A first-class school, and two churches has she, And every one that comes here agree That for health and pleasure they never have seen A place that excels this village of green.

When it come ter blackin' her eyes, I only had de hart to black one, an' den I knew dat what I fought wuz love was new fr'endship. Mag agreed wid me dat it wuz bes' ter part."

TO READ IS WELL, TO ACT IS BETTER.

In establishing my place my purpose is to demonstrate that first-class clothing can be made for a reasonable price and to be convinced of this a call is solicited to ascertain what money can buy. A glance, however superficially given, will convince you in examining my stock that my prices are low and my selection of patterns are complete. Nothing will be left undone or overlooked to prejudice your mind about correct style and the usual care will be exercised of garment making. FOLLER, The Tailor.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at all drug stores.

FOR THE SAKE OF FUN, MRS. GELBEF IS DONE.

A real account of mischief is done, too, because people neglect to keep their blood pure. The mischief appears in eruptions, dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness, kidney diseases, and other ailments. This mischief, fortunately, may be undone by the judicious use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cures all diseases originating in or produced by impure blood. Hood's Pills cure biliousness, dark face.

IT ISN'T THE THING TO DO, DEAR.

It's the thing you leave undone, That gives you a bit of heartache At the setting of the sun. The tender word forgotten, The letter you did not write, The flower you did not send, dear, Are your haunting ghosts at night.

The stone you might have lifted Out of a brother's way; The bit of heartsome counsel You were hurried too much to say; The loving touch of the hand, dear, The gentle, winning, tone, Which you had no time nor thought for, With troubles enough of your own.

For life is all too short, dear, And sorrow is all too great, To suffer our slow compassion, That tarries until too late; And it isn't the thing you do, dear, It's the thing you leave undone, Which gives you a bit of heartache At the setting of the sun.

—Margaret Elisabeth Saugster.
