HOLINESS DIVINE

Rev. Green Stevens' Wife Indicts Him for Failure to Provide Support.

Squire Barbee had a rather sensational case before him in the court house this morning. The defendant was Rev. Green Stevens, a holiness divine of this city, and he was represented by Mr. H. W. Norris. The action was brought by Mrs. Stevens, wife of the Rev. Stevens, for failure to provide support. Mr. Ryan conducted the prosecution.

Mrs. Stevens' testimony was rich. She claimed that she was trusting in the Lord and He provided her support. "He ain't done a thing in six months 'cept wash one shirt in the wash tub and then he said he was so tired that he just laid down on the flo like er dog."

"He always come to meals 'cept when he had holy spells on him." "Oh, he's got old scratch in him," flashed the witness at Attorney Norris.

The defendant is about 45 years old, dark complexioned with a grey beard. Rev. Green Stevens took the stand and said that he did nothing but travel and preach for six years. He made a good living farming until six years since, when he went to Durham and had charge of four churches until he got in trouble about preaching holiness, and lost his credentials. He depended on his congregation for support. He had been living in Raleigh for four years. He claimed that his wife had been unfaithful.

Rev. Stevens proceeded to deliver a dissertation on how they trusted on the Lord when Mr. Ryan finally asked "May it please your worship, is this man to preach until daybreak, giving us this holiness doctrine?"

"I should like to preach right now," declared Rev. Stevens.

Rev. Stevens admitted that his wife and children worked in the cotton mill here and made a living, while he devoted his time to the "Lord's work," preaching at a church in Middle Creek township.

"Who pays the rent?" asked Mr. Ryan.

"That is taken out of my twelve year old son's wages at the mill," replied the Reverend with satisfaction.

He acknowledged that he kept his wife awake nearly all of one night reading scripture to her and advising her to cheer good while she had worked all the previous day in the cotton mill and his industrial efforts had consisted solely in sweeping the floor the day before. However, he claimed that if his family did not work in the mill he would support them.

Mrs. Stevens said she only wanted the Rev. Stevens presented so that he would stay away and let them make their own living.

The case had not been concluded at 4:30, as this paper goes to press.

REVOLUTION UNDER WAY IN CUBA

Headquarters Opened in Havana—Junta Formed—Branch in Mexico.

Havana, July 18.—The truth regarding the recent proclamation issued in Matanzas shows that a regular revolutionary party has been established with headquarters in Havana, its object being to incite Cubans throughout the entire country. This party has agents in every large city and also a junta in Mexico, one of the agents of which is now here. All this is perfectly well known to the authorities and no manifesto comes off the press without the government receiving a copy of it. Of course, these inflammatory addresses are hurtful to the peace of the country, but it is generally considered that it would work more harm to arrest the leaders of the movement who would undoubtedly pose as martyrs, which is seemingly their desire. Each province has, or will have, an address widely circulated, signed by some prominent name sufficiently common to be borne by many and thus to prevent the accusation of forgery.

One such appeal recently issued in the province of Santiago reads as follows: "With my soul stirred with enthusiasm by your dignified action under the humiliating conditions in which we are placed by the intervening government I raise my voice to you, brave comrades, and obedient soldiers of the immortal Maceo, asking in glorious remembrance of his name, that you again swear you will die on the battlefield before you will live like miserable cowards, yoked and tied, like the disinherited offspring of our forefathers, allowing a perfidious foreign flag to float where our shores should be marked only by the blessed emblem of the Lone Star. You who turned your backs on the vile metal which pretended to pay for the arms which cost so many sacrifices will know how to use them again, should it be necessary, in defence of our just rights, because the great and powerful are small and cowardly when they face justice and truth. I shall always be first to die for you or carry you to glory."

"Your brother and general," "DUANY."

General Maximo Gomez has refused the offer of Quintos de los Molinos as a permanent residence, and has also stated that he will not use the furniture offered him. He has a house in Havana, where he will live with his family, and to which he will bring all his belongings. He wishes it to be generally known that he does not care to accept gifts.

El Diario de la Marina is authority for the statement that the Western Union Telegraph Company intends to lay another cable line to Havana, the cable to run from Miami, by way of Key West. The paper also announces that work on the new line will commence in the fall.

FIRE AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, July 19.—The Congress Park Hotel, the favorite spring building, and two blocks of stores were burned this morning. A number of other hotels narrowly escaped.

STRIKE EXTENDS TO NEW YORK.

Strike Ordered on New York Car Lines.

TWENTY-ONE ARRESTS.

Attempt to Dynamite an Elevated Railway Car—Mob Attacks Motorman in New York City—The Strikers Feel Encouraged.

New York, July 19.—The Brooklyn street car strike extended to New York City this morning.

A grievance committee from the Metropolitan met Master Workman Parsons at his house after midnight and at three o'clock this morning they ordered a strike on all the metropolitan traction company's electric systems. The Manhattan cable cars will still run.

The first car was tied up on the Second Avenue line at the Ninety-six street depot at 3:10 this morning.

A mob captured the car at 5 o'clock and drove off the motorman and took the car three blocks, where it was stopped by obstruction.

A motorman was dragged off the car at Eighth Avenue.

However, only about ten per cent of the men were off at 8 o'clock and the cars were running nearly as usual.

Orders have also been issued for a strike on the Sixth Avenue line and it is claimed therefore that all the Metropolitan cars except the cable line will be tied up before night.

On Wall street the Metropolitan and Brooklyn Rapid Transit stock sold off this morning, but a rally brought prices up to the metropolitan, recovering all but a quarter per cent.

When word was received at police headquarters that the Madison Avenue men were openly threatening that they would abandon their cars at noon, Chief Dewey immediately sent a large force all along the line to arrest any men they saw abandon the cars, under section 625 of the penal code, which relates to the obstruction of highways.

LATER.—So far the strike on the Metropolitan lines is weak, only a few grumblers going out.

President Vreeland says there is no strike. He has no fears of trouble. The main trouble is on Second Avenue, but that, like all the others, is running almost as if nothing had happened. The cable lines are not affected and no conductors on the other lines have struck.

Brooklyn, July 19.—Twenty-one men were arrested today on suspicion of throwing dynamite along the elevated railway on Fifth Avenue early this morning.

The strikers or their sympathizers tried to wreck an elevated structure on Fifth Avenue and Thirty-sixth street with dynamite early this morning. The car hands did it it would not have been so clumsy and the chances are that the effect would have been disastrous. The explosion wrecked two pillars and tore a big hole in the street, but as few cars were passing at that time nobody was hurt. The damage was repaired by 5 o'clock this morning when the regular schedule was resumed.

President Rositer said this morning that the strike was virtually over. The faithful employees of the company are receiving double pay.

The police are still watchful to prevent riotous and mischievous attacks by the strikers.

All hope of a strike on the elevated lines has been abandoned.

Picked Up at Sea By the British Steamer Holbein.

Liverpool, July 16.—A British steamer, the Holbein, Captain Sherlock, which left New York on July 1 for Manchester, and which arrived here today, picked up Capt. William A. Andrews, known as the "Lone Navigator," who left Atlantic City on June 18 in a little craft named the Duree, 12 feet in length, to attempt to cross the Atlantic.

Captain Andrews was found exhausted on July 12 about 700 miles from the Irish coast. His boat was left adrift.

Col. William J. Saunders said this morning that plans were being consummated for a large colonization of farmers from the West and Northwest at Selma and vicinity, in Johnston county. This land is being extensively advertised.

The Southern Railway will soon build a large shed at the junction of the road with the Coast Line.

Messrs. Simmons, Pon & Ward have a large amount of land in Johnston county in charge and from present indications the county is coming rapidly to the front.

"And now," said the artist, "if I could but picture her beautiful voice."

"Won't you a half-tone do?" asked his intimate friend.—Cleveland Leader.

MAY BE LYNCHED.

Excitement in Cherokee Over an Assault—Tramp Captured.

Murphy, N. C., July 19.—A Swedish tramp named Brown attempted an assault on the 16-year-old daughter of E. Russell, near Andrews, N. C., Monday. Brown went to Russell's home and asked for a glass of milk and the young lady gave it to him, she being the only one at home at the time.

She was seized by Brown and badly choked. Her screams brought her mother to her assistance, who seized a gun, but for fear of killing her daughter was prevented from using it.

She ran to the door and screamed for help and fired the gun and attracted the attention of a negro working near by. The negro came to the rescue and took the gun and ran Brown down.

Brown was lodged in Murphy's jail Monday night. A posse of fifty men came to lynch him, but Sheriff Martin had spirited the man away for safe keeping. Excitement is running high and Brown will be lynched if caught.

EARTHQUAKE

Two Shocks a Rome Today Did Considerable Damage

Rome, July 19.—Two shocks of earthquake occurred this afternoon. Considerable damage was done to the central part of the city. Twenty houses were severely damaged. Churches in the suburbs were seriously damaged.

Several church columns were thrown down and a number of persons were injured. No lives were lost.

The Pope was awakened by the first shock and hurried to his garden, greatly alarmed.

PRaise FOR DEWEY.

Vienna, July 19.—The New Free Press publishes an article on the arrival of Admiral Dewey, most emphatically praising the Admiral. Fremdenblatt, in an article on the Philippines, says that Admiral Dewey's victory in Manila bay more y decided the Spanish-American war.

CANNOT WIN.

Cowes, July 19.—Richard Grant, late secretary of the royal yacht squadron, said in an interview today that he liked the appearance of the Shamrock better than he had at first, but did not believe her capable of recapturing the cup, as she should have beaten the Britannia forty minutes.

TWELVE LOST.

Seattle, July 19.—The loss of twelve members of the Elk expedition to Alaska perished in Kotzebue sound is reported.

COTTON.

New York, July 19.—July 56; August 57; September 61; October 72; November 77.

GIRL HANGED.

London, July 19.—Mary Ansell, aged 18, was hanged today for the murder of her sister. She clung to the hope of a reprieve till the last. A fruitless effort was made to secure the influence of the queen in her behalf.

J. L. Kesler, Natural Science.

Mrs. Kate Hayes Kesler, M. A., History and Economics.

Miss Della Dixon, M. D., Physiology and Residential Physician.

CARRIED BACK

Sheriff Moring Takes—Langley to Pitt County

Sheriff Moring of Pitt county came to Raleigh last night and this morning carried Cephus Langley, one of the two negroes confined in the Wake county jail for safe keeping on the charge of murdering a store keeper and burning his store afterwards, back to Greenville with him. Langley professes that he is entirely innocent of the crime and it is supposed that he is carried to Greenville to facilitate the investigation in progress.

The other negro, Elijah Joyner, confined here, admits his guilt and claims that he committed the crime without assistance.

The trial will be held at Greenville, but not until September 18th.

If the negroes had not been brought to Raleigh they would certainly have been lynched and, from recent developments, it seems that in Langley an innocent man would have lost his life.

CLAYTON BANK

Will Start October First—Raleigh Men Largely Interested.

Mr. Charles M. Horne, a prominent young business man of Clayton, is in the city in the interest of the Banking Company of Clayton. The capital stock is $10,000, all of which has been subscribed. McCullers, vice-president; C. M. Thomas, cashier.

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA

The Most Awful Fate of Mrs. Catherine Simmons.

correspondent of the Danbury Reporter, writing from Tulip, Stokes county, tells as follows of the horrible death from hydrophobia of Mrs. Catherine Simmons, an estimable lady of Stokes county:

Three weeks ago she was bitten by a mad dog. The rabid animal was tied in the yard and had wound itself around a bush. Mrs. Simmons went out to relieve the dog from its confinement when it made a leap at her and bit a terrible place on her arm. She was not suspected to be mad, but a madstone was sent for and applied, but alas, the dog had made a deadly leap. She attended preaching at Pine Grove on the first Sunday in this month, but a returning home her arm began to pain. It was hoped that she would not go mad, as several days had elapsed since she was bitten by the rabid animal. Several doctors were sent for, but they would not attend. She constantly grew worse. She sobbered, bit her lips and was terrible strong. She was given a stick to eat. Crowds of people flocked in to see the suffering woman—a horrible sight to look upon. The thought or sight of water or draft of air would cause violent convulsions. She suffered paroxysms of excruciating pain. She said she felt like she could eat her friends and wanted to go to the woods. She was in a contortion of agony.

After five days of unalterable suffering an angel came and sounded the signal of death. She gave two fearful screams and then all was over. Alas, her work is done. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

While in her right mind she expressed bright hopes for the future and said she was willing to die.

SHORT STATEMENTS

Familiar Faces From the Passing Through—Movements of People

You Know—Snatches of Street Gossip Today.

Mrs. Walter Clark and Miss Susie Clark have returned from Morehead.

Mrs. M. T. Norris and Miss Norris are back from Morehead.

Mr. Henry T. Hicks is taking a vacation at Asheville.

Mrs. W. A. Myatt and Miss Loula Myatt have gone to Washington City.

William Johnson, who was arraigned before Mayor Powell yesterday on the charge of assault and was fined $20 and costs succeeded in finally raising the money and was released from the station house, where he was kept a night and nearly a day. He will therefore not enjoy a stay in the road improvement company. The punishment in such cases ought to be more stringent.

Mr. Cam McRae left this morning for Seaboard.

Mr. George Syme returned from Morehead this morning.

Miss Ethel Young left this morning for Beaufort to visit the family of Rev. D. L. Tuttle.

Mr. Claude Hardy, who has been stopping with Mr. J. A. Jones, left for Newport News this morning.

President Blessingame, Rev. O. L. Stringfield and Mr. John E. Ray went down to Scotland Neck this morning to attend the Baptist Chautauque there.

Mrs. Julian B. Timberlake and little son left this morning on a visit to Pitt county.

Ex-Lieutenant Farrier, of the Second regiment North Carolina volunteers, of Charlotte, left this morning for Pennsylvania.

Miss Webb, of Franklin, Va., who has been visiting Miss Rosa Broughton, left this morning for Wake Forest.

The condition of Mr. J. C. S. Lunsford, who is ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Luther White, is considered more favorable today.

The Fayetteville street and the Wilmington street base ball teams will play ball next Friday at 4 o'clock at the A. and M. grounds.

Mrs. Hiram Adams, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to Durham.

Miss Jessie Separk, of Durham, is in the city on a visit to relatives.

Mr. E. H. Bushe has gone to Greensboro, where he will appear for the defendant in the cases of Bolden and Jeffries against the Southern Railway.

The August number of the Agricultural Department's bulletin will have a pretty cover and will be in book form.

Work has been begun removing the Primitive Baptist church, now on the corner of Morgan and Dawson streets, to a grove in the eastern suburbs on Newbern Avenue, very near the Soldiers' Home. This is the first instance in the history of Raleigh where a church has been removed from its old site.

The Ladies' Confederate Memorial Association of this city has deposited in the State Library from time to time the copy of all the addresses delivered here on memorial day, these addresses being sketches of the life, character and services of North Carolina generals. Last week members of the association went to the library and to their great surprise could not find even one of the addresses. All are lost and Mr. Sheriff, the new librarian, said he had never seen or heard of them. The loss is deeply regretted, as the addresses can never be replaced, nor the material in such cases secured.

Adjutant General B. S. Royster went down to the encampment at Morehead this afternoon.

Mrs. N. E. Egerton, of Selma, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home this afternoon.

Mr. G. Rosenthal returned to the city this afternoon.

Mrs. Ada D. Richardson returned from Greensboro this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey, of Louisville, came in this afternoon.

Mr. Eugene P. Allen, of Winston, arrived in the city this afternoon.

Mrs. A. H. Green returned to the city this afternoon.

Col. John W. Hinsdale left this afternoon for Newbern on legal business.

STREET PRECHING

Baptist Ministers Won in Atlanta and the Council Repeals the Ordinance

Atlanta has just had a great stir over the subject of street preaching. The passage by the city council of an ordinance against preaching on the streets excited a storm of protest from the Baptist ministers. The council yesterday repealed the anti-street preaching ordinance. A committee consisting of Henry Macdonald, Rev. I. J. Van Ness, Governor W. J. Northen, Dr. W. W. Landrum and Dr. L. G. Broughton from the Baptist ministers association, appeared before the council and entered a formal protest.

Dr. Macdonald, Dr. Landrum and Attorney Ulysses Lewis, were the speakers. The council then unanimously repealed the ordinance. Attorney Lewis represented the salvation army and the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

In speaking of the street preaching matter Mayor Woodward said to the Journal:

"The ordinance that was offered by council on yesterday was at the instance of the board of police commissioners. The matter of indiscriminate so-called preaching on the streets of the city was brought to the attention of the board at its meeting by Major Kendrick, who recited where some one had been abusing the people in front of their business places and calling them by name."

"The board was very thorough in its disapproval of such methods, and decided that it was necessary to take some steps to regulate street preaching. Not a member of the board expressed himself as having any desire to suppress street preaching but only to give permission to those preachers or people who represent and would be under control of some religious denomination, and not allow a lot of indiscriminate hoodlums to occupy the streets and abuse and denounce all denominations and churches."

"Such harangues as those are not in the interest of good and true religious worship, but tend to injure the cause of Christianity. The streets of the city of Atlanta belong to all the good people, and I am satisfied that it is not very pleasant for a good and religious church member, in passing along the streets, to hear his and all other churches denounced by some irresponsible street hawker, and very often the city authorities are censured for allowing it, but if there is no mode of regulating the business by law the same regulating the business by law the same condition of things will continue to exist."

"The good preachers of Atlanta are needlessly alarmed, possibly by the snoring of irrational cranks—about street preaching, for the board of police commissioners, nor anyone else in authority, desires to interfere or refuse to give permission to any ordained minister or recognized representative of any religious denomination the privilege of preaching upon the streets."

"The general council, as the representatives of all the people, has the right and the power, and it is its duty to control the streets of the city, and to pass such laws as will protect true religion and Christianity from insult and decision by a lot of cranks."

AN ODD CLAIM FOR DAMAGES.

One of the oddest claims ever made against the government was disallowed yesterday by the controller of the treasury on an appeal from a decision by the auditor of the War Department. The claimant, whose name is withheld, wanted the government to pay for crops which ripened while he was in the army, and which he, therefore, did not have a chance to harvest. He fixes the value of the crops at $23,032.60.

The claimant lives in Colorado. He enlisted in company G, Third Colorado cavalry, in August, 1864. He says that he told the recruiting officer he did not want to enlist because he would lose his crops, and the officer said that would be all right, and that he could have leave of absence to harvest them. On this promise the trusting warrior enlisted.

There was some unfinished business still on hand with the Southern Confederacy when his crops ripened, and in spite of his appeals his superiors thought he had better stay in the army and attend to it. He says that as wheat, corn and vegetables were unusually high at that time this decision was a source of great pain and annoyance to him. The auditor holds that there is no appropriation out of which to pay for the failure of crops.—Washington telegram to the New York Times.

MRS. KENALL TONIGHT.

Mrs. T. R. Kendall, of Georgia, will deliver an address tonight at Edenton street Methodist Church. She will speak in the interest of the Woman's Home Mission work. Mrs. Kendall has spoken at several points in this State and has completely captured the people wherever she has talked. All are cordially invited to hear her tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

A funny incident happened during a performance of "Maebeth" in Dublin. In the sleep-walking scene, when the nurse and the doctor appear on the stage together and confabulate with one another a loud voice suddenly called out from the gallery, causing a roar of laughter in the middle of a most serious scene. "Well, doctor! Is it a boy or a girl?"—"Pit-bits."

"Goodness! We'll miss the opera," she said, impatiently. "We've been waiting a good many minutes for that mother of mine."

"Hours, I should say," he replied, somewhat acrimoniously.

"Ours?" cried she, rapturously. "Oh! George, this is so sudden." Then she fell upon his neck.—Catholic Standard.
