NUMBER 8366

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1899.

25 CEA MONTH

ARRIVE TONIGHT

Mayor Powell Comes With the Gun

Many of the Raleigh delegation returned from Wilmington this morning at 2:10. Among the number were Dr. J. Hal Bobbitt, E. Shilling, B. H. Jolly, Graham Clark, H. S. Leard, Samuel Young, C. C. Baker, George Fowler, James Royster, Walter Clark, Jr. A few others arrived this morning. All were enthusiastic in their praise of the excellent manner in which Mr. H. S. Leard, of the S. A. L., arranged matters. When the party left the Raleigh yesterday Captain Coghlan said that he could not present the gun to Raleigh unless he received authority to do so from Washington. Shortly afterwards, however, Assistant Attorney General Boyd arrived and arranged the matter, so the presentation was made. A telegram was received this evening from Mayor Powell stating that he would arrive at 2:16 in the morning with the gun. Mr. W. E. Jones has arranged a place in his show window for the gun, and says that he has arranged with the committee here to place it there. The gun is six feet long, 3 1/2 inch bore, weighing 30 pounds. All who visited the Raleigh were charmed with Captain Coghlan and the officers. Captain Coghlan was very anxious to take the vessel up to Wilmington, but after consulting pilots he considered it risky and the department would not release him of the responsibility for her safety if the attempt was made. Captain Coghlan speaks in the highest terms of Admiral Dewey, and says that the Philippines are an exceedingly fine country. After leaving Southport the Raleigh will visit Charleston, S. C., and then make her way northward, probably touching at New York again, on her way to Portsmouth, N. H., where she will be put out on commission preliminary to extensive repairs and alterations. The law requires that sailors whose terms of enlistment have expired shall be discharged within thirty days after their arrival at a home port. The Raleigh will have been in United States waters that length of time by the middle of this month, so orders were telegraphed to Captain Coghlan yesterday to begin immediately the discharge of the men whose time is out, which includes about half of the crew of the Raleigh. The captain is authorized to provide railway transportation to New York and Portsmouth for such of the men as request it. The remainder of the Raleigh's crew, whose term of service has not expired, will be placed on the receiving ship Vermont at the New York navy yard, and Captain Coghlan himself will be placed on waiting orders.

IRELAND CANNOT ACCEPT.

Rome, May 6.—It is stated that in consequence of the exclusion of Vatican representation in the Peace Congress at The Hague, the Pope has forbidden Archbishop Ireland to accept the commission as a delegate offered him by President McKinley. THE WEATHER. The forecast of the weather bureau for Raleigh and vicinity says: Fair; warmer tonight and Sunday. The map this morning shows a uniform arrangement of pressure, which gradually diminishes from the New England coast southwestward to Texas. Light local rains have occurred at widely scattered stations, chiefly on the middle Atlantic coast. Areas of clear weather exist only over Florida and the west Lake region, elsewhere the skies are generally cloudy. The temperature has risen slightly, and is nowhere near the frost line.

CHILDREN'S MUSICALS.

The children will give a musical next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. T. H. Briggs, West Edenton street. Some of the songs will be furnished by tiny ones who have seldom, if ever before, appeared in public. Violin, instrumental and vocal music will also be given by larger boys and girls. The program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. A voluntary offering will be received at the door, and it is hoped that a large number will be present to encourage the young people.

St. Saviour's Chapel, Sunday school, 10 a. m. Morning service, 11 a. m. Night service, 8 p. m. Seats free. All invited.

ANOTHER FIGHT

Lawton Defeats the Rebels Near Maasin

MANY KILLED

Col. Arguelles Acknowledges that the Insurgents are Completely Whipped and Aguinaldo is Anxious to Surrender.

Manila, May 6.—Afternoon.—General Lawton's column advanced to a position two and a half miles north of Balanga today. Before making a forward movement General Lawton sent back to Manila two wounded men of the Minnesota regiment and one of the Oregon's, who were hurt in yesterday's fight, besides twenty-six others. The advance met but slight opposition. Outside Maasin two thousand rebels, occupying entrenched position, were routed in short order. Many corpses of rebels were discovered in the river of San Tomas. Scores of rifles and other arms were recovered in the river, where they were thrown by the retreating rebels. General MacArthur's division is resting at San Fernando, and making, in the meantime, extensive reconnaissances.

Manila, May 6.—Colonel Arguelles, chief of the staff of General Lum, and one of the envoys negotiating for peace, made this remarkable and significant statement today: "We undoubtedly are whipped. Aguinaldo is discouraged and our troops have determined to surrender. All our leaders now want is some guarantee of fair treatment as a condition of laying down their arms. They ask a brief armistice only for the purpose of effecting a complete surrender through our Congress. The Americans are wrong to distrust our honesty."

MACARTHUR'S DIVISION.

Manila, May 6.—Experiments have demonstrated the practicability of utilizing Rio San Fernando as the means for conveying supplies from Manila to the front instead of using the damaged railroad for the purpose, making such connection with General MacArthur's division in pursuance of this plan by army tugs, which will proceed that way to the front. A large body of Filipinos are reported moving around MacArthur's left flank toward the railroad. Reports from Iloilo and Cebu state that all is quiet there, and commerce is improving, but that Samar and Leyte show considerable military activity since the arrival of the Tagalog delegates.

RAN AGRROUND.

Washington, May 6.—Admiral Dewey cables: "Bennington on shoal; was not charted; on the north side of Panay. The ship came off twenty-three hours later and was examined by divers. The damage was not serious, but it is necessary to dock the vessel. I have sent her to Hong Kong. No blame is attached to any one."

CARNEGIE MAY RETIRE.

London, May 6.—In response to a query regarding the reported transfer of his business interests in the United States to a syndicate Carnegie stated: "I have given my young business partner terms on which I will be willing to sell and retire from business." Carnegie has on definite information as yet whether they are going to buy or not, but thinks they will.

LETTERS BY THE BUSHIEL.

MRS. W. C. WHITNEY DYING.

New York, May 6.—A report from Westbury, the country residence of Wm. C. Whitney, says that Mrs. Whitney is dying.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Atlanta Constitution. Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., of New York, is at the Kimball. Mr. Dixon is here to deliver a lecture on "The New Woman" at Dr. Bronckton's Baptist Tabernacle on Luckie street tonight. The outlook is that it will be a very warm lecture. "It stirs up the old hens," said Mr. Dixon, this morning, "and, at times, makes them stand on their hind legs." "What's the line of the lecture?" was asked. "Well, the title is, 'The New Woman,' but the lecture is really a plea for the 'old woman,' that charming being whom the masses of the people so much love and admire." "It's rough on woman suffragists. I imagine?" "Well, rather," and there was a keen light in his piercing black eye, "it antagonizes that entire of insurgent females in this country who believe that when shall I have equal rights, political or otherwise, with men. It sometimes makes that misguided band of women and their advocates very warm in the collar." His lecture tonight, "The New Woman," will not only be a revelation in fire, force and fluency, but it will amount to an Atlanta sensation.

SEARCH THOU OUR HEARTS.

Search Thou our hearts, O God, and see If this our strife be waged for Thee. Thus gavest in our infancy The precious gift of liberty. And is it, then, through Thy command, We render the gift from other hands? Lord God of Battles once wast Thou Declare Thyself unto us now! For since One came, the Prince of Peace, Hast Thou not bidden war to cease? Yet, peradventure, now, as then, Through darkling paths Thou leadest men. From present ills of war and blood, Permittest them to work our good. An hundred years Thy face has shed Its light upon the paths we tread. And all we did was in Thy name, And Thou hast given us power and fame. No stronger nation walks Thine earth Than ours, the one of latest birth. Since Thou has given such bounteous store, What need, O Lord, have we of more? Then woe to us if we profane Thy name to cloak our lust of gain! No sin more hateful, Lord, may be Than that which cursed the Pharisee. And Thou, how'er we cloak intent, Wilt judge us by the thing we meant. Search Thou our hearts, O God, and see If this our strife be waged for Thee. —Annie Virginia Culbertson.

DANGEROUS PLACES.

Intersections of Streets and Railroad Tracks.

"Raleigh is the only city of this size which I have seen where there is nothing to protect or warn vehicles or pedestrians at railroad crossings," remarked a gentleman this morning as he witnessed the narrow escape of a negro and a two horse team on South West street as the S. A. L. mail was swiftly backing out. If the horses had been the least unmanageable there would have been a bad accident. As it was the horses were drawn back on their haunches and the train almost touched the wagon tongue. "There are eight places in Raleigh as dangerous as this one," the gentleman continued, and he named them as follows: 1. Crossing on South Fayetteville street. 2. Crossing south at Southern freight depot. 3. Crossing on South West street. 4. Crossing on West Standard Oil Co. where a fine horse was killed last spring. 5. Crossing on West Jones street. 6. Crossing east of Standard Oil Co. 7. Crossing west of Standard Oil Co. 8. Crossing at Johnson street station.

PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

The following is the cast of characters in the "Pirates of Penzance," to be given by a home company: Richard, the Pirate Chief, Dr. Hubert Royster; Samuel, his Lieutenant, Mr. Jesse Ball; Frederick, a pirate apprentice, Mr. Stark Batchelor; Major General, Mr. Albert L. Baker; Edward, Sergeant of Police, Mr. Early Hughes; Mabel, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Durham; Kate, Miss Eliza Busbee; Edith, Miss Sadie Duncan; Isabel, Miss Mary Turner; Ruth, a Piratical Maid, Miss Alice Jones; chorus of pirates, chorus of policemen, chorus of General Stanley's daughters, dance de fleurs a la Orientale.

STALL RAILROAD TRAINS.

Madrid, May 6.—The plague locusts of central Spain has increased alarmingly. In many places the insects cover the ground to a depth of two feet and stall railroad trains.

THIRTY-FOURTH.

Kirkville, Mo., May 6.—The death of Miss Cunningham here makes the thirty-fourth. Others are still in a critical condition.

Lots of animated thinkers are poor talkers. A preferred creditor is one who never troubles you. Silence may be golden, but gossip gains currency. A coincidence is the antiquated plea of the plagiarist. The words of the silent man are never repeated in court. The anatomist ought to be able to furnish inside information. Few men are born leaders, but lots of them grow up and become drivers. Although the gas metre never fails to register, it isn't allowed to vote. Truth lies at the bottom of the well and anglers never go there to fish. The best friend you have on earth is a better friend to himself than he is to you. A man may dodge the earthly collectors, but he must pay the debt of nature as he goes. Some people seem to know everything except the fact that they don't know how much they don't know. We are told that the cat has nine lives and we are inclined to believe it spends eight of them in vocal culture. Dry plates are all well enough in a photographic studio, but ministers do not think favorably of them in churches. It is equally as important to be sure you are wrong before backing out, as it is to be sure you are right before going ahead.

APPROPRIATION PAID.

Check for the Balance Due the State Guard for This Year Received. Colonel P. H. Lybrook, Paymaster General of the N. C. S. G., today sent the Adjutant General $11,000, this being the balance for the State Guard appropriation for this year.

SLOANS THROWN.

London, May 6.—Tod Sloane was thrown from his mount on Esmeralda Hill going by a post in Kempton Park today, in the Hampton handicap. Sloane was considerably bruised and could not go to the post for the race, and his mount was withdrawn.

LITTLE KINDNESS.

If you were toiling up a weary hill, Bearing a load beyond your strength to bear, Straining each nerve untiringly, and still Stumbling and losing your foothold here and there; And each one passing by would do so much As give one upward lift and go their way, Would not the slight, reiterated touch Of help and kindness lighten all the day? There is no little and there is no much; We weigh and measure and define in vain; A look, a word, a light, responsive touch Can be the minister of joy to pain. A man can die of hunger, walled in gold, A crumb may quicken hope to stronger breath, And every day we give or we withhold Some little thing that tells for life or death. —SUSAN COOLIDGE.

OLD FELLOW ITEMS.

The Grand Lodge will assemble in Odd Fellows hall at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday, May, the 9th.

The city will open wide its gates to extend a hearty welcome to the visiting brethren.

Grand Treasurer R. J. Jones, of Wilmington, now in his seventy-eighth year, and the oldest Grand Treasurer living in point of service, is the youngest looking man to his age that will attend the session.

Grand Master, General B. S. Royster, will arrive Monday afternoon, so as to have ample time to arrange the appointment of the committees and other preliminary business.

Dr. L. B. McBratner, the efficient District Deputy Grand Master of "the State of Buncombe," says the order continues to flourish in his district. He expects to be here during the session of the Grand Lodge, and can tell us all about the matter.

On Monday evening, May the 8th, the brethren from Greensboro instituted a new lodge at Spray, in Rockingham county, with forty charter members. Leakesville and Spray can furnish material for as good a lodge as the State affords.

The brethren of Neuse Lodge, in Goldsboro, were very kind in tendering the Grand Master a cordial invitation to hold the coming session of the Grand Lodge in Goldsboro on account of the rumors that Raleigh has an epidemic of smallpox, but the Grand Master thought that such rumors were not of sufficient importance as to interfere with the arrangements already made, so the session will be held here.

Brother O. H. Hill, of Elizabeth City, one of the truest and best Odd Fellows the State can produce, writes the Grand Secretary a postal card and says: "If nothing prevents I will be there on Tuesday, the 9th," and when he comes he will come as near "filling the bill" as a representative of the order as the next man.

If the credentials on file for representatives to the Grand Lodge are to be taken as the true meaning—and there can be no other or better—the coming session will be one of the ablest and brainiest that the Grand Lodge has ever had. True, there will be many present who have never attended a session before and lack something in the way of practical experience in business matters and men of affairs generally, which goes a great way to remedy the want of experience. We shall expect conservatism and wise judgment to predominate in all that is done. So be it.

Brother D. A. Coble, the Superintendent of the Orphan House at Goldsboro, and editor of the semi-monthly paper of the same name, will be here during the session of the Grand Lodge with one of the Raleigh orphan boys, who will look especially after the interests of that paper. We feel sure that a large list of cash subscriptions will be received, and that both Brother Coble and his helper will return to the home happy.

The mayor and a goodly number of the city officers and police force being members of the order, we can assure our visiting brethren of a generous welcome and good protection while sojourning in the city; provided, always, they behave themselves like good little boys. They should all be informed of the facts in the case, because there is another department, presided over by another very worthy brother, where stripes are fashionable, and the entertainments not altogether so pleasant to those who break the laws and are sent to learn better manners. We have never known one of our sort of folks to be seen cooling off under the care and protection of our Brother Mac—, but it might be of importance to some one to drop a warning sign in time, because it would be rather embarrassing to our brother mayor if he should have to robe one of his brethren in the regalia of Brother Mac's halliwick. See?

LARGE SEASON SHIPMENTS.

Last year Mr. Sam Watts, of Auburn, shipped between 40 and 50 car loads of watermelons and canteloupes from that point. This year he expects to more than double his shipments. He estimates that he will ship over 100 car loads. There are 800 to 1,000 melons in a car load. The shipments reach as far north as New York. There are over 500 acres in his vicinity planted in melons and canteloupes. Last year was the first year any extensive shipments were made from Auburn. The shipments begin about the 10th of July and close about the 10th of August. Mr. Watts says the Georgia melon is not in it with the Auburn melon.
