

THE TIMES-VISITOR

NUMBER 8,905.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 21, 1899.

25 CENTS A MONTH.

TEACHERS ELECTED

Raleigh School Committee Met.

WHITE TEACHERS RE-ELECTED

The $50,000 School Bonds will Bear Five Per Cent—Juniors of the Various Schools Chosen.

The committee of Raleigh township held an important meeting last evening. The members of the committee are Mayor Powell, ex-officio chairman, G. Rosenthal, H. O. Burton, Garland Jones, Dr. R. H. Lewis, A. A. Thompson and J. W. Bailey.

The committee arranged for the issue of the $50,000 in school bonds. These bonds will bear five per cent. The act is so worded that the committee could not issue bonds bearing a rate less than 5 or more than 6 per cent, else the committee would have made them 4 1/2 or 4 per cent.

Another matter was the election of teachers. Prof. E. P. Moses was unanimously re-elected superintendent and all the white teachers were re-elected. They are as follows:

Mrs. J. M. Barbee, principal of Centennial school.

Miss Eliza A. Pool, principal of the Murphy.

Teachers—Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Terrell, Misses Redford, Fleming, Bellamy, Hiddle, Royster, Mills, Kirby, Skinner, Carter, Weir, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Sherwood, Misses Strong, Devens, Womble, Hicks, Bates, Marsh, Standwick, McLaee, Pescoe, Waitt and Wat-aker.

COLORED SCHOOLS.

C. N. Hunter, principal of Garfield.

L. B. Capehart, principal of Washington.

J. H. Branch, principal of Watson.

Theo. L. Williams, principal of Oberlin.

Teachers—Mrs. Lightner, Ricardson, King, Ida Mitchell, L. M. Hunter, Branch Peace, O'Kelly and Misses Nichols, Rogers, Burwell, Hyler, Tanner, Birdsall, E. C. Mitchell, Love, Whitaker and Prof. J. W. Legon.

JANITORS.

W. W. Ferrall at Centennial.

J. L. Pott at Murphy.

William Whitaker at Washington.

H. C. Putney, at Wiley.

Willis Haywood at Washington.

Kate Thornton at Oberlin.

BURIED BY COAL.

A Miner Entombed for Three Days Still Alive.

WILKESBARRE, June 21.—Hundreds of tons of coal shut Ignatz, Cosmo, a miner in a living tomb. He was caught Monday morning in the Gayford Colliery. Since then three shifts of men have been working night and day for his release. Their success is more than doubtful. The rescuing party works in constant danger as the roof of the mine is working. Cosmo is still alive and gives signals by knocking against the wall.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY LEAVES ROLYOKE.

HOLYOKE, June 21.—President McKinley left here this morning for South Holyoke, where he boarded the steamer "Mascot." He was met by the reception committee from Springfield and made the trip down the river to that city.

GORMAN ILL.

Maryland's Ex-Senator in a Serious Condition.

LAUREL, MD., June 21.—Ex-Senator Arthur P. Gorman is very sick, and as soon as he can travel he will go to some northern summer resort, and not return to Maryland until the middle of October. He is suffering from a liver trouble. He has not been well since he went to New York to confer with the Tammany leaders and friends. He declares that he will manage the State campaign from a distance.

ON TO MOREHEAD CITY.

The Atlantic and North Carolina railroad will run a train Saturday evening, the 24th to connect with Southern Railway train, No. 19, leaving Raleigh at 3:20 p. m., arriving Morehead City about 8 o'clock. Week end tickets on sale $3.50 for the round trip. Good returning until Tuesday.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSIONS.

On account of above occasion, the Southern Railway will sell round trip first-class tickets to all points east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers at rate of one and one-third first-class fare for round trip. Tickets on sale July 2, 3 and 4; final limit, July 7, 1899.

MARRIAGE.

The following invitations has been received here:

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Thomson request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Stella,

to

Mr. Robert Dickson Wescott, Wednesday afternoon, June twenty-eighth, at three o'clock, Saint John's Church, Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Mr. Wescott has visited Raleigh often. He was a student at Wake Forest a few years since.

WHEATON RETURNS

A Rival of Aguinaldo Found in Prison at Dasmariñas.

MANILA, June 21.—General Wheaton today withdrew from Perez Dasmariñas and returned to Inus. The Americans have many prisoners taken in the last few days. A number of captured soldiers were dressed in white costumes. Amigos Articho, rival of Aguinaldo, who has been in prison since June of last year was discovered at Dasmariñas.

COUNT BOUGHT.

Fellow Who Tried to Fight Street Cars.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., June 21.—"Count" Vanness, who has been holding up Scotch Plains' extension of the Plainfield street railway for the past fortnight by building a shanty on the route and planting a cannon with which to repel the invasion of trolley workmen, was evacuated from his position last night, by agreeing with the company. It is understood he received fifteen hundred dollars.

WESTERN TORNADO.

OCONTO, WIS., June 21.—A tornado last night did much damage in the vicinity, alarming the residents greatly, but none were injured. Buildings were destroyed. At Couillardville, Pensaukee and broke which was on the side path of the storm.

GILBERT GIVES UP

Mr. William Jordan of Greensboro Arrives and will Run the Carrollton.

The jury in the suit of Mr. O. J. Carroll and others against Mr. Gilbert, lessee of the Carrollton, decided in the plaintiff's favor. Mr. Gilbert was unable to give the $2,000 bond required for appeal so he today surrendered his lease.

Mr. Will Jordan, who for twelve years has had charge of the McAndo at Greensboro, has signed a contract with Mr. Carroll to conduct the hotel and he arrived today to take charge. He is an experienced hotel man and will make the place a great success.

ATTACK NEGROES

Assault on Imported Colored Minors.

EVANSVILLE, IND., June 21.—The miners strike assumed a serious aspect this morning. The operators in the Sunnyside mine had imported thirty negro miners from Kentucky, and were delivering them at the mines at 1:30 this morning when a crowd, concealed in the bushes, opened fire. It was very dark and the negroes stampeded.

Six men were badly wounded. James Moore, a stockholder of the mine, was shot in the back. Edward Gelger, a merchant and four negroes were badly wounded. There are hopes for the recovery of Moore.

SERIOUS RIOT.

BUCHARREST, June 21.—There was serious rioting at Slatina where the peasantry, armed with sticks, stones, and revolvers attacked and wounded several persons. The troops were called out to restore order. The soldiers fired on the mob, killing some of the rioters and wounding others.

BOURGOIS FAILED.

PARIS, June 21.—M. Bourgeois, arrived this morning. After conferring with the president Bourgeois called on M. Brisson and other political friends. It is announced later he declined forming the cabinet. Delcasse will now probably be asked to form a cabinet.

CONFERENCE.

Sunday School Workers Leave for Oxford Tomorrow.

Among those who will leave tomorrow for Oxford to attend the Sunday conference of the M. E. church, South, which will be held there June 23rd and 24th. John W. Moore is president. Dr. C. D. H. Fort vice president and Rev. R. C. Gully secretary.

Among those who will leave tomorrow are Mrs. Mamie D. Terrell, Miss Annie Love and Mr. D. A. Pearce of the Central church; Miss Gertrude Royster, Miss Ella McGee and Mr. W. J. Young, Jr., from Education street and others.

The program is as follows: Thursday night, June 22nd.—Our Work in Life a Divine Mission. Rev. A. McCullen.

Friday Morning.—9:00 Devotional Exercises. Song Service. Address of welcome. Enrollment and Organization. Music. Review of the Work, by the president. Who is Responsible for the Success of the Sunday School? Sidney Hinton. Education street and others.

Sabbath School Music. Rev. E. C. Glenn, and Miss Annie Strickland.

The Social Side of Sunday School Work. Miss Gertrude Royster.

Song Service. Address—A Little Child. Rev. R. H. Whitaker.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON. Devotional Exercises. Song Service. Primary Work and Primary Literature. D. A. Pearce.

The Library—Its Selection, Influence and Results. Mrs. Mamie B. Terrell.

How Can we Induce the Children to Prepare their Lessons? General discussion by all teachers.

Pastors and Superintendents—Their Relation. Geo. S. Baker and Rev. R. H. Whitaker.

Song Service. Systematic Grading of Classes. General Discussion by all Superintendents. Our Organ. Rev. R. C. Gully.

FRIDAY NIGHT. 8:30. Address. Rev. E. C. Glenn.

SAVING-DAY MORNING, JUNE 24. 9:00.—Devotional Exercises. Song Service.

What Qualifications are Necessary to Make a Successful Sunday School Teacher? Rev. B. C. Allred and Mrs. Kate Beckwith.

Mission Sunday—Or What can the Sunday School do for Missions? Rev. T. N. Ivey.

How Can we Interest the Older People? L. H. Woodall.

Song Service. The Moral Value of a Good Sunday School to Any Community. J. P. Hunt and D. N. Hunt.

The Collection. Importance of W. J. Young, Jr., and Rev. R. C. Gully. Election of Officers and Selection of Place for next Conference.

SUNDAY MORNING. 11:00.—Sermon. Rev. T. N. Ivey.

AFTERNOON

MARRIAGE

Miss Saunders and Mr. Denson Wed.

CEREMONY IN CHRIST CHURCH

Numerous Friends Witnessed the Ceremony Performed by Dr. Marshall in Christ Episcopal Church.

This afternoon at three o'clock a crowd, which was limited only by the capacity of Christ church, witnessed the ceremony which united Miss Jane Claudia Saunders to Mr. Lee Armistead Denson in the sacred bonds of marriage.

The beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal church was used by Rev. Dr. M. Marshall.

The ushers, Messrs. John C. James, of Wilmington, Perrin Busbee, H. E. Litchford and Samuel Hinsdale, enter by the two center aisles.

The ushers preceded the bridesmaids, Miss Catherine Denson and Miss Mary Denson, sisters of the groom, who entered, each from one of the two center aisles. The bride's maids wore spotless organdies and carried a cluster of white roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Mamie Cowper, attired in a white organdie, was followed by the bride, leaning upon the arm of her father, Colonel William J. Saunders, who gave her away at the altar. The bride was clad in a bluish gray traveling gown, with white hat and carried a cluster of bridal roses.

The groom and his brother, Mr. T. C. Denson, the best man, entered from the side aisle.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party went to the Union station where Mr. and Mrs. Denson left for Asheville and other points west before reaching Mr. Denson's home in Meridian, Miss.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

Mr. Lee Armistead Denson, the groom, is the son of Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson and spent his youth in Raleigh. Since he entered the service of the government his promotion has been rapid. He is director of the meteorological bureau of the State of Mississippi, with headquarters at Meridian.

Miss Saunders is the youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Saunders. She comes from a family which has ever been prominent in the history of North Carolina, from the stirring scenes of the revolution in which her forefathers were leaders to the civil contest in which her father fought so bravely. Her loss to Raleigh is keenly felt but there is consolation in the fact that the fortunate groom is a former citizen of Raleigh and one in whom this city takes especial pride.

WALKING DIVINE

Rev. J. C. Norman an Ambolistic Evangelist Preaches Here Tonight.

Rev. J. C. Norman arrived in the city this morning having walked all the way from Sanford. Mr. Norman stated to the Times-Visitor that he would preach tonight from the corner of Wilmington and Davie streets at 8 o'clock.

In the course of an interesting interview Mr. Norman stated that he began preaching in Kentucky, his native State. He is a graduate of Warren College, Kentucky.

"During the past 6 years 5 months I have walked 20,000 miles preaching the gospel," said Mr. Norman.

"Do you walk because the Bible enjoins it?" the reporter asked.

"Yes, the command was to walk. That is what saint Paul did. I preach the simple Bible and have no denomination. No, I am not a sanctificationist in the modern sense but I believe we can live a sinless life. This I claim to do myself."

"St. Paul traveled by boat," interposed the reporter, "and you do not object to that mode of conveyance?"

"Yes, I am willing to travel by boat," Mr. Norman when asked if lack of faith prevented him from walking on the water as St. Peter did replied, "My young friend it does not matter to us who made the devil and the foreign nations."

Mr. Norman is a most interesting talker and his sermons will be enjoyed.

HOTEL BURNED

Woman Perished in the Flames—Narrow Escapes.

GEWEGO, June 21.—The Eagle hotel was burned at five this morning. Mrs. Rachel King, an aged living at New Haven, in this county, lost her life by suffocation and eight others were seriously injured. An employee started a fire in the kitchen by using kerosene then left to attend the horses and on his return he discovered that the kindling around the stove had caught. The flames spread quickly and the guests narrowly escaped. Several, including the proprietor and his wife jumped from the windows of the second floor.

AT THE HAGUE.

Russia's Plan is Now Before the Conference.

THE HAGUE, June 21.—The first committee of the peace conference, will examine tomorrow the first clause of the Russian circular concerning the non-increase of the military strength of the various powers and the diminution in future of these forces, and a decrease of the military budgets. It seems that the Czar ordered his delegates to press the matter with all possible expedition, Russia offering if necessary to withdraw her new naval building scheme. It is probable that Russia will tomorrow submit her plan for decreasing the general military strength.

Fair, Slightly Cooler.

For Raleigh and vicinity: Fair, slightly cooler tonight and Thursday.

The storm yesterday over the Lakes has moved off to the north Atlantic coast and is followed by slightly cooler weather in the Lake region and upper Ohio valley. A more extensive storm exists on the middle Rocky Mountain slope, with rain in Nebraska and the Dakotas. Throughout the south the weather continues warm and clear.

Pullen Park Notes.

The first appearance last night of the colored minstrels at the Pavilion was greeted with an audience of 500 people, of Raleigh's best citizens, both male and female. The ladies especially enjoyed the cake walk, which was ludicrous to an amusing degree. The singing and music were well executed and showed previous training. The best of order was maintained, and the myriad of electric lights distributed through the park made that place almost as light as day. The concert will be repeated again one night this week.

The swimming pool is running on schedule time these sultry days.

RALEIGH STOCK MARKET.

QUOTED BY GRIMES AND VASS.

RALEIGH, June 21, 1899.

BONDS.

North Carolina 6s Bid. 1.30

North Carolina 4s 110 1/2

City of Raleigh 6s 110

Seaboard & Roanoke 5s 110 1/2

Ga Southern & Florida 5s 110 1/2

Southern Ry. 1st 5s 110 1/2

Atlanta & Charlotte 7s 120 1/2

Wake County 5 1/2 110

W. N. C. R. R. 1st 6s 122 1/2

Ga. & Ala. Pref. 5s 104 1/2

Consols 104 1/2

Ga. Car. & North. 1st 5s 103 1/2

Carolina Control 4s 104 1/2

Ral. Water Co. 6s 105

Eno Cotton Mill 6s 106

Seaboard & Roanoke 6s 113