REPORTS

COME SLOWLY

British In the Dark as to the War

FATE OF LADYSMITH

French Papers State that the Town has Surrendered While London Assembles theatrical News is Anxiously Awaited.

Cape Town, Nov. 15.—A Pretoria despatch dated November 10th, says that reports from Ladysmith received there state that heavy cannonading started at daylight. Some of the Boer forces were within fifteen hundred yards of the British when the cannonading ceased, and rifle fire began. This despatch also announced that all was quiet at Kimberley and at Mafeking.

TIERED DODGING SHELLS.

London, Nov. 15.—A belated despatch from Mafeking brought by Magalapa yesterday, says all is quiet today. The place has been bombarded heavily all the week. Friday night a squadron from the Protectorate Regiment made a magazine charge with bayonet, driving the Boers from their entrenchments.

The Boers, however, were unable to hold the trenches. They lost six killed and nine wounded and two taken prisoner. The bombardment was ineffectual, and only resulted in wounding one person. The Boers used howitzer and several other guns of various sizes. The enemy is entrenched on every side in great numbers, and are pushing gradually closer. The people here were well supplied with provisions, but are very tired of dodging shells. The fight thus far has been conducted on civilized lines. Cape always gives ample notice of bombardment. Saturday he sent two hours for an ambulance corps to recover the six British soldiers killed during the truce. Gen. Buller told a number of the ambulance corps that the Boers were very heavy, and his heart was very sore.

OCTOBER 25TH.

London, Nov. 15.—The despatch from Magalapa about the fighting at Mafeking, refers to the fight of October 25th.

LADYSMITH FALLS.

Paris, Nov. 15.—Matin and other papers here published despatches announcing the fall of Ladysmith. Several of these papers represent that the garrison had been thoroughly demoralized and insubordinate.

NOT CREDITED.

London, Nov. 15.—The Paris report that Ladysmith had fallen carries no exceptionable evidence, and that some are not believed; nevertheless much anxiety is felt until an authentic version of the latest developments at Ladysmith are received.

CAPT. BEAVERS SAILS.

Special to The Times-Visitor.

New York, Nov. 15.—Capt. W. R. Beavers leaves today at 2 o'clock on the transport Meade from New York to Manila by the Suez route.

DENIES A SISTER TO LOVE.

Romanco of Two Young Immigrants and Disclosure of Falseness Told to Avert a Separation.

The North German Lloyd steamer Trace on her last trip to this port brought among her stowage passengers a dark-haired young woman and a handsome fellow about the same age as his companion.

After in the costume of Galicia, their native land, they arrived at the Barge Office on Saturday. They gave their names as Mosche and Gitte Miller, the former name being claimed by the young man, who said they were brother and sister. They answered satisfactorily all the usual questions put by the Immigration Inspectors regarding birthplace, parents, etc.

The young man's brother, who lives in Brooklyn, came for him, and with the girl they were about to depart when a Miss Proutze, of Brooklyn, arrived at the Barge Office and asked for her sister, who was expected on the Trace. She was taken to the immigrants' quarters, and, regarding the girl, at once cried, "That's my sister." The latter, however, met this explanation with an icy stare. "I have no sister. You must be mistaken," she finally said to Miss Proutze, who was in tears.

Miss Proutze went away, promising, however, to return yesterday, and the brother and sister were held. Miss Proutze returned yesterday with photographs of her sister, and these showed unmistakably the face of Miss Miller. The latter, it so happened, was wearing the identical dress as depicted in the photograph. Confronted by this convincing proof, the young woman confessed that she was not Miss Miller, but Miss Zipe Proutze. She said that she and Miller were engaged to be married at home and decided to come to America. Fearing that if she came alone she would not be admitted, she and Miller decided to come as brother and sister. She was finally allowed to land in charge of her sister. Miller was allowed to go with his brother.—New York Times, 13.

Little three-year-old Bessie ran flying down the front steps with an agonizing cry of "Papa! Papa!" Her father had started downtown, but he stopped and waited.

"What is it, Bessie?" he asked.

"I want to kiss you goodbye," she said.

"Well, I'm waiting for the kiss," he said.

"I'll give it to you," she replied, "just as soon as I can make the picker."

Lisbon, Nov. 15.—Dr. Pestana, director of the Bacteriological Institute, died today from the plague, contracted by waiting on patients.

EWART SITUATION

Probably Not to be Re-appointed—A Rumor

Current Here.

In political circles the talk of Senator Pritchard succeeding Judge Ewart to the Federal Judgeship is being revived. The Washington correspondent of the Greensboro Telegram, after stating that it is not believed that President McKinley will reappoint Judge Ewart, says: "North Carolina people in Washington are convinced that Judge Ewart, if nominated by the President, will not stand any more show in the Senate than he did last winter, and therefore they think it would be unwise for the President to prolong a needless contest which has long since exhausted the patience of the Senate. Judge Ewart personally has many friends in Washington who believe that he has been a victim of political abuse from his enemies in his own party, but at the same time the vast majority of North Carolina people believe that a person appointed to a judgeship should be a man who can command the support of every one, and that above all his personal character should be above reproach."

There is a current rumor here that if Senator Pritchard succeeds Judge Ewart, and Major General George C. Goetz, then Mr. W. S. Hyman, brother-in-law of Senator Pritchard and his private secretary, will get the place as clerk of the District Court here.

HENDERSON'S APPOINTMENTS

Next Speaker Announces Some Future Selections.

Blipopo, Nov. 15.—Next Speaker of the House Henderson announces that he has selected John C. Richards, of Waterbury, as his private secretary, and also announces that Asher C. Hibbs will be named as clerk of the Speaker's table, and Leroy Newby, for some years Mr. Henderson's private secretary, will be the Speaker's clerk.

"STARS FALLING"

Tonight the Event of a Life Time is Confidently Expected.

The people were sadly disappointed last night in not seeing the meteoric shower, but the phenomenon is expected to be tonight.

Mr. Marshall DeLaney Haywood suggests that the fire alarm be turned on at the hour of the phenomenon to awake the inhabitants.

Postmaster C. T. Bailey makes the suggestion that the telephone companies ring up their subscribers to witness the sight.

In the meantime Mr. Von Herрман predicts:

HOBART MUCH BETTER.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 15.—Vice-President Garrett A. Hobart continues to improve. The family now hope for his full recovery. There is no foundation for the report that he will go south.

WEDDING AT ROGER'S STORE.

Two Young Lovers Brave the Anger of The Old Folks and Marry.

There was a marriage at Roger's store, in Wake county, Sunday in which two prominent young people joined themselves together in spite of the objections of the old people. The young girl was Miss Alice Ross, aged sixteen, and Mr. W. A. O'Neal, aged twenty-one. The ceremony was performed at "Squire Q. R. Gully's," whence the young people found it necessary to go to evade the old folks.

Though it is not so said, it is quite probable that their parents will forgive and forget and take the young folks into their love as before they were married.

SHOWERS.

The forecast of the weather bureau for Raleigh and vicinity says: "Showers probable tonight; Thursday fair."

The weather is generally cloudy throughout the east. Light rains occurred during the past 24 hours at most stations in the Lake Region, Ohio valley and as far south as Charleston and Augusta. Fair weather prevails over Texas and the Rocky Mountain slope. The temperature continues moderately high everywhere.

The musical at the rectory of Christ church on Thursday at 8 p. m. promises to be the most enjoyable. The public is cordially invited to come. The voluntary offerings will be devoted to a cause which carries its own appeal. "The H. the case."

A particularly fine portrait in oil, of the late Dr. E. Rank Haywood, of Raleigh, at the last addition to the State Library. A photograph of Raphael Semmes, with his autograph, is a new arrival there. The walls of the reading room are now very nicely covered with portraits, nearly all of Confederate officers.

At the meeting of the school committee on Wednesday three teachers will be selected: West Raleigh, Brooklyn and Raleigh, respectively. Superintendent Moses is authorized to hold an examination hereabout.

Mr. Benjamin Alfred, who came in from Kenly today reports that a small freight wreck occurred near that place this morning. A Southern freight train stopped at the tank to take on water, and it seems that the flagman was not far enough out to stop the Coast Line freight, which was just behind. Four cars were derailed as a result of the collision.

Miss Scott and her mother are now visiting in New York.

North Carolina now ranks fifth in the number of female railroads and in the attendance of tourists. New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Maryland rank sixth.

Before Lieutenant Colonel "Jack" Hayes, so well known at Charlotte and Raleigh, left this country for the Philippines, he remarked that he was going after Agulnido. He has not as yet caught his prey, but, to use a bit of slang, he has "got next to him" by bagging his private secretary, Col. Obbs in his correspondence.

PEPPIER SITUATION.

It will be recalled that several years ago Eugene A. James and Fremont How and were killed in a wreck on the West and North Carolina Railroad. Suit was brought for damages by the widows of these men, Messrs. B. F. Long, of Statesville, Judge Avery and others representing the plaintiffs, and a verdict for heavy damages was secured in Rowan Superior Court. The railroad people secured an injunction from Judge Shanton and carried the case to the Court of Appeals at Richmond. That court decided the case last week and a remarkable and unusual thing about the case is that the attorneys on both sides claim that the decision is in their favor. We shall know later what the result of the decision is. Statesville Landmark.

MOLINEUX TO TESTIFY.

New York, Nov. 15.—The Molineux trial proceeded today with the examinations of witnesses. Not a single juror was sequestered. It is stated that Molineux will go on the stand and tell his own story.

George Q. Cannon, the Utah statesman, takes a deep interest in irrigation, and is a regular attendant at the congresses which are held in the far west to discuss that subject. At one congress a drowsy delegate read a paper on irrigation wells, which he declared always brought water except when they struck a rock. He repeated this statement several times. At the fourth repetition he denied any one to deny the proposition. Cannon barked up and in his full musical voice asked: "How do you account for Moses' success?"

CHASING AGGY STILL

Rebel Chief Was South of San Jacinto Last

HEAVY RAINS AGAIN

Americans Believe that They Have Surrounded the Filipinos but are Not Quite Sure of Aguinaldo.

Manila, Nov. 15.—The heavy rains continue. There is little news from General Lawton owing to the fact that the telegraph is extending only to San Jose. It is known that a recon of Cavite reached Hainburg and another from despatches captured Saturday. Aguinaldo was then reported a twenty hours march south of San Jacinto. He had evidently made preparations to retreat, if necessary, along the coast road, but by holding both routes the Americans believed to possess the escape of the insurgents, except in small detachments over the mountain trails. General MacArthur's scouts north of Tula got close enough to the retreating insurgents to hear the train bearing their movement.

REOPEN CITY HALL.

The Finance Committee will Doubtless Recommend This.

The city finance committee now has under consideration what disposition or use should be made of Metropolitan Hall. A member of the committee said today that the property was entirely too valuable to remain idle. He considers it had business for the city. The plan to cut up the hall into offices does not meet with favor. The city has only recently invested in new halls. It is understood that the finance committee will recommend at the next session of the board that the hall be reopened, the city paying $2500 license tax and paying the hall to whatever companies may desire to appear here. No license is paid on the hall now, so that it can only be given free, that is in consideration of the user paying for the light and heating.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Register of Deeds W. H. Hood today issued the following marriage licenses: Mr. William C. Lindsey, of Durham, and Miss Annie Gresson, of Raleigh; Mr. Clement S. Brindley, and Miss Annie E. Roberts, both of Raleigh; Mr. William J. Holly, of A. S., and Miss Flora Yates, of Wake county; Mr. Ian Fowler and Miss Bessie Spencer, both of St. Matthew's townships.

SHOUBT MIND EXAMINATIONS.

Seaboard Air Line Crosses the Atlantic Coast Line.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 15.—In their rush for Columbia from Cherry to connect here by January 1st, the Seaboard Air Line is not allowing obstacles to stand in its way. The road was prohibited yesterday by the Atlantic Coast Line from crossing its tracks at Cherry. Work was stopped and litigation seem to be going on.

GOING TO JUDGMENT.

Speaking about the stars falling to night, an old citizen said this morning: "I recollect distinctly 60 years ago last night when the stars fell."

The chicken crowd, the negroes were wild and thousands thought judgment day had come. An amusing incident in this connection, he said, was that of an old woman who lived on the lot. His family were looking out the window at the wonderful phenomenon when they spied the old woman coming through the lot to the house. In answer to an inquiry as to where she was going she replied: "I am coming to join the faculty to go to judgment." One of the most ludicrous features was the fact that the old woman had a basket in one hand and held a frying pan in the other.

LOOKED FOR STARS, GOT AN EARTHQUAKE.

Liua, Peru, Nov. 15.—There was no celestial phenomena last night, but a half past twelve this morning came a strong earthquake shock with great rumbling. The people of Liua and Callao were alarmed and rushed into the streets, squares and to the sea beach.

Ex-Judge Augustus Van Wyck, an able and popular member of the Supreme Court bench, though always dignified when presiding in court, he occasionally waived the rule by a little quite fun. A pompous and loud-voiced lawyer rose one morning in Chambers.

"This, if the court please, is a serious case. I am retained in it. Here comes a man, called on a girl and kid. Said she: 'Go ahead. You're not my home. To you I'm only a girl.'"

The case of the Company vs. Railroad will be argued after the cases from the Ninth District are heard.

A SINGULAR CASE.

A Gentleman Marries the Second Time. Is First Wife Found to be Living. Hence he Sought a Divorce.

Second Standard.

There is rather a singular case in our country now somewhat similar to one which appeared in one of the New York papers quite a while ago, involving a lady in an adjoining county.

The case of which we speak is that of Mr. W. S. Craver, who lives out at the Ball mill. Quite a number of years ago he married a lady. They became separated and after a considerable period of time, having reasons to think that his wife was dead, he married a lady named Miss Ella Blackwelder. After his second marriage the first wife was found to be living and he was now a husband to two wives. In order to not violate the law, which would have been dangerous, and giving the light to the case in regard to his suspicion that the first wife was dead, he was at the last term of court granted a divorce to his first wife and the second marriage was declared null.

On last Saturday evening Esq. W. J. McLaughlin, who lives out at the Ball mill, performed the ceremony, inviting again Mr. Craver and Miss Blackwelder. Now Mr. Craver has assumed to these marriage vows, but with only two different brides.

One of the Republican leaders of Kansas is Charles Curtis, of Topeka, well known as the "Indian Congressman" and the "Indian prince." Both nick names are based on truth. Though of New England descent upon his father's side, on the mother's side he is a direct descendant of Louis Gonzal, the chief of the Kansas Indians. He is essentially a self-made man.

He was headblack, newsboy, railway switch puller, hack driver, jockey and hoodler. In these varied callings he made enough money to support and educate himself and help his family. When he was sixteen years old, a turban who had seen the boy ride offered him $75 a month and expenses to ride for him. The temptation was great, but the boy, advised by his old Indian grandmother, refused it and devoted himself to his studies. He worked his way through school and then studied law with Judge Carter. He was admitted to the bar in 1887. He was elected to Congress in 1892. Saturday Evening Post.
