SANTA CRUZ STORMED AND CAPTURED BY LAWTON

American Forc 8 Cross the Many Filipinos Resurn to Bay in Boats and Drive the Insurgents from Santa Cruz After a Fierce Battle-68 Filipino's Dead on the Field

MANILA, April 10.—General Law-ton's division has captured Santa Cruz after a fierce battle. Sixty eight Fili-pinos were found dead on the field and forty wounded men were captured. Our loss was one killed and six wounded. Two cannon were captured together with many prisoners, with hundreds of rifles and a large stock of ammunition.

General Lawton began the fight soon after the men landed by boats which crossed the bay. As soon as they were landed the troops formed in line of bsttle and then bivouacked for the night, sleeping under arms.

The advance began at day break, fighting as soon as the outposts which surrounded Santa Crus were reached. These were driven with a rush after an exchange of shots. General Lawton pressed into rout the main force entrenched about the city. Every step was hotly contested, but the men urged on with resistless energy. The Filipinos made a desperate stand in the trenches and the battle was waged furiously there. Part of the command succeeded in turning the flank of the enemy, then the Funginos fied in disorder. The flying natives were pursued through the streets of Santa Cruz. The fighting ceased only when the city was cleaned of the insurgents. Strong guards were posted in every quarter of the city and the American army rested.

OTIS' MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—General Otis cables a confirmation of the capture of Santa Cruz, and says that General Lawton is pursuing the Filipinos westward. The war department officers made no secret of the fact that a large part of the dispatch is withheld from publication. The impression prevails, that the part suppressed refers to the plan of attack and not of events which have already occurred.

MRS, COTTEN AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC THIS EVENING. Don't forget that Mrs. Cotten is to resite her beautiful poem, "The White Dec." or the "Fate of Virginia Dare," this evening at the Academy of Music. This recitation must prove of unusual interest to the people of Raleigh, not only because of their interest in Mrs. Cotten, but because the poem relates in tall, the heroic efforts of Sir Walter Raieign to secure Anglo-Saxon supremery in America; and it specially embedies the Indian legend in regard to the life and fate of Virginia Dare. Let everybody avail themselves of this rare opportunity to hear such a beautiful poem. Some of Raleigh's best talent will also take part. Admission 50, 35 and 25 cents.

Peaceful Pursuits But the War is Far from Ended -- Reinforcements Needed for our Troops-Soldiers Tired Out

MANILA, April 7 .- Via Honfi Kong, April 10.—Although hundreds of Fili-pinos are daily returning to their mone-desirous of resuming their peaceful pur-suits and though the President's proclamation has given an impetus to this movement, yet the war is far from end ed. One of the foremost American general said recently that there will be a hundred thousand soldiers in the Philippines before the Americans control the islands. The majority of the army are of his opinion. It is generally considered that great reinforcements are necessary, since there is not now sufficient troops in the archipslago to make a conquest of the island of Luzon and at the same time hold the ports already occupied.

The majority of the United States volunteers are eager to return home, many of them saying that they did not enlist to fight niggers. The Spanish system of defending Manila by a lane of blockhouse may be adopted during the rainy season, as it requires fewer men than trench defenses and also lessens the shances for sickness.

The man who invented it was a North Carolina negro by the name of Jackson, who, in the early part of the present century, kept a small confectionery store. Custards which were cooled after being made by setting them on a cake of ice were very fashionable, and Jackson conceived the idea of freezand Jackson conceived the idea of freezing them, which he did by placing the ingredients in a tin bucket, and completely covering it with ice. Each bucket contained a quart, and was sold for a dollar. It immediately became popular, and the inventor soon enlarged his store, and when he died left a considerable fortune. Many tried to follow his example, but for a long time none of them succeeded in obtaining the flavor that Jackson had in his product.
