A startling incident, of which Mr. ohn Oliver of Philadelphia, was the ubject, is narrated by him as follows: I was in a most dreadful condition. iy skin was almost yellow, eyes sunk-n, tongue coated,pain continusly in ack and sides, no appetite—gradually rowing weaker day by day. Three thysicians had given me up. Fortun-tely, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for hree weeks, and am now a well man. I cnow they saved my life, and robbed he grave of another victim." No on-hould fall to try them. Only 50 cents bottle at any drug store.
