NOT TOO MUCH.

(Communicated.)

Much has been said of the musical and lawn party to be given by the Pl Division of the Kalapaideuses at Mrs. Heck's Thursday night, but it is impos-sible to say too much. Do Raleigh peo-ple love good music? We think so. Will they appreciate a brilliant electric dis-play of music on the lawn and daintly served refreshments? If so too much served refreshments? If so too much cannot be said to insure their participa-tion in the pleasures of this memorable evening. During the entire evening on the brilliantly and uniquely lighted lawn refreshments will be sold and served to the accom nt of delightful music, the players half hidden among the trees. #### TABERNACLE EXCURSION

The Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School is noted far and wide for its delightful annual pic-nic excursions. Their excursion esterday to Norfolk, Old Point and surrounding points was no exception to their former ones. The day was an ideal one for such an occasion and the management was so thorough that everything passed off without a hitch and every one of the great crowd were given a most delightful time.

The run to Portsmouth was made in five hours, an exceptionally splendid run. Upon the arrival of the excursionists the Aurora and the Granite city, Ocean View railway lines, were waiting at the S. A. L. wharf. These were boarded by the excursionists and the water trip started, while the Wright Cornet band discoursed delightful music. The boats steamed to the navy yard where the passengers embarked and both a xzfiflff passengers embarked and took a look at the Reina Mercedes, the captured Spanish cruiser, and other features of interest at the vard.

The party spent half an hour at the yard and then re-embarked. Then the delightful trip to Old Point was made. A pleasant hour was spent at Old Point and then the run back to Norfolk was taken where the time was filled in before train time, and very pleasantly too. The conductors, Messrs. J. M. Broughton, Jo. H. Weathers and J. J. Bernard handled the crowd like old experienced railroad men.

Mr. H. S. Leard, the popular traveling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air 1181 Line was on the trip and gave the party his personal attention.

A refreshment car was run to accommodate those who did not carry their own provisions. This was conducted nost excellent manner by Mr. Furman Betts.

The excursion returned last night 101 about 12:30.
