DR. BLASINGAME.

The Board of Trustees of the Baptist Female University last evening elected Dr. James C. Blasingame of Knoxville, Tenn., to the presidency of the Baptist Female University. Dr. Blasingame is only 32 years of age. He is a native of Georgia, graduated with distinction at the University of that State in 1892, studied in Chicago University and then took charge of the Jackson Woman's College, Jackson, Ga., which rapidly became famous under his presidency.

It is highly important that the voters of Raleigh should register for the coming municipal election. Apathy and lack of interest in the government of the city would indeed be lamentable. Let every elector register promptly.
A NOVELTY IN NEWSPAPERS.
California "Signed-Articles Law" Leads To Some Unique Sightings in the Press There.
New York, April 18.—A dispatch to the Evening World from San Francisco says:

"Notice—On and after this date all articles must be signed by authors and shall be published over such signatures. Such is the notice posted to-day by the managing editors of the daily papers here. Contrary to expectations San Francisco editors have determined to observe the signed-articles law passed by the recent Legislature, at least until a test case shall have been decided upon by the courts.

The signed-articles act, which went into effect to-day, compels the attaching of signatures to articles which are libelous in nature, reflecting upon the character of any person, living or dead, or signing only certain of the contributions of its staff a newspaper would practically confess that these were libelous. For this reason it has been determined that practically all shall be signed. The penalty provided in the law is a fine of $1,000 for each violation $500 of the fine going to the person who brings action against the offending newspaper. To-morrow the Chronicle will publish a single article, seemingly libelous in its nature, to which no signature will be attached. The Chronicle will be sued for this publication, and this suit will be made a test case. The Publishers' Association has agreed that no editorials should not be signed, proprietors of papers holding themselves responsible for opinions expressed in editorial columns over which their names are placed.

The newspapers to-day are rather humorous in appearance. There are cases where single-line items are followed by signatures as long as themselves, as the following, for instance:
"John Peterson, drunk, died at city jail yesterday."
"HERBERT ROGERS, of Olympic Club, fell from bicycle yesterday and broke his collar bone."
"MICHAEL GUNNINGSON GEARY" Even the obituaries are followed by the signatures of the persons turning them in, and items like the following fill considerable space in each of the papers:
"JONES—At his home, at 23 Geary street, James W. Jones, of consumption, aged 23 years and 1 day.

A PLUCKY GIRL'S BURGLAR. Seized Him by the Only Arm He Had.
New York, April 17.—Miss Tillie Thompson captured a burglar early this morning. Miss Thompson, who is a daughter of Louise Thompson, a theatrical costumer, of No. 412 Seventh avenue, is 4 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 135 pounds. The burglar is 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighs 165 pounds.
Miss Thompson said in court today:

Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to itself. It is a medicine as far ahead of the usual preparation as the electric light is ahead of the tallow dip. The ingredients used in making it are selected with the very greatest care, and are gathered from the most productive regions of the globe. Its medicinal value is beyond all question. It is a purgative and a blood-purifier. It cures all cases of blood-poison, such as eczema, scrofula, and all other troubles traceable to impure or vitiated blood. Possessing great stomach-toning qualities, it cures indigestion, dyspepsia, and all other troubles of the stomach, etc. It builds up the nerves, and is a powerful strength and curing nervous prostration. As a natural tonic, it strengthens the whole system and cures that tired feeling. It has done all this for others, and it will do for you. All we ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, is a necessary, an opportunity and a fair trial. Be sure you buy Hood's. Sold by druggists. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. It never disappoints.

"I was awakened by Peter Duryea, my fox terrier, growling. Then I heard one voice say: 'Oh, I guess they're all gone to sleep,' and I knew it was burglars, and that one man was in the area watching and the other in the hall by the door. I could tell by the conversation that one was looking behind a curtain in the hall. 'What's there?' the man on watch asked.

"Trunks," said the one that was looking.
"Open?"
"Open; yes, they're open."
"Matches were scratched carefully while they looked. I crept out of bed then I heard them pull down a box from a shelf and open it. I crept to the door.
"I peeped around the dining room door. I could have reached out my hand and touched the two men who were pulling the hats out by the light of the matches and tossing them on the floor. Then Peter got out in the hall and growled. Both men dashed for the door. I after them and Peter at my heels.

"I caught hold of both as they reached the sidewalk. One got away. I was all a-shiver and so excited that I could hardly talk when the policeman came up. He hauled the burglar in and hit the gas and then I got a look at my prisoner. He'd only one arm, and lucky for me I'd caught hold of that and so he couldn't hit me. I wish I'd caught both of them."

Senator Quay has the reputation of being an unscrupulous wire pulling politician, but a Pennsylvania jury has exonerated him from a charge of swindling the State. If the other charges against him are also unfounded then there is no reason why he should be any more objectionable in the Senate than any other Republican.

SOUTHERN BOOK EXCHANGE. M. M. SMITH, Manager. Raleigh, N. C.

Under and by virtue of a resolution of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Raleigh passed April 7th, 1899, in pursuance of the authority given in an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina of 1896, ratified February 23rd, 1899, entitled: "An act to authorize the city of Raleigh to issue bonds for public improvements and to levy a special tax," notice is hereby given that a special election will be held at the various polling places hereinafter named on the 12th day of June, 1899, for the purpose of obtaining the consent of a majority of the qualified voters of said city to the issuance of the bonds provided for in Section 1 and 5 of said Act, as follows:

Section 1. That for the purpose of paving, macadamizing and otherwise improving such of the public streets of the City of Raleigh as the Board of Aldermen of said city may determine to improve, and for making such other public improvements as the said board of aldermen may determine to make, the city of Raleigh is hereby authorized and empowered to issue its bonds to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, of such denominations and in such proportions as the Board of Aldermen may deem advisable, bearing interest from the date thereof at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, with interest coupons attached, payable half yearly, at such times and at such place or places as may be deemed advisable by said Board of Aldermen; said bonds to be of such form and tenor and transferable in such way, and the principal thereof payable or redeemable at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from the date thereof, and at such place or places as the Board of Aldermen may determine.

Section 5. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of the interest accruing on and the principal at maturity of the bonds issued under authority of this act the Board of Aldermen of said city shall annually, and at the time of levying other city taxes, levy and lay a particular tax on all persons and subjects of taxation on which the said Board of Aldermen now are or may hereafter be authorized to lay and levy taxes for any purpose whatsoever, said particular tax to be not less than six or more than eight cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on property, and not less than eight cents per centum than twenty-one cents on each taxable poll. The taxes provided for in this section shall be collected, and shall be accounted for and kept separate from other city taxes, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes for which they are collected. So much of said taxes as may be required to pay the interest on the bonds issued by authority of this act, as at said due, and cannot be applied to the purchase or discharge of the bonds for which said taxes are levied and collected, shall be invested so as to secure the payment at maturity of the principal of the said bonds; and to insure the due investment of the amounts collected from year to year in excess of that required to pay the said interest the Board of Aldermen shall cause the said excess to be turned over to be commissioner of the sinking fund of the city of Raleigh, whose duty it shall be, under such general rules and regulations as said Board of Aldermen shall from time to time prescribe, to make investments of so much of the taxes collected and turned over to him as aforesaid, as shall be applicable as aforesaid to the payment of the principal of said bonds issued under this act, and to do or perform all such other services in connection with said bonds as said Board of Aldermen may prescribe, and such commissioner shall give bond and receive such compensation for his said services as said Board of Aldermen may determine.

Those qualified voters approving the issue of the bonds and the levy and collection of the particular taxes as above provided for shall deposit in the ballot box a ballot, 1 1/2 inches wide by 3 inches long, of white "book" paper, in weight, material or ornamentation, upon which shall be printed in plain bold print the word "approved," and those disapproving the same shall deposit a like ballot with the printed word "disapproved."

That said election shall be held under the provisions of an act of the said General Assembly of 1896, ratified March 6th, 1899, entitled: "An Act to provide the manner of election and the registration of the voters in cities and towns, and for elections upon local questions in counties and townships" in the four wards or voting precincts provided in said act authorizing said election and issuance of bonds as aforesaid, to-wit:
