RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 5, 1899.

A FRENCH RIOT

Royalists Attack President Loubet Sunday.

HIS CALMNESS SAVED HIM

French Cabinet Met and Ordered the Courtmartial of Some Participants—Zola's Arrival Unnoticed.

PARIS, June 4.—President Loubet, accompanied by the Premier, M. Dupuy, and the chief of the military household, Gen. M. C. Bailloud, drove to the Auteuil races this afternoon, closely followed by Mme. Loubet, in a second landau. As they drove along the Avenue des Champs Elysees the crowd below respectfully, but on arriving at Auteuil they were met by a violent demonstration, evidently organized and directed against the President.

There was a storm of boos, yells, and cries of "Panama," "A bas Loubet," and "Vive l'Armee." A few shouts of "Vive Loubet" were drowned in the clamor.

A strong force of police kept order and arrested many of the disturbers, including a man who tried to force his way to the President's carriage.

During the second race the clamor increased to violence, and was plainly directed by a committee of the League of Patriots, collected with their supporters both before and behind the Presidential stand, around which a formidable affray proceeded. During the Grand Steeplechase many blows were struck, and several policemen were injured in their endeavors to prevent an invasion of the Presidential stand.

At the crisis of the excitement, while shouts of "Vive l'Armee" and "Vive Loubet" were heard on all sides, Gen. Comte Christiani rushed toward the President, brandishing a stick, and directed a blow against him, striking his hat. The crowd rushed upon Christiani, who only escaped severe handling by being taken under police protection.

LOUBET TALKS.

PARIS, June 5.—The newspapers this morning praise President Loubet's calmness throughout the great demonstration yesterday. Replying to Steward's concerning the Auteuil races the president remarked:

"You were in no way responsible and to prove that I have no anger towards you if the races were tomorrow I would attend them. I am invited to attend the Grand Prix on Sunday next, and you may be sure that I'll shall be present." Upon his return to Elysees President Loubet said to those who accompanied him: "All my family were opposed to my becoming president, I had no desire to remain at Elysees, but now that it is dangerous to be the chief of the State, my duty is clear and I will let my enemies be convinced that I shall accomplish my mission to the end."

Of the hundred and thirty arrested, forty-three are still held.

LOUBET'S NARROW ESCAPE.

The Cabinet Council at a meeting this afternoon, decided to prosecute all concerned in the Dreyfus-Deroudele affairs. It is feared today that the riots at Auteuil will soon be renewed, and the most extreme precautions are taken. The charge to be formally made against Baron Christiani will be specially attempting to strike the chief of the State. It is now known beyond question that the president had a narrow escape far more serious than the calmness of President Loubet led the spectators to believe.

Lieuts. Cleming, Ker and Garion will be court martialed for their connection in yesterday's disturbance.

ZOLA'S RETURN.

The return of Zola is scarcely noticed in the newspapers. In an article in the Aurore Zola says: "Justice having dawned and justice being done, I have returned home." The article contains a fervent plea in behalf of Picquart.

CASTELLENE IMPLICATED.

The Cabinet met again today to further consider the action to be taken against Count de Castellene and other Royalists attacking the President yesterday.

CHAMBER IN DISORDER.

Disorder occurred in the chamber today. Deputy Largentave was ejected for insulting President Loubet.

DR. BRATTON'S ACCEPTANCE.

This Distinguished Gentleman Coming to St. Mary's.

All friends of St. Mary's (and they are legion) will hear with extreme gratification of the acceptance by Rev. T. D. Bratton, of the rectorate of St. Mary's School.

Great pressure was brought to bear on this distinguished gentleman to remain at Spartanburg, S. C., where his brilliant gifts were so highly esteemed by the citizens of that city and State, and no little anxiety has been felt here lest he might be prevailed upon to decline the election to St. Mary's. The result of his decision will cause great enthusiasm among the friends of that time-honored institution and St. Mary's under his energetic leadership and direction is destined to continue as it has always been one of the greatest educational factors for young women in the South.

BEAUTIFUL SUNDAY MARRIAGE.

Sunday evening at one o'clock at the residence of Mr. Geo. W. Mitchell, 322 South Person street, quite a number of invited friends assembled to witness the marriage of Mr. Walter G. Mitchell and Miss Agnes Hodge.

The Rev. A. M. Simms, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle in a very impressive manner performed the ceremony.

After receiving congratulations from their many friends the bride and groom, accompanied by a few friends, left for their future home, about seven miles in the country.

A. & M. TRUSTEES

Body Will Meet This Evening.

THE PRESIDENCY

Some of the Trustees Opposed to Electing any President Just Now—Reorganization Committee.

This afternoon at five o'clock the body of trustees of the A. and M. College will meet at the college. This meeting is looked forward to with the keen interest by the people of the State since Col. Holladay has expressed his desire to retire from the presidency and his successor will be chosen. This important election, however, will hardly take place before tomorrow or Wednesday.

But two names are now prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency, Mr. W. S. Primrose of this city, and Mr. George Winston, President of the University of Texas. The sentiment of the people of Raleigh and the friends of the school in this section seems to be practically unanimous in favor of Mr. Primrose, since they believe that he is most thoroughly familiar with and sympathizes most intelligently with the purpose for which the institution was established. They believe that he would bring to the college just the progressive and business like administration which the institution needs.

While the citizens of Raleigh are almost a unit for Mr. Primrose, the students at the college are overwhelmingly in favor of Dr. Winston.

A mass meeting of the students who room at college, was held last Saturday night to decide what request to make of the trustees regarding athletics. Trustees Clark and Bonitz were present. Senior O'Kelly Myers presided. However, after discussing the matter of athletics, Senior Mark Squires introduced resolutions that a committee be appointed to memorialize the trustees to elect Dr. Winston president. Mr. Clark and Mr. Bonitz advised the young men not to memorialize the trustees of any matter but the resolution was unanimously passed and a committee appointed, headed by Mr. Squires. The opposition to Mr. Primrose among the students is attributed solely to the fact that he is said to have opposed too much time being devoted to athletic games. Neither the favor nor the opposition of the students will be apt to cut any figures with the trustees, nearly all of whom have unhesitatingly decided who they will vote for before they arrive here.

REORGANIZATION COMMITTEE.

The reorganization committee composed of Messrs. Primrose, Peelle, Smith, Fries and Leazar were in session all the morning. The textile school and other matters were discussed but nothing definitely decided.

MAY RECINO.

It is said now that there is no probability of the trustees adopting the committee's recommendation for consolidating the horticultural department under Prof. Massoy and the experiment farm and Prof. Emery. The departments will remain as they are now.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Some of the trustees are opposed to electing any president at this time, but desire instead to choose a chairman of the faculty and divide the duties of president between this chairman of the faculty and the chairman of the board of trustees.

THE ALUMNI ORATION.

The alumni address at the A. and M. College this year promises to be one of unusual interest. Mr. Asbury, who delivers it, is one of the brightest young men whom the college has sent forth. He is already favorably known to the Raleigh public, having been for several years after graduation connected with the chemical department of the college.

Tuesday night 8:30—Commencement address by President H. S. Hartzo, of Clemson College, S. C.

Wednesday, 11 a. m.—Commencement exercises. Address by graduates. Confering of diplomas, reading of Honor Rolls.

Wednesday evening—Reception by President and Faculty.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the alumni association of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts will be held in the college chapel tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Business of a vital nature will be transacted and all members are earnestly urged to be present and participate.

C. B. WILLIAMS, President.

HUGH W. PRIMROSE, Secretary.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Mr. D. T. Moore discovers Two Men Trying to Enter His Home.

About one o'clock Saturday night Mr. D. T. Moore, who was sitting in a chair resting although he had prepared to retire, heard a slight noise. He thought it came from Capt. Denison's yard, adjoining Mr. Moore's place. However, he took his pistol and crept to the window. The slats were turned, but he did not notice any one until he threw open the blinds when he was brought face to face with two men, one of whom was preparing to enter the window. The fellow tumbled to the ground and ran. His companion also ran. Mr. Moore fired at them several times.

THE AMERICANS

ARE HAMPERED

The Campaign in Philippines Difficult.

LIEUT. WADAK CUT OFF

Lieut. Gibbs Rushed to Wadak's Rescue and Routed the Rebels—China.

nen Desert—American's Burn Their Supply Wagons.

MANILA, June 5.—Two battalions of the Washington troops, under Col. Whalley, towed from Pasig to Morong on Sunday, and landed under cover of a well directed fire from the tin clad army gun boats "Napidan" and "Cavadonga." The rebels were entrenched on the outskirts of the town and reserved their fire until the troops were ashore in the open. The American artillery opened fire on the insurgents and drove them from their position, killing nine and wounding five.

The Washington troops today took the town, the rebels fleeing to the hills. While the Americans were on their way to Morong, the insurgents opened fire from the shore batteries at Ansona, their shot striking the "Cavadonga's" awning aft at a range of thirty-five hundred yards. The "Napidan" was also fired at.

INSURGENTS ESCAPE.

Several escapes of the insurgents through the lines were reported during the night. The unevenness of the country prevents the maintenance of a complete cordon of troops.

The Hatoos Hailey wires have been cut continually and were finally abandoned, communication is kept up, however, via Pasig the roughest country traversed by the Americans in the vicinity of Antipolo. Transportation over it is impossible and even the signal service wagons were abandoned.

HEROIC DEED.

Five Chinamen deserted the signal service yesterday. Remaining ones are unable to carry wires and Sergeant Wadak, with a wire repairing party, was cut off behind the lines. Lieut. Wadak and a handful of men rushed to Wadak's rescue and routed the enemy, who had cut the wires. Lieut. Wadak, with a battery from the first artillery, was unable to proceed, owing to the impassable conditions of the country, and was compelled to burn his wagon together with artillery and ammunition, to prevent it from falling into the hands of the enemy. Fighting is lively all along the line.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Mr. W. A. Myatt and His Son James Hurt at the Ice Factory.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Myatt, and their little son James, rode to the ice factory where they intended to get some ice. James got out of the buggy and went to the side door where he fell down the slide into the factory. Mr. Myatt ran to his assistance and fell in after him. The workmen at the factory succeeded in getting them out, but both were painfully hurt. Little James' arm was broken below the elbow. Mr. Myatt's shoulder was dislocated and his leg hurt. He suffered greatly last night and Dr. McKee was with him most of the night.

THE EXCURSION TOMORROW

It Will Carry a Tremendous Crowd—a Delightful time

Ho! for the Delaware Excursion, leaving Raleigh Union station tomorrow at 6 a. m. sharp, only $1.50 for the round trip; children from 6 to 12 half fare. Mr. W. A. Horton, manager of the excursion, has just shown us one of the most attractive programs we have ever seen for an excursion and basket picnic. Let everybody place a tag on their baskets and put them in the baggage car where they will be taken care of and not take up any room in the coaches. A competent man will be in charge of the car and no one need have any fear about the safety of their baskets.

Everybody and all your friends will be there so come, on and take a day of pleasure, such as has never been offered you before. A string band from Norfolk will furnish music for dancing and the S. A. L. Brass Band from Portsmouth will also furnish music for the occasion.

Plenty of mineral water in the park, numerous swings of the latest pattern in the park. Flowers and beautiful mountains all over the grounds. Good places for fishing in the river with hooks and lines and other amusements, too numerous to mention. Let everybody be on hand promptly as the train will have exactly at 6 o'clock.

The S. A. L. Ticket office will be kept open until 10 o'clock tonight at the Yarbrough house so as to furnish tickets to those who will attend and also to avoid any delay in the train by waiting for people to get their tickets. The program of amusements and dancing far exceeds anything we have seen for such occasions.

Let all come with us and enjoy the only cheap excursion and basket picnic of the season.

SERIOUS DISTURBANCE.

BELFAST, June 5.—A serious disturbance occurred today at the nationalist demonstration on the celebration of the rebellion of '98, and the counter demonstration by the anti-nationalists. Eight hundred soldiers charged the mob with bayonets.

A NOTABLE SABBATH

Baccalaureate Sermon by Rev. J. A. McKelway.

BISHOP DUNCAN PREACHES

Two Excellent Sermons—Rev. Dr. Penick at Presbyterian Church—Large Congregations Yesterday.

Last evening the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class of the A. and M. College was preached in the college chapel by Rev. J. A. McKelway, editor of the Presbyterian Standard, of Charlotte. The chapel was completely filled.

Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel opened the service with prayer and President Holladay introduced Mr. McKelway. The music was furnished by the choir of the Presbyterian church. A beautiful solo was rendered by Miss Josephine Mitchell.

Rev. Mr. McKelway chose as his text "For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things, but seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow." Mr. McKelway said that there were three centers of thought—the home, the college and the world. In the home the boys wants are anticipated and supplied by others, while the college is as the first try their wings before attempting the final flight in the world. The man who is worried and troubled over the question of food and clothes for the morrow shows less faith than the wild beast. God is to be trusted for these things.

Christ's birth one man ruled the world with autocratic sway; the lives of Christ and Seneca, as portrayed by their contemporaries exhibit glaring immortality; the marriage bond was lightly held until Christ taught the proper conception of woman. Christ's Kingdom has grown from a mustard seed to a tree, but it is not yet fully developed. Wrongs still exist which God needs to right. In closing Mr. McKelway read Edward Mark's beautiful poem: "The Man With the Hoe," and said that the love of Christ answered the questions asked, Christ's love alone could give "the upward looking and the light," "rebuild in it the music and the dream."

BISHOP DUNCAN.

Bishop Duncan occupied the pulpit both morning and evening yesterday at the Edenton street Methodist church and preached two excellent sermons to large congregations.

In the morning his text was from Matthew chapter 10, verse 27: "He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me." Bishop Duncan showed the importance of placing love for Christ first.

This is necessary for man to succeed. He told what the church could accomplish with the wealth of the world. Recent events have opened up new territory to the gospel.

In the evening the Bishop's text was John 3rd chapter, 17 verse: "God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved."

In this discourse the Bishop emphasized the church's mission to save sinners no matter who they are.

God is a God of love. Any other idea is erroneous. He showed the worthlessness of a Christian life which did not seek to save sinners.

DR. PENICK'S SERMON.

Rev. Dr. Penick, of Lexington, Virginia, preached yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian church. His subject was the "Book of Life." It was a splendid sermon and was frequently commented on in the streets today. At night no service was held at this church.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The services at the Christian church yesterday were full of interest. The special services continued with increasing interest and Rev. J. L. Foster, the pastor, preached two excellent sermons. Three new scholars were reported in Sunday school, three joined the church and eight professed faith in Christ during the service.

The services at the other churches were unusually interesting and largely attended.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

The Summer School for teachers will open at Chapel Hill on June 20th, and close July 15th. The instructors are from the best talent in the University. Others from the leading city schools and State Normal College. Some are from the Peabody Normal, Washington and Lee, Maryland Normal School and Columbia College, N. Y. The instruction will include every branch of study taught in primary schools, high schools and academies. Besides these the lectures in Botany, Physiology, Elocution, Physics, Electricity and Biology, illustrated upon the black board and by experiment will be worth the expense of attending. Railroad fare will be reduced and board cheap.

A DEN OF THIEVES

Mayor Powell Handles a Hard Crowd.

ROBBED TWO HOUSES

Mr. William Harris' Residence Rifled While He is in the Pest House—Watch Stolen Also.

Mayor Powell had three grand thieves before him this morning in the persons of Reuben Price, John Gibson and Timothy Williams, all colored. There were all charged with larceny and house-breaking while Gibson had also to answer for the larceny of a watch.

The first charge was for breaking into Frazier and Augman's store on Main street, in the Foyke building, on the night of May 24 and stealing a quantity of clothing and other articles. They gained an entrance into the store by breaking the lock on the door. The goods stolen amounted to about $20.

Intoxicated by their success they repeated their house breaking manoeuvres on the night of May 31st. This time it was the residence of Mr. William Harris on east Davie street. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are still detained at the hospital east of the city. This time they broke a window and carried away clothing and other articles valued at about $17.

In the above cases the defendants were all bound over to court in the sum of a $150 bond in first and $50 in the second for each defendant.

In the third John Gibson was charged with the larceny of a watch from D. W. C. Harris. He was also bound over in this under a $20 bond. Of course none of them gave bond.

DEATH OF MRS. V. C. AYER.

Died at home here last night at 12:20 o'clock, Mrs. Virginia Carolina Ayer, widow of Henry W. Ayer, aged 58 years, 4 months and 15 days.

Mrs. Ayer was the daughter of Mr. J. and Mrs. Nancy Morris and was born at Morrisville, N. C., Jan. 20, 1841.

She was married May 28th, 1862 to Henry W. Ayer, son of General Henry W. Ayer, of Fayetteville, and was widowed by the loss of her husband in the battle of Ream's Station, Aug. 25th, 1864.

Besides this sacrifice to the Confederacy she lost a loved brother, Joseph Morris, in the battle of Manassas. This death was the result of a wound which lasted a weary while, during which she nursed him in camp hospitals, with only such care and tenderness as a gentle, loving, yet strong woman is capable. One sister and three brothers survive her. They are Mrs. Sallie W. Bouman, of Clarendon, Texas; A. J. Morris, of Morrisville, N. C.; J. M. Morris, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; and W. H. Morris, now residing near Raleigh.

Two sons sustain what is to them a loss that nothing can replace. They are Hal W. Ayer and Dr. J. M. Ayer both of Raleigh.
