THE LEADER IN THE NEWS AND IN CITY CIRCULATION.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1909

If the honor of the French army is to be saved it must be embalm immediately.

William Waldorf Astor must pay an income tax in England of $200,000. Perhaps he wishes he had not swapped.

One of the papers has a despatch (uncensored of course), stating that Aguilardo has become a papa. Young Ag. should certainly bear the name of his papa's friend Edward Atkinson.

While the reception to Admiral Dewey in New York will be magnificent the one which will appeal most to his affections will be the reception which awaits him among the hills of Vermont.

Greensboro imposed a tax of three dollars a year on boot-blacks. The little fellows paid the tax and then those having receipts formed a trust and raised the price to 10 cents.

William Kissam Vanderbilt, who has now become the head of the Vanderbilt family, will be 50 years old in December. He is essentially a man of the world, has owned a racing stable, defended the America's cup, driven a coach-and-four and cruised in almost every sea in his own steam yacht.

The estimate of his present fortune varies from $75,000,000 to $90,000,000.

In 1790 the center of population was twenty-three miles east of Baltimore; eighteen miles west of Baltimore in 1800; forty miles northwest of Washington in 1810; sixteen miles north of Woodstock, Va., in 1820; nineteen miles southwest of Moorfield, W. Va., in 1830; sixteen miles south of Clarksburg, W. Va., in 1840; twenty-three miles southeast of Parkersburg, W. Va., in 1850; twenty miles south of Chillicothe, O., in 1860; forty-eight miles east of Cincinnati in 1870; eight miles west of Cincinnati in 1880; twenty miles west of Columbus, Ind., in 1890. This represents a western movement of 505 miles.

The Philadelphia Press, in commenting upon the warfare that is being made upon Commissioner of Pensions Evans by pension attorneys, under the leadership of Corporal Tanner, who was removed from office by President Harrison, pays its respects to the Corporal in the following manner:

"Pension Commissioner Evans has again exposed the inconsistency and insincerity of the pension attorneys who have been attacking his administration of the Pension Office. Corporal Tanner was the man who started the campaign against Mr. Evans and the McKinley Administration, and Tanner has been the ringleader in the whole movement. It is entirely fitting that the man whom President Harrison removed from the head of the Pension Bureau because of his loose administration of the office should be the one to attack Commissioner Evans because of his faithful compliance with the law.

ODD FELLOWS ASSEMBLING.

Diamond Jubilee Anniversary to be Celebrated in Detroit. Detroit, Mich., Sept. 17.—The officials and the rank and file of American Odd Fellowship who have thus far arrived in the city passed a quiet Sunday, preliminary to the opening of the diamond jubilee anniversary of the order.

There are already on hand some 400 of the higher officials, including all of the officers of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, delegates to the Grand Lodge sessions, State Grand Lodge officers, Grand Encampment officers, and officers of the Rebekah branch. Besides these about 1,000 of the rank and file have thus far arrived from various States.

Religious services were held today in the First Congregational Church. The central portion of the church auditorium was reserved for Odd Fellows and their ladies, several hundreds of whom arrived from headquarters by special trolley train. Rev. N. H. H. Boynton, D. D., pastor of the church, preached upon "Brotherhood."

"Work progressed all day on the great welcoming arch which will span Woodward avenue. The hotels have been crowded since early morning with incoming Odd Fellows.

Tomorrow the Sovereign Grand Lodge will be formally welcomed in the Detroit Opera House by Governor Fitzgerald and Mayor Maybury. Tuesday's feature will be the session of the grand representatives and members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Wednesday the grand parade will be held. Thursday will be given over to the prize drills, with a Rebekah concert in the evening. Friday and Saturday will be spent in sight-seeing and other pleasures.

ANOTHER TRIBUTE TO MISS GOULD.

Her Name Serves as a Money-Maker in Seattle.

Just at present Miss Helen Gould is the feminine Dewey of the country, says the New York Mail and Express. Her name is the money-maker during the war, her contributions of money to the cause, her many good deeds along all sorts of philanthropic lines have made her name popular from Maine to California. But it remained for the editor of a Pacific coast paper to put it to an ingenious use as a money-raiser.

Wishing to give a grand reception to the Washington boys, who are on their way home from the Philippines, this Seattle journalist purchased a superb French doll, adorned it with exquisitely fashioned garments, named it Helen Gould and sent out the following ballots all over the State:

"Ballot of 'Helen Gould' Doll—I herewith enclose $5 and cents to be used for the Washington soldiers' reception fund, and cast—votes at 5 cents each) for— of— street, Wash., as the most popular girl in Washington, to be awarded the 'Patriotic Intelligence' doll, 'Helen Gould,' awarded to be made October 4, 1909."

The idea "caught on" at once and votes began pouring into the newspaper office. Dollars, dimes and nickels followed each other in quick succession, and the journalist hopes to raise a large sum before the competition closes.

CARRIED A MAN ON HIS HORNS.

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A savage Holstein bull plunged his horns through a man's body yesterday and for a minute carried the man impaled on his head. The bull belongs to the Bloomingdale Insane Asylum, and wandered to the grounds of Wrestler Muldoon's sanitarium near by. William McCafferty, superintendent of the asylum's stock, tried to drive the bull to his stall. The animal attacked McCafferty, tossed him, caught him on his horns, where he remained for a minute, then fell, then the bull again tossed the unconscious man. John and George Thompson drove off the bull with clubs. The doctors have little hope of McCafferty's recovery.
