ANOTHER REST

MacArthur's Forces will Proceed Tomorrow

AMERICAN SQUAD ATTACKED

Wheaton's Orders Not to Occupy Angles Causes the Americans to Withdraw from that Town.

Manila, Aug. 12.—Advices from Calulit under date of August 11th report that General MacArthur took the Ninth regiment, battalion of the Twenty-second and a detachment of the First Artillery from Calulit to Santa Rita yesterday morning. The entrance of the troops was unopposed, the insurgents fleeing as the Americans approached.

HARD MARCH.

The march was hard and for ten miles the troops were waist deep in water. Many of the soldiers were exhausted. The troops will spend the night at Santa Rita and proceed today.

RETREAT FROM ANGELES.

Lieutenant Hazard of General Wheaton's staff, with five scouts from the Iowa regiment, marched up the railroad into Angeles yesterday. A small force of insurgents attacked the scouts outside the town. Hazard then sent for reinforcements, but General Wheaton's orders, however, were that the Americans should not occupy Angeles and a force of seven hundred insurgents appearing, Hazard retired.

ASSIST SUFFERERS.

Rivera Suggests Tariff Duties in Porto Rico be Removed.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Secretary Root received a number of communications from citizens expressing a desire to contribute to the relief of the Porto Rico sufferers.

Nunes Rivera, ex-Secretary of State of Porto Rico, but now of Washington, telegraphed the President suggesting the removal of tariff duties on the necessities of life and agricultural implements.

COTTON FEVERISH.

New York, Aug. 12.—Cotton speculation active, feverish and unsettled. August, 58 and 59; September, 80 and 90; October, 90 and 76; November, 11 and 12; December, 16 and 17.

CROKER RETURNS.

New York, Aug. 12.—Richard Croker arrived from England on the St. Paul this morning. The Tammany braves rallied a large force to receive him.

DEWEY SAILS.

Naples, Aug. 12.—The Olympia with Admiral Dewey aboard, sailed today for Leghorn.

GENEROUS GIFT.

George W. Watts, of Durham, so zealous a philanthropist, yesterday made a gift of $500 to the Baptist Female University here. One of the executive committee says that only $4,000 is now needed for the purchase of the complete equipment.

This is a most generous donation from Mr. Watts, who knows when and how to give his money.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

James L. Foster, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m., John A. Mills, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by Rev. Herbert Scholz, of Burlington, N. C. Mr. Scholz is a good preacher. You are very cordially invited to hear him.

EDENTON STREET CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey will occupy the pulpit of the Edenton Street Methodist Church tomorrow morning and night at the usual hours.

The pastor, Rev. W. C. Norman, is taking a vacation.

BARBECUE.

The barbecue at Carleight Mills this afternoon will undoubtedly be a most enjoyable affair. The spread includes all the employees of the mill, the officials and directors of the company and the press representatives.

The arrangements were made by Mr. F. O. Moring, secretary and treasurer. The Times-Visitor regrets that the hour for the barbecue is such that it is impossible for it to attend.

TOBACCO FIRM.

"S. W. Venable, Jr., and Company," leaf tobacco firm of the town of Wilson, was today incorporated with the Secretary of State. S. W. Venable, Jr., R. L. Dibrill and A. B. Carrington are the incorporators. The capital stock is $6,000.

Freddy—Is Friday the luckiest day in the week?
Cobwiger—I don't see how it can be. Nobody thinks of getting married on that day.—Judge.

SIGNS MUST GO.

Mayor Powell said today that the sign ordinance was settled now and if the signs did not come down by August 15th the penalty will follow. The ordinance will be strictly enforced.

NEW PREACHER.

Rev. Dr. H. C. Mabry, of Vineland, N. C., the new pastor of the Davie Street Presbyterian church, colored, has arrived in the city and will preach in the Davie Street church tomorrow at 11 a. m.

FROM NORFOLK.

A White Man Kills a Negro—A Policeman Shot.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 10.—Late last night in the suburbs of Portsmouth there was another tragedy, the third within a week. Owen J. Cosgrove, white, a saloon keeper, shot and instantly killed William France, a negro. Cosgrove claims the shooting was accidental, but witnesses who testified before the coroner's jury this morning told a different story. Cosgrove says he was examining the pistol, which exploded. The bullet struck France in the left breast, penetrating the heart. Witnesses say Cosgrove accused France of being implicated in the killing of Charles Wyatt several days ago, and that France called Cosgrove a liar. Cosgrove is reported to have said: "If you say that again I'll kill you." France repeated the epithet and Cosgrove fired. Cosgrove is in jail pending an examination.

Policeman Edgar Holland was found dead in an outhouse in this city early this morning. There was a bullet hole in his head and one chamber of his revolver, lying on the floor, was empty. At this time it is not definitely known whether Holland committed suicide or that his death was accidental. Those who know him are inclined to accept the latter theory. Holland was appointed a patrolman in 1896 and had a splendid record. His home was a happy one, and so far as is known there was no cause for self-destruction.

John Smith, alias John Munroe, a negro, now in jail in Portsmouth, charged with murdering Charles Wyatt in Scottsville, is also held upon suspicion of having assaulted and robbed Capt. L. L. Hutchins, of Scottsville, and for the killing of Constable Thomas Anderson, of Red Springs, N. C. Today two other charges were placed against him, that of shooting and robbing a negro from Newport News and shortly afterward nearly killing Constable Matthews, of Norfolk county. Constable Matthews today positively identified Smith as his assailant. A blood-stained coat belonging to the prisoner was found in his house at Pinner's Point.

PRINTERS TO MEET.

International Typographical Union Convention in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 10.—The International Typographical Union will hold its forty-fifth convention in this city next week.

The attendance promises to be the largest in the history of the organization, over 50 new unions having been organized during the last year and the membership increased several thousand.

The total number of unions subordinate to the International Typographical Union on July 1, 1899, was 429, and the membership 38,000. President Donnelly says that the past year has been the most prosperous for the printers since 1893.

There have been few strikes during the year.

Among the more important questions which will be legislated upon at the coming convention will be the adoption of piece scales in offices using typesetting devices; the further reduction of hours of labor in book and job offices to nine per day; the regulation of the use of the union label; the extension of jurisdiction so as to embrace all employees of a composing room; the operating of printing plants by members on the profit-sharing contract system; the admission of employers who work actively at the business to membership in local unions, and Government ownership of the telegraph.

The headquarters for officers and delegates will be at the Griswold House, where the reception committee of the local union will also be located.

President Donnelly and Secretary-Treasurer Bramwood arrived yesterday, and have been busy ever since making arrangements for the work of the convention, and upon which they must report at Monday's session.

The large majority of delegates and camp followers will be here not later than Saturday evening.

An elaborate program of entertainments for the delegates and visitors has been arranged by the local union for convention week.

Joak—"Why is your friend always making slurring remarks about Philadelphia? He's a Philadelphian, isn't he?"
Hoax—"Yes; but for some unknown reason he wants to give the impression that he's from New York."

CHEER AFTER

CHEER FOR DREYFUS

Sensations at the Rennes Court Martial Today

MERCIER DENOUNCES CAPT. DREYFUS

The Prisoner Jumped to His Feet and Asked Mercier to Admit His Mistake—Mercier Hooted and Dreyfus Cheered.

Rennes, Aug. 12.—Casimir Perier said on the witness stand this morning that Dreyfus lied if he said he fully informed him about the case. Dreyfus replied with dignity that he did not say that he had informed Perier, but wrote him several letters which perhaps he never received.

The prisoner seemed a new man and was ready to meet any opponent.

Perier said that Mercier never told him of the document containing the expression "that animal of a D—" and excitedly said, there would not be shown the prisoner the trial that I had expected it would.

BOMB FAILED.

Mercier testified that General Frey had told him of a Dreyfus syndicate to raise thirty-five million francs in England and Germany to effect a substitution of somebody else for Dreyfus.

If this statement was meant for a bomb it was a fizzle. A laugh swelled through the court room.

MERCIER'S DENUNCIATION.

After Mercier had denounced Dreyfus for nearly four hours he concluded by saying if he had not been convinced of the guilt of Dreyfus and if the latter's conviction had not been fortified since 1894, then he would admit that he was mistaken in his conclusion of his guilt.

DREYFUS' HOT REPLY.

Dreyfus then sprang to his feet and shouted in a trumpet voice: "You ought to say so now."

The audience burst out with wild cheers at this cry of Dreyfus.

Mercier replied that he would admit Dreyfus' innocence if there was any doubt.

The prisoner then shouted again: "Why don't you, then?"

This was followed by another outburst of cheers.

Mercier was hooted after the adjournment of the court.

Jonast ordered the court adjourned until Monday.

MERCIER CURSED.

As Mercier turned to leave the audience rose, en masse, and hissed and cursed him, those in the back of the court room standing on chairs and benches in order to better hound him down.

COMMUNICATION SERVED.

The government has ordered the cutting off of all telegraph and telephone communication between Paris and Rennes.

MINE ENEMY.

Once in my pride I judged a man.
With eyes averted I looked him through.
I said: "Here failed he"—span by span
I measured all his faults anew.

And thenceforth marked in bitter mood
The manner of his life, intent
To find therein such constant food
That my just heart might not relent.

I probed his thoughts, his motives weighed;
And yet as on his hopes I peered,
Though some on him might have crushed, I staid.
My hand—they were so humbly reared.

And keeping watch with doubtful eyes
On his actions, I began
To mark with measureless surprise
How very human was the man.

Till, by a casual cross wind blown,
Came word of trifling acts of his—
Poor, common things—in which was shown
His touch with common charities.

Then, seeing how much I had denied,
Who loved the name of Charity,
I bowed my head with shame and cried:
"Forgive me, O mine enemy!"
—W. G. Hole, in The Spectator.

HITS OF BRIGHTNESS.

"Done anything yet?" asked the fond father, who proudly speaks of his young son as a coming lawyer.

"Oh, yes, I succeeded in having my rent reduced and have a fine bunch of accounts against you for collection. I'll get there."—Detroit Free-Press.

Mrs. Nosey—"I understand—from Miss Jokose that your doctor is no gentleman." Mrs. Pasche—"Yes; that's true." "Oh, my! tell me about it. What did he—?" "She's a lady doctor."

ADAMS' VISIT.

Adam Davis undoubtedly attracted more attention than any visitor to Raleigh today. He is a negro black as they are made in the heart of the dark continent. He arrived in the city this morning riding in an old-fashioned road cart to which was harnessed a mammoth bull. Adam was in his shirt sleeves and wore a gray beaver, evidently a relic of the first Cleveland campaign. A Northern man saw the outfit and inquired Adam to drive in his rig up to Mr. Watson's photograph gallery, where a photograph was taken. Adam drove five miles from the city and the joy of his life is to rig up and appear on the streets here every Saturday. He never comes to the city except on Saturdays.

DEBNAM FOUND.

Harry Debnam, the colored hack driver, who went insane and left town, was arrested early this morning in the store of Mr. Sam Watts near Auburn. Deputy Riddick was sent down to find him, last night, but he did not succeed until this morning, since Debnam hid in the woods last night. He was brought here by two deputies this morning and lodged in jail. He is violently insane and an application has been sent to Goldsboro for his admittance and a reply is expected by wire.

VICTOR COMPANY.

The members of the Victor Fire Company are enthusiastic in the praise of their treatment at the colored firemen's tournament at Washington, N. C. The white citizens of Washington gave them a barbecue which was served by the colored people.

The Victor company desires to extend their thanks to the citizens of Washington for the many kindnesses shown them while in that place.

The letor company desires to extend thanks to the citizens of Washington for the many kindnesses shown them while in that place.

RED MEN TO THE FRONT.

Mr. H. E. King, State organizer, instituted the Red Men in the Improved Order of Red Men in the hunting grounds of Tarboro, N. C., on last Wednesday's leap setting sun. It is a very able body of the best citizens of Tarboro.

George Howard, Jr., Sachem, hardware merchant; Oron Williams, Proprietor, insurance; W. M. Arheim, Senior Sagamore, dry goods; S. R. Alley, Junior Sagamore, photographer; John A. Wood, Chief of Records, town clerk; John Cobb, Keeper of Warrants, cashier Farmers Bank; W. G. Clark, First Sannap, dry goods merchant; J. R. Harrell, Second Sannap, hardware clerk; J. R. Pender, First Warrior, hardware merchant; Elias Carr, Jr., Second Warrior, farmer; A. M. Fairly, Third Warrior, Superintendent cotton mills; J. M. Baker, Fourth Warrior, physician; G. L. Heilbroner, Guard of the Forest, dry goods merchant; J. B. Powell, Guard of the Wigwag, Engineer; D. Williams, First Brave, dentist; M. S. Whitehurst, Second Brave, cotton weaver; Abner Morris, Third Brave, dry goods merchant; W. L. Stallings, Fourth Brave, Sheriff of Edgecombe; R. B. Hyatt, First Scout, chief of police; H. A. Gilliam, Brother, attorney at law; H. T. Bryan, Brother, clothing and ice man; S. N. Harrell, Brother, physician; K. B. Peters, Brother, grocer; T. B. Jacobs, Brother, book-keeper; Wm. Michael, grocer; J. A. Moore, book-keeper; J. F. Shackelford, Brother, superintendent knitting mills.

Other towns and cities of the State should look well to their laurels or this will be the best Tribe in this reservation. Two weeks ago a Tribe was instituted at Washington, N. C., with fifty-four Pale Faces.

The Kinston Free Press says "The Raleigh cotton mill has set the pace that will, it is thought, bring in twenty thousand dollars toward establishing the textile department in the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The mill in question has given its check for one hundred dollars for this object and a request has been made that each mill in the State do likewise. It is said that quite a number of mill owners have signified their intention of doing as the Raleigh mill has done. Their doing of it will assure a first class textile department in the State."

Mrs. Dix—"Why my husband and I quarrel we never allow the children to witness it."
Mrs. Hix—"Why, how in the world do you manage it?"
Mrs. Dix—"We always send them out of doors so they can hear nothing."
Mrs. Hix—"Oh, now I understand. I've often wondered why your children were on the street all the time."—Detroit Journal.

CONSPIRACY

DISCLOSED

Plot to Seize the French Government Foiled

PATRIOTIC LEAGUE CLOSED

Many Prominent Frenchmen Arrested—Government has Conclusive Evidence of the Plot and the Chief Actors.

Paris, Aug. 12.—Dorville, founder of the League of Patriots, and member of the Chamber of Deputies, was arrested at 4 o'clock this morning on his estate Crossy, near Paris, by four gendarmes, who immediately took him to Paris, where he was incarcerated in Conciergerie prison.

The arrest of Marcel Halbert is expected and the police have closed the offices of the Patriotic League and the places are now guarded by gendarmes.

A number of members of the anti-Semitic and Patriotic Leagues were arrested this morning.

CONSPIRACY.

A semi-official note says that documents were found leading to the discovery of a conspiracy to seize the government by force, the organization for this purpose dating back to July of last year. It is further stated that the documents leave no doubt of the existence of this plot or of the chief actors in the plot. Proof was afterward found that the same group was preparing to make a fresh attempt at any early date; the proof being of such a nature as to enable the disturbance to be averted by immediate measures.

CAMPING OUT.

The Popularity of Enquay Springs Steadily Increases.

Enquay springs, twenty miles below Raleigh, on the Raleigh and Cape Fear Railroad, an ideal spot, is just now fortunate in possessing a party of merry, happy "summer girls," who are dreaming the weary August days away in hammocks and spending long hours with the heroes and heroines of their favorite novels.

Misses Miriam and Elise Stamps, Miss Ethel Stronach and Miss Primrose are camping with a party in a large, roomy tent, carpeted with new moquette and fitted with cosy cots. They have unaged their temporary abode "The Bangalore." Miss Ethel Norris, who is at the Ellis House, completes the party.

Messrs. Owen and Jesse Primrose, Marcus Crocker, Walker Williams and Dr. Lodge are also at the springs.

Among those who visited the spring this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Douglass and Rev. J. J. Douglass.

MARRIAGE OF MISS BYNUM.

Lincolnton, N. C., Aug. 11.—Miss Elizabeth Shipp Bynum and Mr. Butler Alexander Justice were married here today at the residence of the bride's mother, at 12:30 o'clock. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, while blossoming vines were hung around the walls and decorated the stair case. The bride wore a beautiful gown of Bengaline satin and real lace, with a sweeping train; a real lace veil fell to her feet. The groom wore the regulation black Prince Albert coat and light trousers.

The bride party was preceded by two beautiful little girls dressed in yellow organdie. Immediately following came the bride, leaning on the arm of the prospective groom. Following them were Mrs. Bynum and daughter, Miss Mary, and Judge W. A. Hoke, who was best man. The bride was given away by her mother.

The marriage was to have taken place this fall, but the bride wanted to be married by her uncle, Rev. Charles Curtis, who leaves tonight for Davidsonville, Maryland, where he has just been called to the rectorship of a church.

Although it was not known until today that the marriage would take place, the spacious parlors were filled with the most representative people of Lincolnton and the surrounding country. Mr. and Mrs. Justice leave tomorrow for their future home in Rutherfordton.

It seems strange that a man who gets drunk regularly every night should be said to have irregular habits.

"Can you understand all of those golf terms that your husband uses, Mrs. Farwell?"
"No. The only ones I can understand are those that he uses when his ball goes behind one of the mounds or into a sand hole, or when he tears up the sod with his club."—Chicago Times-Herald.

THE WEATHER.

For Raleigh and vicinity: Showers tonight; rain Sunday and Monday with high northeast winds.

The West Indian hurricane shows evidence of its approach to the Florida coast this morning. Jupiter, Fla., reports a fall in barometer to 28.70 inches, and high northeast wind—with a maximum velocity of 34 miles an hour. Reasonable probabilities are that the storm will pass up the Atlantic coast. Local thunderstorms occurred last night over the states bordering the Atlantic. Throughout the interior the weather is generally fair with high temperatures in the Mississippi valley.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. R. L. Burkhead left this afternoon for Lexington.

Capt. C. B. Denison left this afternoon to spend Sunday at Pittsboro.

Miss Nora Uzzell returned to the city this afternoon.

Dr. K. P. Battle, Jr., left this afternoon.

Mr. James Leach returned to the city this morning.

Mr. F. H. Hoover returned from Hillsboro this morning.

Mr. Henry J. Young and master Joseph Brown Young left for Littleton this morning.

Senator Pritchard has recommended John R. Gulick, of Goldsboro, for a volunteer appointment. He was ordnance officer of the First North Carolina Regiment, U. S. V.

Jose Henry and Bettie Gill, two colored women, were arraigned before Mayor Powell this morning on the charge of affray. The Henry woman was dismissed and Gill was given thirty days on the road. There was also a charge against the Gill woman for disorderly conduct and judgment in this case was suspended.
