THE LEADER IN THE NEWS AND IN CITY CIRCULATION

FRIDAY, SEPT. 29, 1899

LET'S HEAR FROM DEWEY.

The home-coming of Admiral George Dewey at this time is of special moment to the nation. When the excitement and enthusiasm which makes his arrival has subsided the eyes of the American people will be turned with confidence upon Admiral Dewey for a solution of the difficulties which now stand in the way of the assertion of Federal authority in the Philippines. The whole nation believes in Admiral Dewey and his statements and recommendations will be accepted as conclusive by a vast majority of his fellow countrymen. This confidence is firmly grounded on his past record, his achievements from the declaration of war until the victory in Manila Bay, his cool and fearless discretion from then until the surrender of Manila, his manifold ability as an administrator, officer and diplomat under strange conditions and his intimate knowledge of the natives, the country and the present situation. These facts amply warrant the American people in looking to Admiral Dewey for the truth as to early peace in the Philippines and how to secure it. Let's hear from Dewey now and if the Administration is wise his counsel will be the words of one speaking with authority and his voice will be potential in directing our war in the far east.

It is remarkable the number of new buildings in the course of construction as residences about Raleigh. It is a square in the city but the use of the hammer, or trowel can be heard either on new buildings or additions to one already built. Nor is this all. Many business houses are being better fitted up with tiling floors and metal ceilings. This is good evidence of material prosperity and only one thing is needed and that a lavish thought for the use of the paint brush on the outside street before the crowds arrive for our next State Fair.

The Atlanta Constitution says "No representative Democrat, no Democrat of any influence, so far as we know, sympathizes with the attitude assumed by those New England Republicans in denouncing the war brought on by Aguinaldo as an attack on those who are fighting for their liberties."

That is rough on some of the papers in this State. The Constitution must have read them out of the party.

Kinston's good people are agitating the subject of a night school for children and old folks who are deficient in education and cannot find the time during the day to attend school. This is just what Raleigh needs to help all.

Cotton ran up to the 7 1/2 mark yesterday which caused a grateful smile upon the face of those who had a bale or two upon the market.

WOLGAST'S BRUPTIONS. Are you troubled with eruptions? Use Wolgast's Eruptions Salve. It cures all eruptions, itching, burning, and itching. It is a sure cure for all eruptions. It is a sure cure for all eruptions. It is a sure cure for all eruptions.

Yesterday President Bryan assumed charge of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad.

Gen. A. J. Vaughan, the noted ex-Confederate veteran of Memphis, Tenn., is lying dangerously ill at his home in that city.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland will lecture to the students of Princeton. It is rumored that Mr. Cleveland may become a Princeton professor.

The Danville Tobacco Warehouse Trust bottom has fallen out. It was impossible to rope the North Carolina warehouses into the scheme so it has been abandoned.

An elegant life-sized colored bust portrait of Admiral George Dewey accompanied yesterday's issue of the Baltimore Sun.

Chicago is to furnish Great Britain with 3,000 mules for army in South Africa. They will be shipped to Jamaica and hence to their destination. The first shipment will start Saturday.

Forty-three out of the sixty-one applicants for license to practice law were admitted to the bar by the Supreme court yesterday. This is a much larger percentage than last year which was a veritable slaughter of applicants. The court finished its examination of the papers much earlier than had been expected. The office list of those licensed together with their counties follows:
