THE LEADER IN THE NEWS AND IN CITY CIRCULATION.

THURSDAY JUNE 15, 1899

HOME FACTORIES.

What an elegant place Raleigh is to live at. What a cheerful, hospitable, congenial community of citizens she has. What an abundance of unemployed capital her citizens are possessed of. What promising opportunities our beautiful city affords for development of small manufacturing industries. What large amounts of money our merchants pay out to New England factories for necessities manufactured from North Carolina iron, cedar,ypress, ash, hickory and walnut timber. Is it not well worth a few moments careful consideration of all these things? Why does not Raleigh capital manufacture all the tubs, buckets, wash boards, bread trays, rolling pins, butter stamps, clothes pins, and such domestic articles? Why are not hubs, spokes, felloes, hounds, shafts, tongues and other parts of the farm wagon manufactured here in sufficient quantity to supply the State? Why is Eastern Carolina's great supply of yew and cedar, our western mountains product of ash, hickory, cherry and walnut timbers shipped to New England factories to be manufactured into useful articles to be sent back here for sale? It does not require millions of capital to start these small manufacturing industries, but there is millions in them. Let this matter work its way into the business man's mind and loosen the string to his purse strings.

How terrible and awful are the physical manifestations of nature's wrath, and how insignificant are man's accomplishments and strength when cyclonic elemental disturbances occur. What overpowering awe it is to those who escape from angry whirlwinds. A battle of a whole day's duration with all the improved implements of death seldom cause such loss of life and destruction of property as the terrible Wisconsin cyclone did in a few moments. How thankful should we be that we have escaped the visitation of these dangerous cyclones, so frequent in the Western States. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the survivors of the Wisconsin town of New Richmond.

Governor Bradley, of Kentucky, has about as ugly a guerrilla war on hand as has President McKinley in the Philippines. If Governor Bradley would try embalmed beef on the belligerents he might get them.

Newbern has organized a Chamber of Commerce and no doubt one of its first really important act will be the erection of an auditorium upon the plan of that of Raleigh.

The Wilmington counterfeiting cases are assuming quite a sensational shape. The confession begun, like a continued story broke off short yesterday at that point where "The villain still pursued her."

Marion L. Davis, of North Carolina, passed a successful examination yesterday and was admitted to the West Point Military Academy.

There will be no shortening in the crust of the pie trust.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at all drug stores.

There were five graduates from the Hannah Moore Academy, at Reisterstown, Md., yesterday, one of whom was Miss Swan Drake Wells, of North Carolina.

G. D. Ellsworth, A. M. and D. B. Terry of North Carolina are among the names of graduates from the Georgetown University with degree of Master of Laws.

Senator Allison intimates that the West wants the Republican vice-presidential nomination next time. But there has been nothing said by the West wanting to nominate Allison. Allison wants it.

And now Bridgeport, Connecticut, wants to join the gang and get into the lynching band wagon. Now Vermont is to be heard from.

Georgia women are contemplating the arming of their sisterhood who live in the remote country districts.

Be careful, do not let favoritism for any particular man cause you to do an injury to the A. and M. College.

VIRTUES OF MUTTON TALLOW.

It is refreshing to learn from Mme. Patti, through the medium of the Ladies' Home Journal, that her infallible system of preserving her complexion and avoiding wrinkles is the liberal use of mutton tallow. Thus we are returning to the wisdom of our grandmothers. There has never been any doubt in our minds that the longevity and beauty of our female ancestors were directly attributable to mutton tallow, which not only gave the creamiest complexions, but arrested croup, lung fever, bronchial troubles and other trials of a Puritan winter. Indeed, we have it from a member of Admiral Dewey's family that when George was a little boy in Vermont he never went to bed in the cold nights of winter until his little nose was thoroughly greased with mutton tallow. To this treatment more than anything else he acknowledges his ability to "smell the battle afar off." The sooner we renounce all the high-sounding recipes of our foolish generation and return to the sweet simplicity of mutton tallow, the sooner we shall see men and women as of old, notable for their valor and conspicuous for their blooming beauty.—Chicago Post.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cococut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. A STRAWBERRY STORY.

Capt. P. B. Thompson purchased two or three gallons of strawberries the other day of a man from Garrard county. They were, without doubt, the largest berries that have been sold here this season—the smallest being as large as a pea egg. They were so large that it was necessary to slice them up before serving. When one of the largest was cut open a full-grown mouse jumped out, scaring the cook until she almost fainted.—Harrodsbury (Ky.) Democrat.

"Want of Watchfulness Makes the Thief."

Many cases of poor health come from want of watchfulness. But if you keep your blood pure no thief can steal your health. The one effective, natural blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Disordered Blood— "My father has long been troubled with disordered blood and weak back. Hood's Sarsaparilla made him strong and healthy; he works every day." A. S. Wykes, S. Easton, Pa.

Humor— "When I need a blood purifier I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cured my humor and is excellent as a nerve tonic." Josie Eaton, Stafford Springs, Ct.

ONE OF THE MANY Testimonials as to the efficacy of SIMPSON'S EZEMA OINTMENT

NASAL CATARRH.

Mr. Wm. SIMPSON, DEAR SIR:—You know I thought my wife incurable, having suffered long of Catarrh, roaring of the head, and bronchial trouble. Tried several physicians with little or no benefit, but since using your Catarrh Remedy she is almost perfectly well. I can safely say that it is the best remedy for Catarrh and other cases of like nature known to me, and I wish every sufferer of such troubles knew of its efficacy. I shall not fail to keep it in my house. Respectfully, A. M. PAGK
