a suitable man to fill the position of Sanitary Officer for this city. He is eminently well qualified for the position, industrious, honest, sober, and withal a lifelong Democrat, both himself and extensive family connections. His election to this office would be but a just recognition of a worthy Democrat who would faithfully and intelligently discharge the duties of the position and would greatly please the Democrats of the Old Fifth Ward.

DEMOCRATIC VOTER.

BAIN FOR ALDERMAN.

Mr. Editor: There seems to be a great interest manifested in the coming city election as to who will be alderman from the different wards. I have seen the names of many, but none that in my mind would give more satisfaction to the voters of the solid First ward than Mr. E. B. Bain. He is a young man of sterling worth, a life-long Democrat and will make us a fine representative.

WAR HORSE.

Messrs. Berwanger Brothers have laid in their complete assortment of boys' and children's Easter suits.

REDUCED RATES VIA SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

On account of the Easter celebration at the Moravian church, and baseball game at Winston-Salem, N. C., April 3, 1899, the Southern Railway will sell tickets from Raleigh, N. C., to Winston-Salem, N. McArthur's Men Line up at Malolos for the Battle Tomorrow Morning—Steady Advance

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Manila, March 28.—General McArthur's division, after a short rest at Marialo, advanced toward Malolos at 9:30 this morning. Their immediate objective point is the town of Bocave, five miles north of Marialo. The are vigorous and in prime condition. It is expected that General McArthur will be in front of Malolos this afternoon. The battle will probably be begun early tomorrow morning. All the trenches have been swept clear of the troops, which will retreat to Malolos' intruders. General McArthur is pressing forward with resistless vim, close upon the heels of the fleeing army.

General Hale's brigade is skirting the right flank of the advance, and General Otis covers the left flank, while General Wheaton is hurrying up the centre. The line is so compact that it secures the country and forces the rebels to keep to the railroad in their retreat. Aguinaldo is at the head of his soldiers, but great efforts will be made to capture him.

PREPARING FOR BATTLE.

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Manila, March 28.—General McArthur's division advanced nearly two miles this morning unopposed, but on approaching Bulacan, they halted, preparatory to attacking it.

BRIEFS.

Dr. J. J. Young, of Clayton, is in the city.

Mr. T. Tuttle, of Durham, is in the city.

The sanitary tax must be paid this month.

Adjutant General B. S. Royster, of Oxford, is in the city.

Miss Jennie Joyner, who has been visiting Miss Mary Green, left today for Franklinton, her home.

Mr. Carter, who managed the amateur entertainment last year which was such a success, will, it is reported, come to Raleigh soon and arrange for a similar entertainment for the benefit of the hospital.

SUPERIOR COURT.

The second day of the Superior court began at 10 o'clock this morning. His Honor, George H. Brown, Jr., presiding.

The following cases were disposed of: State vs. Dempsey Leach, larceny and receiving. Defendant a colored boy 12 years old, pleads guilty. Trial by jury; verdict guilty; judgment.

State vs. F. H. Holloway, forcible trespass. Defendant pleads not guilty. Trial by jury; verdict guilty. Judgment to pay a fine of $10 and the costs.

State vs. L. D. Castleberry, nuisance, continued. Defendant term, continued to September term. This is the case to have the alleged nuisance to the water company from Yates' pond abrogated.

State vs. Tom Price, larceny and receiving. A State witness, Horace Bunn, called and failed. Judgment, fine $80 and cause continued.

State vs. J. S. Hagwood, carrying concealed weapon. Defendant called and failed. Judgment nisi sci fa and capias. Cause continued.

State vs. James Hinson and Jack Yarborough, convicted yesterday of engaging in an affray and sentenced respectively to 60 and 30 days in jail and to pay costs. Order to Sheriff to hire out for costs. These negroes had a fight with sledge hammers and pistols last evening.

State vs. Hattie Page, selling liquor on Sonny. Defendant called and failed. Judgment, nisi sci fa and capias. Cause continued.

State vs. Hattie Page, same offence and same order as above.

State vs. Mary E. Jackson, practicing medicine without a license, called and failed. Judgment, nisi sci fa and capias. Cause continued.

State vs. Joseph Alston, abandonment, tried last fall, guilty and judgment suspended upon payment of cost at this term. Called and failed. Capias to issue.

State vs. Asa Massey, carrying concealed weapons. Alias capias to issue.

State vs. B. F. Sanders. Reinstated and capias to issue.

State vs. Dempsey Leach, larceny and receiving. Pleads guilty. Judgment, eight months on roads.

State vs. Mary E. Jackson, hoodoo doctor, pleads guilty. Defendant a woman with child one month old and a pauper. She was reprimanded and cautioned against further violations of law and allowed to go. County to pay costs.

State vs. Luther Kersey, larceny and receiving. Defendant pleads not guilty. Trial by jury; verdict not guilty; judgment of discharge.

State vs. Wiley Williams, Dick Bryant, Henderson and John Williams, larceny and house-breaking. Sid Rogers, a State witness, called and failed. Judgment, nisi; fine of $80 and instant capias issued. Pending the taking of testimony court took a recess till 2:30 o'clock p. m.

The case against Ben Robinson was continued yesterday because the court has not yet been informed of the Supreme court's decision in his appeal.

Ben's conduct has become notorious in Raleigh. Before the courts are through with the case in which he and Red Eliza were involved he had to be put under a $500 bond to keep the peace in another matter.

LIQUOR THIEVES

Only Three of the Negroes Sent on to Court

Mayor Powell had arraigned before him the negroes charged with stealing liquor from the former saloon at the Carrollton. Nine negroes had been arrested, but sufficient evidence was found against only three of them and the others were released. In fact some of them were found on Sunday. Clear cases were made against William Cotton, John Horton and Oliver Green, and they were sent to jail in default of a $300 bond. The negroes had secured wine and whiskey from this place several times, it seems. Officer made the first arrest. He found John Horton very drunk and by his side was a five gallon cask with Carrollton Hotel stamped thereon. He was questioned about where he got it, and this led to the arrest of cotton, who confessed that the liquor had been stolen and how it was done.

YELLED FOR HELP.

Officer Rogers Rushed to the Scene of Supposed Combat.

What a great matter a little fire kindled. "What is the excitement?" a score of anxious citizens exclaimed in front of the popular clothing store of S and D. Berwanger at noon today. Their excitement was increased when officer like Rogers, with his usual promptness, dashed by and began mounting the steps of the Fisher building with the greatest alacrity. The cause of Officer Rogers' activity was several lusty cries for help which seemed to emanate from the sky. No balloon was sighted overhead and the natural conclusion was that a murder was being committed in one of the upper stories of the Fisher building.

Officer Rogers, after reaching the first landing encountered Capt. Day, and anxiously inquired what the trouble was. The Captain professed total ignorance, so the officer pursued his way skyward. He reached the fourth story and still no blood curdling scene met his gaze. However, he was not long kept in ignorance for he raised the top door leading on the roof and there he found Mr. E. H. Thompson, the genial and efficient assistant of Mr. Von Hermann. Mr. Thompson had gone on the roof to attend to his usual duties, and the trap door had closed behind him. There he found himself a prisoner confined on the roof of a four story building. There was but one thing to do and that required good lung exercise. This Mr. Thompson did to perfection, and although he could not be seen, yet his cries were heard on the street and brought him the requisite aid. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Rogers both laughed heartily over the matter.

WHY IS THIS SO?

Mr. Editor: I noted the large number of candidates for aldermen in the First division of the Third ward and it is a fact that but one of this long list of anxious would-be aldermen, but one in worth the homestead and personal property exemptions and some only pay poll tax. Has this precedent, but one property owner to the amount mentioned above?

EDWARD EAGLETON.

As Don Medigna, in Sousa's El Capitano Tomorrow Night at the Academy.

FIRST WARD—FIRST DIVISION.

This ward ought to have a young, energetic, upright, versatile and sterling life-long Democrat to represent it in the incoming administration—such a man is Mr. Oas. G. Koonce, and we therefore ask the voters of the first division of the First Ward, to honor Mr. Koonce by casting their votes for him when the primaries are held.

E. PLURIBUS UNUM.

WE OUGHT TO HAVE HAD IT.

Greensboro is to have a $10,000 chair factory. It was quietly organized within the past month and all the capital stock taken. Instead of this Raleigh has recently lost its only furniture factory by its removal to Durham.

FEEBLE MINDED

Work of State Board of Charities—Wake Home Examined

The last Legislature gave the State Board of Charities some new and important duties. Among the more important of these is the supervision of any private hospitals for the insane or feeble-minded which may be located in the State. It is said that much attention has been attached to North Carolina because of the remarkably large number of cures in the two hospitals of the State.

The climate is considered especially favorable for diseases. Capt. Denison, the scholarly and painstaking secretary of the board, is devoting much time to this subject now and it is not improbable that some private institutions of the kind may be built in the State. The board will have the power to prescribe rules and regulations for these institutions.

The board also now has the inspection of the county homes for the feeble-minded. The home in this county was visited and 22 such inmates were found. Capt. Denison says that the quarters were found in excellent condition.

LIVE WIRE.

Dog's Curiosity Led to a Discovery.

At noon today an innocent-looking individual of the canine species made a startling discovery which inflicted some mental and physical anguish, but saved his superiors from like fate. Rover met under up Fayetteville street until he reached the postoffice. There a telegraph pole attracted his attention and carried away by the impulse, he touched with his nose a small iron pipe which enclosed two electric wires which ran into the ground. The moment his nose came in contact with the pipe pedestrians were startled by the piercing yelp of a terrified dog as Rover turned a backward somersault and disappeared at the rate of about fifty miles an hour.

About thirty people were instantly on the spot and it was found that Rover had received a strong charge of electricity from the pipe. Dr. Sale soon arrived and took the matter in hand, until a remedy could be improvised.

CYCLONE.

Charlotte News. The closing hours of yesterday's beautiful spring Sabbath were marked by one of the most terrific cyclones that has visited this section in many years. Shortly after our people had gotten to their homes from the churches, a black and angry cloud came over the city. The thunder roared and the lightning was exceedingly vivid. About 10:30 o'clock, rain began falling in torrents and with it came a severe windstorm, and later on there was a considerable sprinkling of hail.

While Charlotte was not directly in the track of the storm it was near enough to come in for a considerable amount of wind. Strange to say, no damage of any importance was done in the city proper.

However, the News gives an account of the destruction of much property throughout Mecklenburg, and at Bessemer City and Gastonia.

Handsome wedding cards have just been issued as follows: Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Devereux Haigh request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Rebecca Devereux to Mr. Howard Martin Cook Wednesday evening, April the twelfth at half-past seven o'clock St. John's Church Fayetteville, North Carolina.

TWO ALARMS

Small Dwelling Slightly Damaged by Fire

At 12:20 today an alarm of fire was turned in from box 34 and a few minutes later an alarm from box 31. The fire proved to be a small dwelling owned by Sarah Thompson, an old colored woman, back of W. F. Debnam's home on west Lenoir street. The fire came very near spreading to the adjacent houses and doing great damage.

The house had not been occupied for two months, and the origin of the fire is a mystery. The flames were soon extinguished and the damage was inconsiderable.

W. F. Debnam called at the Times-Visitor office and said that he wished to publicly thank the fire companies for their hard work which alone saved his home from taking fire from the burning house.

INDIAN WAR

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Montreal, March 28.—The St. Regis Indians, near Cornwall, have risen in revolt, demanding a return to the tribal system. They locked the Indian agent in a school house and drove the police away from Ottawa. The police had come to assist in the elections which were to have been held yesterday. Probably troops will be sent from Ottawa to the scene.

LYNCHED A WHITE MAN.

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Topeka, March 28.—Word was received here that a mob took Henry Sanderson from jail at Holton last night and lynched him. Sanderson, a young farmer, Sunday attempted to shoot his sweetheart and shot the girl's aunt.

SHERMAN ARRIVES.

By Telegraph to the Times-Visitor.

Cape Henry, March 28.—The Chicago, with Sherman aboard, passed in quarter at eleven this morning. No signal was displayed by the ensign at the proper place.

NORFOLK OR SOUTHPORT

Suggestion that Flags be Presented at the "Raleigh."

The coming of the "Raleigh" is much discussed here. The people of Raleigh generally seem to favor sending the vessel to Norfolk instead of Southport. It will be impossible for any considerable number of Raleighites to go to Southport, as at least three days will be required to go there and back. Norfolk is by far the most convenient point. Chairman McDonald would like to hear from citizens on this subject.

The suggestion has been made that the city present the "Raleigh" with suitable flags. Handsome flags of the kind em-Raleigh should do the handsome thing by the "Raleigh."

A CARD.

To the voters of the First Division, Third Ward:

It having been very energetically circulated, by parties who seem to think they know more about it than I do, that I am not a candidate for re-election as alderman from the First Division of the Third Ward, I take this method of notifying my friends that I AM a candidate, and intend to remain a candidate until the fight is finished. If elected I shall serve to the best of my ability.

SAM BOGASSE.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE THIRD WARD—SECOND DIVISION.

At the solicitation of many friends, I desire to announce myself a candidate for the nomination of alderman, subject to the Democratic primary meeting to be held April 4th, 1899.

J. D. CARROLL.

DAVE KING.

Mr. Editor: What is the matter with electing Dave King alderman from his division of the First Ward? If you want men who have made a success of their own business then Dave King is the man you should take. Starting at the bottom of the ladder in his profession he has by his industry and ability attained the top round. He is a mechanic and knows the needs of the working men, and can well represent their views. As a member of the Board from the old fifth ward he proved himself worthy to represent every class of the citizens of that ward. The first ward may have as good men in it as D. M. King, but certainly none better or more capable of representing us in the board of aldermen.

"OLD FIFTH WARDER."

TUNING FORKS.

Cary J. Hanfer and T. Palmer Jerman for Aldermen, second division of the Second Ward.

We have from time to time noticed in your useful columns gentlemen that have been named to represent a large number of our best taxpayers in our growing city, which should have such representatives as we have the most implicit confidence in. We believe the above named gentlemen would give tone and inspire such confidence as our people are now clamoring for. They have never belonged to any former administration, and therefore enter the race without fear or favor, but for the best interests of our whole people. We are satisfied that the time has come when our people want representatives that are of the people and not creatures of combines. Give us Hunter and Jerman and our interest is safe.

MANY VOTERS.
