BOARD OF HEALTH

Prevent Sale of Infected Clothing Here

MEASURES ADOPTED

Second Hand Clothes Ordered Disinfected and City Attorney Busbee Directed to Prepare an Ordinance on the Subject.

Today at noon was the time for the regular meeting of the city Board of Health and a most important matter engaged their attention.

The following members of the board were present: Dr. James MceKe, May-or Powell, Dr. K. P. Battle, Dr. H. A. Royster, Alderman J. C. Drewry, City Attorney Perrin Busbee, and Health Or-ficer T. P. Sale. Dr. McKee, the presi-dent, presided. He announced that this was the regular quarterly meeting and submitted a report from Dr. McGeachy, one of the physicians appointed to vac-cinate. Dr. McGeachy has vaccinated 265 persons; 61 white females and 62 while makes, 89 colored females and 63 colored males.

No report has been yet received from Dr. Buffaloe. CLOTHING PROBLEM.

Dr. McKee then called the board's at ention to a most important matter. From an Associated Press despatch this morning it is learned that an investiga-tion in New York disclosed the fact that clothing has been taken from dead bodies there and, without using any disinfec-tants, shipped to Raleigh, Norfolk, Richmond, and other cities and sold in the second hand clothing stores. Dr. Feeney of the New York Board of Health found upon investigation that clothing from this hot beds of discase were being shipped to North Carolina.

rD. McKee recommended that all sec-ond hand clothing in Raleigh stores be baked and thoroughly disinfected also that no more second hand clothing should be allowed to be sold in Raleigh except when a certificate is shown from the health officers of the city from which they were shipped.

City Attorney Busbee recommended that a strict ordinance he adopted by the aldermen imposing a tax on dealers in cond hand.

Mr. Drewry made a motion that all the second hand clothing now on sale in Raleigh be thoroughly fumigated and disinfected with formallyde gas. This was adopted. This provision will be carried out by Health offier Sale.

Mr. Drewry also made a motion that the City Attorney be instructed to draw up an ordinance and submit it to the board of aldermen to regulate the ment of second hand clothing into Raleigh, embodying in the ordinance Dr. FIRE ESCAPES.

Dr. Royster asked if the provision fire escapes came within the province of the board.

Mr. McKee replied in the affirmative and said that the matter had often been considered before. He said further that Metropolitan hall had been conwemned because of the absence of fire escapes.
SMALL POX.

Officer Sale reported that there were two cases small xzfifff xz1/fifff/aff two small pox patients in the pest house and that the house of detention was nearly complete. Dr. McKee said that Dr. W. H. Dug-ger, a very good doctor, who is now an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, desired camployment by the city to attend small pox patients. Dr. McKee recommended that if it became necessary Dr. Dugger be so employed.

This completed the work of the Board today.

SALE AT WORK. Officer Sale today began his work of fumigating the clothes now in the stores where second class garments are sold There are about a half a dozen of these establishments in Raleigh. Officer Sale will fumigate these stores by burning formallyde gas in them during the night. The only city ordinance at present on this subject is as follows:

"Section 11. Any person who shall knowingly sell or cause to he sold or otherwise dispose of any bed-clothing or any other article which is infected with small-pox, membranous croup, measles, typhoid fever, typhus fever, yellow fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria or cholera, whereby these diseases may be spread or made liable to be spread or disseminated shall, on conviction, pay a fine of ten dollars or be imprisoned for thirty days."

CROP BULLETIN

The F.rst Report of the Sea-

GREATLY RETARDED

Reports are All Unfavorable-Farmers are far Behind-Truck Crops Growing Very Slowly.

The weekly crop bulletin, the first for this year, embracing the week ending Monday, April 10th, was issued today

The builetin says: The opening of the crop season of 1899 in North Carolina has been extremely unfavorable. The winter was severe; the remarkable freeze on February 14th broke all previous records for cold weather in the State, and since then the rainfall has been so cessive that the soil has been continuously soaked. Roads have b en atmost impassable, and very little farm work could be accomplished. The season averages from two to four weeks late everywhere, with practically no preparations yet made for the main crops-

orn, cotton, and tobacco.
The reports of crop correspondents for the week ending Monday, April 10th, are unanimously unfavorable. The weather has been cold, wet and gloomy. The week opened with a snowstorm on Tuesday, averaging from 2 to 6 inches in depth and breaking all previous re-cords for April. On Friday a general and heavy rainfall occurred, bringing the average precipitation for the week to over 2.00 inches. Following the snow-storm the temperature fell to below freezing in the central and western portions of the State, with frost as far as South-port. Frosts also occurred on the 9th and 10th as far south as Wilmington. The average temperature for the week was over 10 degrees below the normal.

On account of the very wet condition of the soil very little plowing could be done. An insignificant amount of corn was planted, and the delay in the preparation of cotton land will contribute to limit the acreag eto be planted. Gardens have hardly been touched, but a good many Irish potatoes have been planted, a few potatoes bedded, and some melons put in. Tobacco plants are small and growing slowly; preparations indi-cate a large crop of tobacco. Winter wheat and oats are generally thin and small, having been badly winter killed, but east of the Blue Ridge the plants look healthy. Winter oats are in the worst condition. Much loss of grain on lowlands resulted from frequent freshets in the mountainous sections. Sow-ing of spring oats has been delayed until it is almost too late. Rice lands are still under water.

Truck crops are growing slowly and shipments to northern markets can hardly be said to have begun. Frosts cut down peas and unprotected Irish potatoes, but the greatest loss results from retarded growth. The reports of dam-age to etrawberries are very diversified, but considering that many acres of vines were covered and the number of blossoms was still small, the percentage of actual loss will not be great. The prospect for other fruit is not encouraging; fruit trees and grape vines were seriously cut back by the February freeze; peach-

(Popular Science Monthly.) Languer, loss of appetite, indigestion and often feverishness are the common symptoms of a physiological condition termed "malaria." All these symptoms may be and frequently are the effect of the use of alum baking powers in food making. There is no question about the poisonous effect of alum upon the systhe nerves, congulates and devitalizes the blood. All this has been made clear, thanks to physicians, boards of health, and food commissions. So "highly injurious to the health of the community' does the eminent head of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Barker, consider the alum baking powders, that he says "their sale should be prohibited by law."

U. S. GRANT, THIRD.

West Point, N. Y., April 9 .- A flerce battle occured at Highlands Falls at a late hour last night between candidates for admission to West Point as cadets on the one side and boys of the village on the other. The candidates are attending the preparatory schools at High-land Falls prior to being examined at West Point next June for admission to the academy. There were about thirty of them in the fight but they were out-numbered three to one by the boys of the town. The trouble began with a band-to-hand encounter and the crowd soon increased to such an extent that stone-throwing took the place of fists. Several of the candidates were more or less injured, the most seriously hurt being Grant III. The services of all the doctors in town were required to dress the wounds of the injured.

Judge Stephen J. Field, who died in Washington Sunday served the longest term on the United States Supreme court of any one in the history of the court. He retired from the bench De-cember -st, 1897.
