RECEPTION.

The Joint committee of aldermen and citizen to arrange to welcome Company K, the old Governor's Guard, on their return home, held their first meeting last night and appointed the various sub-committees to make the necessary arrangements.

The following were present at the meeting last night: Aldermen W. W. Parish and Joseph Correll and Messrs. Edgar Leach, R. H. Jones, N. B. Broughton, Graham Haywood, Wm. M. Russ, Charles F. Lumsden, Samuel Hunter, David Levine, W. A. Linehan, W. S. Primrose, Ed. H. Lee and Edgar A. Womble. Mr. Edgar Leach was elected chairman and Mr. Walter L. Watson, secretary.

Mr. W. S. Primrose moved to invite the mayor, city officials and the white members of the board of aldermen to join the committee in the reception. The motion was adopted.

Mr. R. H. Jones moved that a committee of three be appointed to arrange for the reception at the depot. Carried. Alderman Correll moved that a committee of five be appointed to solicit subscriptions for the entertainment. It was moved and adopted that the entertainment to be given would be a barbecue and Brunswick stew.

Mr. N. B. Broughton moved that a committee of three be appointed on music and transportation, also that all the white private and public schools be requested to give holiday on the days the boys arrive and to participate in the reception.

On motion of Mr. W. M. Russ, the reception committee were directed to invite L. O. B. Branch camp Confederate veterans and Meade Post, G. A. R., to join in the reception.

The reception committee will arrange the details of the welcome, and appoint the speakers for the occasion. It will be their purpose to make the welcome a rousing one, in which the citizens generally are requested to participate and the students of the colleges and the children of the white public and private schools. The mayor, city officials, board of aldermen and the committee will be there to give them a formal as well as a hearty and sincere welcome.

A GOOD THING WELL DONE.

New and pleasing ideas in advertising always interest. Nothing has appeared for years which is so attractive as the Hood's Sarsaparilla advertisements, utilizing proverbs and wise sayings as headings, each followed by a little homily cleverly connecting the proverb with the subject. Besides this, the quaint Jensen italic type for the preliminary sentences, finishing with a script slogan, "Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints," adds to the effectiveness. All this work is running in over 7,000 papers.

RIGHT OF APPEAL UPHELD.

The power of municipal corporations to modify the State statutes has been decided by Judge T. W. Harrison, of Lenoir, Va., against such exercise of charter privileges. The mayor of Lenoir refused an appeal to our county court in a case of fine for assault imposed by him for $2.50 because the by-laws of Lenoir deny an appeal in such cases when the fine imposed is less than $10. Judge Harrison ordered a mandamus to be issued directing the mayor to certify the appeal because charter rights cannot override nor annul State laws, as well upon the ground that the rights to appeal and trial by jury cannot be denied or infringed upon.

EQUAL TO EVERY EMERGENCY.

The Elkin correspondent of the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer writes: "Rev. W. B. Bradshaw, the gifted young pastor of the Baptist church here, perhaps did the hardest day's work in his life on Sunday. He married two couples in the morning, rode ten miles and preached an Easter sermon, went three miles farther and married another couple, and then preached another sermon Sunday night. But he is equal to every emergency."

IF WE DIDN'T.

Some sage persons has discovered And has told in verses neat, What a lot of cash 'twould save us If we didn't have to eat. Let me add unto this wisdom, Though the thought may make you cross, We couldn't board up gold in bedclothes If we didn't have to sleep. Furthermore, 'tis borne upon me, With a force I cannot balk, That we'd save a lot on leather If we didn't have to walk. So of all the bills that vex us, Just the biggest one, I guess, Would be spared for safe investment If we didn't have to dress. Come to think the whole thing over, Free concurrence you will give That vast wealth would line our pockets If we didn't have to live. Chicago Record.

LOVE AND WAR.

Messrs. Editors: Sin has been committed by the human race Since Adam ate the apple and hid his sinful face. Of all the crimes that e'er were done in any age or nation, None could compare anywhere with benevolent assimilation. They speak of love for heathens with unabated breath, But love by war defined is assimilated death. Hypocrites have lived and died since life to man was given, Yet the greatest of them all with us today are living. The white man's burden of today is the lie he has to swallow, The taxes that he has to pay, the wrong he has to follow. X.

PHOEBE.

Ere pales in heaven the morning star, A bird, the loneliest of its kind, Hears Dawn's faint footfall from afar, While all its mates are dumb and blind. It is a wee, sad-colored thing, As shy and sweet as a maid, That, ere in choir the robins ring, Pipes its own name like one afraid. It seems pain-prompted to repeat The story of some ancient ill; But Phoebe! Phoebe! sadly sweet! Is all it says, and then is still.

It calls and listens, Earth and sky, Hushed by the paths of its fate, Listen; no whisper of reply Comes from its doom-discovered mate. —James Russel Lowell.

OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES.

"Papa," asked a 4-year-old youngster, "are all little boys made of dust?" "Yes, my son," was the reply. "Well, then," continued the little fellow, "I wish you would make nurse stop using the whisk-broom on me. I'm afraid she'll brush me all away." "Why, Willie," said his mother one day when they were out walking, "what do you mean by offering a penny to that mule?" "Because," replied the young investigator, "I heard papa say that money makes the mare go, and I want to see if it has the same effect on a mule." "Teacher—" You should be very careful what you say, Johnny. Do you know what will become of you if you keep on telling stories?" Johnny (who reads the papers)—"Yes'm; I'll get invitations to all the big dinners when I grow up and become a United States Senator from New York."

THE CUBAN PATRIOTS.

Times of Cuba: A unique specimen has been found among the patriots of the grand host of "Cubans in arms" in the person of Manuel Lazo, who has command of a force—number unknown—at far-away Cape Antonio, Lazo, while calling on General Gomez, said that the object for which he and his men took up arms having been attained, they renounced whatever sum of money that might be considered due them, and only asked to be allowed to return to their abandoned when the war began.

SIMPSON'S ECZEMA OINTMENT

IN THE TREATMENT OF

NASAL CATARRH.

EL DORADO, N. C. June 1, 1898.
MR. Wm. SIMPSON, DEAR SIR:—You know I thought my wife incurable, having suffered long of Catarrh, roaring of the head, and bronchial trouble. I tried several physicians with little or no benefit, but since using your Catarrh Remedy she is almost entirely well. I can safely say that it is the best remedy for Catarrh and other troubles of like nature known to me, and I wish every sufferer of such troubles knew of its efficacy. I shall not fail to keep it in my house.
