ANOTHER BRILLIANT

BRITISH VICTORY AT GLENCOE

Boers Scattered Over the Plains

Losing 300

The British Annexed Boer Hospitals Since the Boers Were Unable to Cope with Their Wounded--Report that Kruger Favors Unconditional Surrender.

Ladysmith, Oct. 23.—The second attack by the Boers on Glencoe has failed. The Boer artillery was ineffective and was silenced. The British made another sortie and have now engaged the enemy.

SENSATIONAL DISPATCHES.

London, Oct. 23.—The Dalzell News Agency has two sensational dispatches from Capetown. One says that the Boers were badly defeated in a second attack on Glencoe.

The second dispatch contains Pretoria advices that Kruger favors unconditional surrender and a meeting of the executive council is called for tomorrow to consider it.

The British loss at Elandshout was one officer killed, twenty officers wounded, seventeen of the men killed, ninety-nine wounded and one missing.

LARGE FORCE.

Durban, Oct. 23.—A large Boer command is marching toward Durban in Zululand.

BOER LOSS.

Capetown, Oct. 23.—The Boer loss at Elandshout is estimated at two hundred. The Boers are reported to have routed in their second attack on Glencoe.

BOER OFFICERS KILLED OR TAKEN.

London, Oct. 23.—General White writes from the war office that the Boers suffered a number of casualties among their high officers in the fight at Elandshout. General Viljoen was killed, General Kerk wounded and taken prisoner and his son taken prisoner. Col. Schiel, the German officer in charge of artillery, was wounded and taken prisoner. General Pretorius was wounded and taken prisoner. Several Boer standards were captured.

BRILLIANT BRITISH VICTORY.

New York, Oct. 23.—A Journal special says: Another brilliant victory over the Boers is reported today from Glencoe. Joubert led the Boer attack. The northern column arrived too late to join in the first attack, but as soon as it reached the camp Joubert opened battle. The Boer artillery began the fight, but served wretchedly and did little execution. The British guns replied quickly and silenced the Boer batteries. Then the British made another charge and the Boers broke and fled. The British cavalry is now in pursuit of the enemy.

BOERS UTTERLY ROUTED.

New York, Oct. 23.—By Associated Press, delayed.—Glencoe Camp, Oct. 22. The attack of the Boers under General Meyer enabled the British to secure another brilliant success. The Boers were driven pell mell over the plains, losing over three hundred killed and wounded. Several hundred horses and an army of prisoners were captured.

The Boer hospital was taken in its wings to the British hospital corps as a scouting party of twenty-two, had two nights yesterday and killed six of the enemy and captured eight or ten rifles. No American losses in the engagements.

HEROIC ACT OF COL. CHISHOLM.

Ladysmith, Oct. 23.—Col. Scott Chisholm, of the imperial light horse, was killed in battle at Elandshout. He died displaying remarkable heroism, which would probably have gained him the Victoria cross, had he lived. During the charge up the hill to capture the Boer situation a trooper fell wounded in the open, unable to crawl to cover. For him to stay there meant certain death. Chisholm coolly walked to where the trooper lay and, picking up the man, started to carry him to a sheltered spot. He had not gone far when a bullet from a Boer Mauser struck him and he fell dead with his burden upon him. His death was avenged by the death of a number of Boer officers who fell in battle.

NO CONNECTION.

Messrs Hood & Gantham Say they Cannot Talk to Raleigh

Recently this paper stated that the Interstate Phone from Raleigh to Selma would not come out at Selma with the line to Dunn and other points in Harnett county and this was a serious inconvenience. The gentleman who gave the information said that he had been refused permission and intended to bring the matter before the Corporation Commission. It is true that the line from Selma into Harnett county is not owned by the Interstate Company, but that recently negotiations have always been made at Selma with that line. The statement recently printed in this paper of the failure to connect at Selma was denied by an official of the telephone company. Below is given a letter from the firm of Hood and Gantham at Dunn in whose store the phone is located:

Dunn, N. C., Oct. 21, 1899.

Dear Sir: Yours of the 19th inst. to hand and contents noted. Will say that we have had no connection with Raleigh for about sixty days. We do not know the exact source Mr. Eaton tries to place Dunn. If the bell rings we will respond promptly.

We only wish we did have Raleigh connection.

Respectfully yours,

HOOB & GANTHAM.

This paper does not know who is in the right about it, but there can now be no doubt that the two lines are not connecting.

CLOSE IN DECEMBER.

Fair Officials Only Waiting for the R. A. roads.

Treasurer C. B. Benson, of the State Fair, stated this morning: "We will pay out sooner this year than ever before. The employees will receive their pay tomorrow and next day. Any arrears against the Fair should be sent to Secretary Poole immediately and approved by him. The premiums will be paid as soon as the railroads are heard from. That will be the first week in December. We will close up everything then."

President McNamee will take charge January 1st.

The S. A. L. has put on a one cent rate to Atlanta for militia today and tomorrow to attend the military celebration there. Admiral Scales will be among the guests of the city. Admiral Dewey could not attend.

LITTLE BOY LOST.

This morning a nicely dressed, bright little boy, with his pet cat in his arms, was found by Officer Ike Rogers playing near Johnston street station. After searching a while Officer Rogers found that he was Master Willis Taylor, son of Mr. Willis Taylor, who lives on Elandshout street, and he was returned to his home.

PERSECUTING THE JEWS.

Vienna, Oct. 23.—People of Holleschan, hating the Jews, today pillaged their shops. The police fired and killed three and wounded thirty of the mob.

MAYOR ASKED TO GRANT A DIVORCE.

A colored woman this morning appeared in the mayor's office and requested a private interview with the mayor. This Mayor Powell readily granted and the woman asked him to give her a divorce from her husband and to make his price for the divorce as reasonable as possible. The woman did not get any encouragement from the Mayor simply informed her that it was out of his line of business.

PERKINS-YARBOROUGH.

On Sunday, Yarbrough, Oct. 22, 1899, in Franklin county, N. C., by the Rev. George B. Perry, Miss Annie Rutha Yarbrough, only daughter of Mr. Robert Yarbrough, and Mr. Thomas Alston Perkins, of Manly, Va., were united in marriage.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Rev. J. L. Burns left for Wilson this morning to attend the State Convention of the Disciples of Christ which meet there tonight. The convention will last for three or four days. There are about 15,000 white members at present, in North Carolina and about 10,000 colored members. Rev. Burns has just returned from the national convention of this faith which was held in Cincinnati last week. There were 15,000 registered delegates, making it the largest church convention ever held in the United States.

FAIR, MUCH WARMER.

For Raleigh and vicinity: Fair tonight; fair, much warmer Tuesday. The weather throughout the entire east and south is dominated by the extensive area of high barometer, central over North Carolina. A little rain fell only at Campus Christi and Jacksonville in the South, and in the north, Maconette, Buffalo, and Boston in the north. The temperature continues low over the middle Atlantic States, with frost in North Carolina. A considerable depression exists over Minnesota and the temperature is quite high in the Mississippi valley and westward, reaching 70 degrees at a. m. at Omaha.

FUNERAL OF MISS JENKINS.

The funeral of the late Miss Selma Jenkins was held from the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock. Many friends were present. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. T. E. Schuler, assisted by Rev. J. W. Carter. The choir sang beautifully "Asleep in Jesus." The interment was in Oakwood Cemetery.

GREAT FIRE AT WAKEFIELD.

Wakefield, Mass., Hathaway's farm, which stable, with fifty horses and a large number of vehicles, were destroyed today. The engine house, Perkins barn, Perkins' laundry and seven dwellings were destroyed. The fire departments from Malone, Melrose, etc., brought help to extinguish the flames.

TOBIAS MARSHALL DEAD.

One of Raleigh's Most Popular Citizens Passed Away.

Mr. Tobias Marshall, who for fifteen years has been the faithful janitor of the city hall, died at his home on South Person street Sunday morning of five o'clock. He had been suffering from heart trouble and for several months his condition had been serious, but he kept at his work most of the time. The statement can be made with certainty that there was no fear of contradiction that there was not a more popular man in Raleigh than Tobias Marshall, as he was called. He showed himself friendly to all and this manner always made him friends. He will be sadly missed. Mr. Marshall was born in this county 55 years ago. When the war broke out he enlisted and served in the Confederate army. Afterwards he came to Raleigh and has lived here since. He leaves a wife (formerly Miss Pierce), sister of Mr. D. A. Pierce and two small children.

The funeral was held at 11 o'clock this morning from Christ church and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall. The active pallbearers were Messrs. J. H. Mullin, Ham Smith, W. R. Blake, A. A. Thompson, D. S. Hamilton and William Boylan, while the following were honorary pallbearers: Messrs. Charles B. Row, S. W. Walker, L. H. Woodall and J. R. Williams. The remains were escorted to their final rest, being placed in Oakwood Cemetery in the following order: The police force, the city officials, the hearse carrying the body, the L. O. R. Branch Camp of Confederate Veterans, the family, relatives and friends.

AN UNPLEASANT REMINDER.

James doesn't go to church Sunday, but his mamma took him there last Sunday. Now she wishes she hadn't, as he was so set demurely enough until the pastor, who indulged in a dreadfully incoherent frolic, had finished his solo. Then he spoke up:

"Mamma," he asked in a shrill whisper, "what makes the man's voice shake so?"

"His-d, dear," said mamma. "I don't know."

"But, mamma," the little swamp insisted in a still louder whisper, "you know when papa's voice shook, the other night you said it was beer?"

And that's why James' church privileges have been so rudely cut off.—San Francisco Examiner.

CHOIRS INVITED.

The choirs of the several churches in the city are cordially invited to assist in the music in the laying of the corner stone of the Church of the Good Shepherd on Wednesday, November 1st. All who will assist are asked to meet in the parish rooms below the church on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock for rehearsal.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Methods for Raising a Campaign Fund

OUR CONSUL AT PRETORIA

British-Boer War Makes This an Important Position—Lieut. Gillis' Brave Act—Rewarded—Dewey's Health—Americans Offer Help.

Washington, Oct. 23. (Special.) A proposal has been circulated by Democratic papers that the recent election from the Ohio Republican Committee asking contributions from office holders, was submitted to the National Civil Service Commission before being sent out, and after some minor changes was introduced by them as containing nothing contrary to law. Inquiry at the office of the Commission failed to develop a positive answer, but it was said that the committee showed that it had not officially considered such a matter, and as all proceedings are by law required to be entered on the minutes it was probably that no official consideration was given the circular. Because of the protest against the Republic, a circular the Commission has issued to the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury to call the attention of their employees to the law forbidding assistance, which the former has agreed to do. President Proctor of the Commission says he believes no submission of contributions from Federal employees is against the letter as well as the spirit of the law.

Manila dispatches reported a few days ago that General Pineda had refused to sell out to General Otis but that the offer was not believed to be authentic. Pineda has since been reported as having accepted the offer of San Pedro, which latter town is to be garrisoned. The Filipino officers applied to General MacArthur for permission for a native expedition to visit Manila to arrange for the release of more American prisoners, and of Spanish prisoners, and to discuss terms of peace.

The Internal Revenue Bureau today holds that when a transfer company gives a resident a hotel receipt for trucks calling for the delivery of such trucks at another residence of hotel, such receipts or checks must bear a revenue stamp. The receipts from stamps under this ruling will probably be inconsistent in comparison with the former and announce it will cause the Bureau to hold that this is the law, and must be complied with.

From being a position of comparative obscurity and minor status the office of the American Consul at Pretoria has become one of much responsibility. There are a large number of American citizens at Johannesburg, and American primary interests in the mines are measured by millions, but the real difficulty of the Consul's task lies in his acting as custodian of the interests of British citizens during hostilities. The American Consul is Charles E. Marston, of East Liverpool, Ohio. He is 44 years of age, and has been manager of a glass factory until appointed to his present post by Mr. McKinley.

A militant action during the war with Spain has been proposed by the appointment of Lieut. Gillis to command the torpedo boat Porter, to which he was attached off Santiago. One morning he saw a log torpedo moving out towards the American fleet. Jumping aboard he threw one arm over the death dealing projectile, and missed the war head containing the fuse with the other hand, thus rendering it harmless.

Lieut. Lee, military attaché of the British Embassy, says that they are daily refusing offers of the proposed organization of Americans for service in the British army during the Transvaal war. While the services of several thousands from British Colonies were accepted, it was in order to recognize their membership in the Empire, rather than a need of unimpaired assistance.

Admiral Dewey's visit to its old home in Vermont has started quite a good sized boom among Republicans in that State in favor of presenting his name for President to the National Republican convention. Senator Redfield Proctor says that if Admiral Dewey adheres to his determination not to take the office he will be unique in American history, as no man has ever yet refused to accept the Presidency of the United States. In talking to his Vermont friends, Admiral Dewey is said to have made no secret of the fact that he thinks that General Otis should be superseded, and it is hinted that the fall of the Administration to inaugurate an adequate policy in the Philippines would be one thing that might induce Dewey to change his mind about accepting a nomination for the Presidency.

New York, Oct. 23.—December 28; January, 8; March, 12; May, 17.

MELBA JANNAT'S OTHER COMING.

Melba Jannat's appearance at the Academy Wednesday of this week, in a new version of "Meg" will be a very successful one. Her performance in "Meg" was a very powerful one, and her human interest from the fall of "Meg" is all of "Meg" the old character is made the central and dominating character of the play, he has followed the story as told by Scott, and at the same time has worked so cleverly that he has retained the play to four acts, and the old notes have been restored and many new musical and charming numbers have been added. The character of "Meg" has been a favorite of Jannat's, and she is naturally attracted to her novel, and her own state of feeling, it allows her to show her qualities of intelligence in the work, and her own qualities of intelligence and her own qualities of intelligence.
