BRUSH WITH REBELS

The Gunboat Napidan Shelled the Filipinos.

AMERICAN TROOPS LAND

The Filipinos Were Pushed to the Hills After a Running Fight—Two Hundred Strongly Intrenched.

Manila, July 13.—Laguna de Bay will be patrolled by three troops of the Fourth Cavalry and the army gunboat Napidan. The force makes its headquarters at the island, living in cascos, which the men towed about to make unexpected visits to towns, where there were small forces of insurgents for the purpose of keeping the rebels moving. There was an engagement at Manilla Tuesday. Five hundred insurgents were found entrenched. The Napidan shelled them. Part of the American troops landed and had a sharp running fight to the hills, where the insurgents were too strongly entrenched for a small force to attack them. Two cavalrymen were wounded, and the bodies of ten insurgents were found. It is supposed that the enemy's loss was about thirty-five.

TRAINS COLLIDE.

New York, July 13.—A gravel train on the New Jersey Central with a long line of empty cars reached the junction of the main line at the same time as the local express. The signals gave the gravel train the right of way. The engineers of both the trains applied the air brakes. The passenger engineer expected among the train load of commuters who were bound for this city. Some of them jumped from the cars. The engineer of the gravel train deliberately derailed it, thus saving many lives. The locomotive met, but the shock was so slight that none were hurt.

GORMAN'S ILLNESS.

Magnolia, Mass., July 13.—Gorman's illness is not considered serious, thus far his family is taking entire care of him.

TO OFFER AMENDMENTS.

The Hague, July 13.—Several governments represented in the Peace Conference will send amendments to the arbitration scheme. These amendments will chiefly relate to the form drafting exception to those concerning the Dutch proposals. The drafting committee will assemble and prepare drafts for submission to the plenary commission on Monday.

DRY DOCK DAMAGED.

Brooklyn, July 13.—A heavy rain last night badly damaged dry dock No. 2 at the navy yard, and in all probability the dock will not be available for use inside of two years. The bulge is nearly sixty feet long and in width one to four feet.

TAYLOR NOMINATED.

Lexington, Ky., July 13.—General Taylor was nominated by the Republicans by acclamation.

PARALYZED.

London, July 13.—Lady Salisbury suffered a slight stroke of paralysis today.

PAY POSTAGE

No More Bulletins Sent Free by the Government.

The State Agricultural Department must pay postage on the monthly bulletins issued by the Agricultural Department.

It will be remembered that the government transmitted this matter free of charge when the Agricultural Department and Experiment Station were consolidated, but the last Legislature divorced these departments, hence the government rescinds its "free transportation" order.

This is quite an item for the number of bulletins issued is enormous. It was through the efforts of Col. J. C. L. Harris that the Bulletin was placed on the free list before.

DR. SCHENCK DENIES DENIAL.

Vienna, July 13.—Dr. Schenck denied today that he had been consulted as to the treatment of the Czarina, who recently presented the Czar with a girl baby, their third daughter. "I never asked or attempted to practice my theory on the Czarina," he said "or any other royal personage in Europe."

FAIR TONIGHT AND FRIDAY.

For Raleigh and vicinity: Fair tonight and Friday.

The weather is clear and warm throughout the South, with the pressure somewhat above the normal. A moderate depression is evident in the upper Mississippi valley, with cloudy weather in the northwest, and eastward over the Lake region to the north Atlantic coast. A local heavy rainfall of 1.86 inches occurred at Philadelphia. The changes in temperature have been slight.

MORE BAD BEEF

Another Bad Case Detected Today.

CONDEMNED AND BURIED

Negro from Country Brings in Bad Beef Which is Attempted to be Sold by L. A. Bailey—Seized by Inspector McRary.

The importance of a thorough inspection of all the meat brought to the city for sale was again demonstrated this morning.

A negro by the name of Cornelius Chavers, from House's Creek township, brought a whole beef to town which was thoroughly unfit for use, and yet it was offered for sale, but unsuccessfully, owing to the vigilance of Inspector McRary.

The beef was brought to town and left in the wagon at the stall of L. A. Bailey, who runs a beef stall on Hargett street, managed by J. W. Weathers, of recent bad beef fame. Bailey, it is said, offered to sell this bad beef to butcher Daney for 2 cents per pound. Inspector McRary overheard the conversation. Daney went with Bailey to inspect the meat and after seeing its condition refused to purchase it. Inspector McRary followed soon after them and also inspected the meat. He promptly condemned it. He also sent for Dr. James McKee, superintendent of health, who also immediately condemned it and ordered it buried. This was done by Inspector McRary immediately. The negro did not want to give up the beef and asked to be permitted to carry it back to the country and sell it. This was of course refused. He then asked to be permitted to carry it home for his own use. The negro says the cow broke her neck while grazing. It was improperly dressed and in a bad state.

Mr. Nowell, of the meat market of Mr. W. R. Crawford, says that Bailey came to him and tried to sell a part of the beef. He told me, said Mr. Nowell, "that he had a fat beef, badly cut, and wanted to know if I could not use half of it for sausage. I told him no, we were not buying any dressed beef or making any sausage anyway." He did not name any price to me.

It is also stated that Bailey telephoned Sam Woods, in the market, trying to sell to him or get him to sell it. Bailey was seen and said that he was selling the beef for the negro on commission.

Inspector McRary is certainly to be commended for his vigilance over the city's meat supply, and steps should be taken to see that beef is not sold until it is inspected.

Men who offer such beef as that offered today should be severely dealt with.

SUPERIOR COURT.

John Donaldson Sent to the Roads for Five Years.

Court met this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Judge Fred Moore presiding.

The following cases were disposed of: State vs. Walter Daniel, injury to person; verdict: plead guilty; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Maggie Day, assault with deadly weapon; plead guilty; three months county work house.

State vs. T. S. Sears and Willie Caudell, F. and A. Sears plead guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of costs. Defendant recognized until January term of court, 1900, for his good behavior. Nol pros. to Caudell.

State vs. John Donaldson, larceny (two cases); five years at hard labor on the public roads.

State vs. Rufus Yates, assault with deadly weapon; guilty.

Court takes a recess until 3 o'clock.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS OFFERED.

Among the articles donated to be offered as special premiums at the State Fair October 16-21 next, are the following from J. D. Riggan:

For the best hat for a doll, of original design and make, by a girl under 12 years of age (limited to North Carolina), one jointed Kerney doll, of the value of $10. This doll has natural hair and eye-lashes and is more costly and elegant than any heretofore brought to Raleigh.

For the best boat or vessel of any kind, designed and made by a boy under 15 years (limited to North Carolina), one chest of carpenter's tools, of good material and variety, fit for practical use, value, $10.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Mr. Henry Cross and Miss Minnie E. Jones were united in marriage last night at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Forsythe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Glenn. Many of the friends of the happy couple were present and showered congratulations upon them.

ATTENTION! DEGREEE STAFF.

Degree staff of Centre Lodge, K. of P., will please be on hand tonight for practice.

The depot at Wadesboro was burned this morning about 1 o'clock. The fire started in the baggage room of the Atlantic Coast Line.

HONOR THEIR RECTOR

The 25th Anniversary of Dr. Marshall's Rectorship.

SERVICES AT CHRIST CHURCH

Beautiful Tributes to a Pastor Who has Won the Esteem of His Congregation and the People Generally.

Raleigh has certainly been fortunate in having many able and lovable ministers within her gates during her history. Among these is Dr. M. M. Marshall, the beloved rector of Christ Church. For twenty-five years he has ministered to his large and cultured people and during all these years he has enjoyed their esteem and love to a wonderful degree, and today his many excellent and lovable traits holds their devotion.

This esteem and love is not confined to his congregation, nor to the citizens of Raleigh, but extends throughout the State.

These expressions of love by his congregation were manifested last evening when special services were held at Christ Church to celebrate the quarter century rectorship of Dr. Marshall. The grand old church in which so many distinguished North Carolinians have worshipped was filled to overflowing, and most appropriate services were held.

In addition to the many warm words of love and friendship the congregation presented a tangible expression to the beloved rector in the shape of an elegant sterling silver bowl and pitcher made in Japanese design. It was indeed an exquisite vessel, and will bear the following inscription:

Presented to Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., By Members of Christ Church Parish, Raleigh, N. C., In grateful commemoration of twenty-five years of faithful ministrations among them as Priest, Pastor and Friend.

—July 12th—
1874-1899.

July 12th being also Dr. and Mrs. Marshall's wedding anniversary, the waiter will bear the following inscriptional inscription:

M. M. M.
M. S. M.
July 12th,
1866-1899.

CONGRATULATIONS OF THE VESTRY.

The following address was prepared by the vestry of Christ Church and read, viz.:

"Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., Rector of Christ Church:
Reverend and Dear Doctor: The wardens and vestry beg to offer you their heart-felt congratulations upon the occurrence of the twenty-fifth anniversary of your assumption of the rectorship of Christ Church Parish and to express the hope that there lie before us many more years of the same cordial relations between yourself and your people that have existed for the past quarter of a century.

It must be a comfort and gratification to you to feel that in all these years the life of the parish has been undisturbed by strife and bickerings and that peace and good will with mutual affection on both sides have chiefly characterized it.

In the sickness and sorrows which in the course of nature have befallen you since you made your home with us our hearts have gone out in loving sympathy to you and to her who in holy matrimony made this same day the re-rector day of your life's calendar, and now we rejoice with you both in your restored health and in the happy conditions which mark this auspicious occasion.

That God's choicest blessings may ever rest upon you and yours is the sincere prayer of your affectionate friends.

W. H. LEWIS, Senior Warden.
V. E. TURNER, Junior Warden.
CHARLES McKIMMON,
P. E. HINES,
J. I. JOHNSON,
C. M. BUSBEE,
JOHN WARD,
JOHN C. DEWBRY,
C. M. HAWKINS,
CHARLES ROOT,
WILLIAM B. GRIMES,
F. P. HAYWOOD, JR.

After the formal services were over Dr. Marshall gave expressions to his feelings eloquently and affectionately. He spoke of the surprise it was to him as it had all been arranged without his knowledge, but that it came with the greatest pleasure and comfort.

He referred to the kindly and affectionate feelings which have always existed between the congregation and himself. He alluded beautifully to the sunshine and shadow of life.

"It was on the sixth Sunday after Trinity that I preached my first sermon here twenty-five years ago," he said, "and my friends, I tell you from my heart, that I appreciate and treasure this manifestation of your regard and love more than my feeble tongue can tell.

He referred to the presence of Dr. Daniels, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and many of that congregation who were present, and who had omitted their regular prayer meeting in order that they might participate in the services. Dr. Marshall was evidently much touched by this great mark of esteem.

He sketched briefly the changes which had taken place and the growth of the Episcopal Church.

During my pastorate, continued he, there have been 604 baptisms, 413 confirmations, 117 marriages and 436 deaths.

Since I have been occupying this sacred desk more than an average congregation of communicants have passed away to the next world.

Within the time encompassed by the length of my service to this church nineteen ministers of the Gospel who have filled the pulpits of the various churches of Raleigh have been called to their reward.

And I am so grateful to Almighty God that I have been spared and live to speak here tonight in the capacity of such things!

Dr. Marshall added other beautiful thoughts and gave out that grand old hymn "Bless Be the Tie," which was rendered with deep spirit by both choir and congregation.

The Times-Visitor joins in the high esteem and love with which Dr. Marshall is held by all classes and all denominations.

OFF TO THE CONFERENCE.

A number of prominent Methodists left this morning for Lenoir to attend the Raleigh District Conference. Among these were Rev. E. C. Glenn, Mr. W. J. Young, Miss Daisy Young, Mr. Samuel Walker, Mr. T. H. Woodall, Mr. D. A. Pierce, Mr. E. R. Thomas, Mr. F. H. Whitaker, Mr. A. H. Green, Mr. W. W. Cooper, Mr. J. F. Broughton, Mr. C. E. McCullers and Mr. Joe Riddle.

Presiding Elder Gibbs has gone also. Mr. Josephus Daniels and Mr. J. A. Jones also went.

JAIL BIRD CAUGH

Louis Foster, who broke jail at Lenoir five weeks ago, was captured by the police here this morning. Foster admits that he broke jail and further states that he was the only occupant at the time. He was committed to jail in default of payment of a $450 fine for fighting.

THE NOONDAY DELIVERY

Mail of Parties Living Near Corporate Limits Delayed—Postmaster Bailey's Efforts to Remedy the Trouble.

Beginning with today Postmaster C. T. Bailey has resumed the three times a day delivery of letters throughout the business portion of the city by the letter carriers.

Several weeks since this service had to be discontinued, but Postmaster Bailey has now resumed it and there will be a noon delivery again in addition to the one in the morning and afternoon. This excellent plan was inaugurated by Postmaster Bailey, and since the public enjoyed it for awhile it became a necessity. Indeed the business men of the city complained grievously when it was discontinued. Letters would come in the forenoon ordering goods to be mailed on the afternoon trains and the letters would not be delivered until after the afternoon trains had gone.

However, Mr. Bailey was abundantly justified in discontinuing the service because three deliveries a day prevents the carriers from reaching every part of the city twice a day. Mr. Bailey is seriously crippled in giving a satisfactory service here on account of a lack of a sufficiency in the number of carriers. It is true that they try to reach every part of the city early each morning and late in the afternoon, but with three deliveries this seems impossible, and many people on the outskirts of the city, but inside the corporate limits, do not get but one delivery a day, and that in the morning. This has made special delivery stamps a necessity. In fact a letter mailed at the postoffice to some parts of Raleigh at 10 a. m. will not reach the party until the next morning, without a special delivery stamp. The people of Raleigh are entitled to more than this for they can send a letter to Portsmouth and Richmond sooner than they can have one delivered in Raleigh.

However, Mr. Bailey is ever alert to the interests of the public, and the necessity of more carriers is realized by him. The government inspector will be here in a few weeks, and when he sees the situation it is confidently anticipated that his recommendation will embody this necessity. The present force of carriers have more than they can do.

CORPORATION COMMISSION

The Corporation Commission met this morning at 10 o'clock. All the commissioners were present.

The exceptions to the raise in valuation of railroad property was argued by representatives of the various railroads. As we go to press the following have made arguments: For the S. A. L., Capt. J. B. Shaw; for the Atlantic Coast Line, President Warren G. Elliott and R. O. Burton; for the Atlantic and Danville, Alfred P. Thom; for the Southern Railway, Col. W. A. Henderson and Charles Price.

Among the prominent railway men present, besides those who spoke, were Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg; J. R. Kenley, George Rountree, Col. A. B. Andrews, F. H. Busbee, S. L. Dill and Henry W. Miller.

STOLE A BICYCLE.

Caswell Wright, a young white man, was arraigned before Mayor Powell this morning for the larceny of a bicycle belonging to Mr. E. J. Wicker. The bicycle was stolen at Pullen Park last night, and Wright was caught before he could make away with it. The mayor sent him to jail in default of a $50 bond. He will no doubt be tried at the present term of court. Wright does not appear to be sound of mind.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. C. P. Watson, who is noted for his high-class photographic work. He has inaugurated his dull month prices. You can now get a handsome picture at a moderate figure.

Mrs. H. S. Leard left today for South Carolina.

STREET CHATS.

"The management at the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City is the best in its history," said Mr. E. C. Smith yesterday, who with his family have been spending sometime there. "The crowd there is great, but the management is handling it admirably. Everyone is thoroughly pleased and speak in highest terms of the accommodations." He said there were many wealthy persons there who had spent summers at the leading northern resorts and they stated "that under the present management they considered Morehead equal or superior to them."

A prominent citizen said today: "Your article in a recent issue of your paper about the city having a common slaughter house for beef supplied to this market was a revelation and an idea which should be put into operation, and that, too, as early as possible. There is no doubt that Raleigh has a live board of aldermen now and are going to run business on business principles, and I do hope they will take hold of this beef matter at their next meeting. Raleigh is not a village now, but a city of thousands, and as beef is one of the principle food supplies it is essentially necessary that none but clean and healthy beef should be sold, and nothing short of the way outlined in your article will insure this. Let us have the common slaughter house and the government inspector by all means."

"There is one thing that you certainly ought to call attention to," said a progressive citizen. "It is the manner in which the keeper of the capital, or the State authorities are neglecting the sidewalk around the capitol square and the condition of the turfing. The city without any cost to the State paved the sidewalks around the square, leaving a margin at the curbing for a grass plot. Instead of going ahead and having a beautiful plot of grass all around the walks, it has been left alone and presents a rough, bare and disgraceful appearance. Neither has anything been done to turf or sow the lawns which remain bare. I do hope that the State authorities will get a move on themselves and put these things in shape."

"A prophet is not without honor save in his own country." This is not always true said a gentleman today. "I was reminded of this," said he, "by an editorial in the Roxboro Courier, the paper published at the home of Col. John S. Cunningham, the splendid president of the State Fair Association and president of the State Board of Agriculture. In that paper, and the particular editorial to which I refer, the many excellent qualities of Col. Cunningham are set forth, and he is advocated for the next Governor of North Carolina. I am a warm friend of this distinguished son of North Carolina, and I know that he would make one of the best Governors the State has ever had."

"Do you know," said a prominent business man, "that the board of aldermen has one of the best finance committees it has ever had in its history. I believe I will go farther and say that it is the best we have ever had. The committee is running the city's business on business principles—just the proper thing. They are not simply automatons scribbling their names on every bill showing under their nose, but they are looking into items and are knowing the why's and the wherefores—the very course that should have been pursued years ago, and the city would have been thousands of dollars better off. Miller, Jones and Wilder are a trio after my own heart, and I hope they will keep up the good work."

Alderman Crocker in speaking of the recent valuations put on property by the assessors, says: "I have two lots with houses valued for taxation worth $100 of their actual cost. Is this right?"

"That is certainly a good recommendation of Alderman Correll, chairman of the Fire committee, that each of the companies be given an appropriation of $100 per year. If there is any set of men that deserve consideration at the hands of the city and the citizens it is the fire department. Raleigh has certainly one of the best volunteer departments in the United States, or any where for that matter, and the men certainly deserve to have their efforts appreciated. I am glad to see that the department is not going to take any back steps under the management of Mr. Correll. This is one of the most important departments of the city and the recommendations of the able chairman should receive the full consideration of the board."

"The wisdom of the board in selecting Chief Mullins is growing daily," said Mr. W. this morning. "He is making a capital officer and one that the city is proud of. I know, as I have been a close observer."

Mr. Will Dickson, of Wake Forest, was in the city today.

Dr. Skinner returned today from Wake Forest.

Mr. William Carroll returned today from Benning, Pa.

Miss Bertie Dunn returned today from Forestville.

Miss Kate Durham and sister, who have been visiting Mrs. C. Durham left today for Shelby.

Mr. Sam Hanf is quite sick with typhoid fever at his home on Saunders street.

Miss Adelaide Snow left this morning for Wrightsville, N. C.

Mr. Ceburn Harris is quite sick.

Miss Emily Belvin, of Durham, is visiting the family of Mr. A. E. Glenn, on North Blount street.
