big victory on Modder river and defeated the entire Boer army massed at the river under Command of General Cronje to dispute the passage of the British twenty-two miles south of Kim-berley. British numbered seven thousand, the Boers probably had sbout the same force. No report of the casual-ties has so far been received. After ten hours fighting the Boers were driv-en from their position.

METHUNE'S REPORT.

London, Nov. 29.-General Walker of-ficially reports from Cape Town under date of November 28th, as follows: Methune reports that he reconnoiter ed at five o'clock this morning and found the enemy strongly entrenched, concealed across Modder river. Me-thune had no means of outflanking their position, as the river was full. Therefore artillery commenced action with mounted infantry and guards on the left. These attacked the Boer position, with iwdely extended formation, supported by artillery. "I found my-self in front of the whole Boer force of eight thousand, with two large guns, four Krupps and other pieces," reports Methune. "The naval brigade rendered great assistance at the railway. After ten hours hard fighting, the men being without food and water, fighting under a burning sun, they made the enemy quit their position. General Pole Carew was successful in getting a small party across the river, assisted by three hundred sappers. All the men engaged behaved splendidly in the fight, which was one of the hardest and most trying fights in the annals of the British

FAIR-WAMRER.

For Raleigh and vicinity: Fair, warmer tonight and Thursday. A remarkably extended low pressure A remarkably extended to present area occupies the entire northern sec-tion of the country, with the lowest barometer, 29.38 inches, at St. Paul. Cloudy weather prevails in the Lake region ,with small amounts of rain at a few points. Throughout the south the weather has become fair, with westerly winds on the coast and southerly winds in the interior. The temperature has risen in the Mississipi valley.

SUPREME COURT.

Cases from the Tenth District were argued in the Supreme Court today as follows:

State vs. Railroad, by Attorney Gen-eral, Avery and Avery and Avery and Erwin for State; F. H. Busbee for defendant.

London, Nov. 29.-Methune gained a army. Special mention is due to the is victory on Modder river and de-lartillery." artillery." ANOTHER SMART BRUSH. London, Nov. 29.—A Pretoria des-patch, dated November 27th, says that Commandant Dutoit reports that a British sotle from Kimberley Saturday encountered at Bloenkif a commandant of three hundred. Dutoit hastened to their assistance with a hundred men. Nine burghers were killed, seventeen wounded and some missing. The British left on the field one private and one sergeant. It is reported that the British attempted to leave Kimberley on the east side to assist troops coming from Belmont. A Boer report of the battle at Belmont, received via Lorenzo Marquez, says that Commandant Lubbs was slightly wounded and the British re-paired the damage to the railway. Orange Free State troops were over-wheimed by numbers after a brave stand and compelled to take another position on the other side of the rail-KIMBERLE YREMEVED.

London, Nov. 29.-Great elation is vident in the War Office over Methunc's victory, which is considered de-thunc's victory, which is considered de-cisive as it relieves Kimberley. From Modder river the Kimberley road is comparatively level. It is possible that no further serious stand will be made by the Boers before Kimberley, unless there due to stand at Serfectual they elect to stand at Spytfontein. LADYSMITH FALLEN (?)

LADYSMITH FALLEN (2) The Hague, Nov. 29.—The family of Rotterdam received from a son in Transvani a cable reading: 'I am all right," which, according to prearranged agreement, signifies that Ladysmith has follow has fallen.

BALL GAME. The best game played in Raleigh this season will be witnessed at the Fair grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock sharp between the A. and M. College and Oak Ridge. The following A, and M, team fo observances is thus preserved on the din's log: On Monday morning, May 27, 1578, on board the Ayde, we received all the communion by the minister of Grave-send and prepared as good Christians toward God and resolute men for all fortunes, and toward night we departed toward Tilberry Hope. Here we highly praysed God and altogether upon our knees gave Him due humble and hear-ty thanks, and Maister Wolfall, a learnof many appointed by her Majesty's council to be our minister, made unto us a Godlye sermon, exorting all espe-cially to be thankful to God for His FEATURES strange and miraculous deliverance in those dangerous places. The earliest recorded observance of a similar service within the present terri-tory of the United States was held by the Popham Colony, who settled at Sagadahoc, on the const of Maine, in August, 1607. The quaint record says: Sundaye being the 9th day of August in the morninge the most part of our hole company of both our ships landed on this island, the which we called St. Georges Island, where the cross standeth and thear we heard a sermon delivred unto us by our preacher, giving God thanks for our happy meetinge and safe crrivall into the country and so returned aboard again. FIRST BY A GOVERNOR.

But these were mere thanksgiving services. The real origin of Thanks-giving as a day specially set apart for prayer and rejoicing is attributed to Governor Bradford, the first Governor of Massachusetts Colony, who, in gra-titude for the bountiful harvest of 1621, gave direction for the observance of a day of thanksgiving to be held on December 31 of that year. Here are Governor Bradford's own words to show what they had to be grateful for: They begane now to gather in ye small harvest they had and to fitte up their houses and dwellings against win ter, being all well recovered in health and strength, and had all things in good plenty; for as some were thus employed in affairs abroad, others were ex-ercised in fishing about codd and bass and other fish, of which yey took good store, of which every family had their portion. All ye same, there was no waste. And now began to come in store of foule, as winter approached, of which this place did abound when they came first that afterward decreased by degrees, and beside water fould there was great store of wild Turkies, of which they took many, besides venison. ete. Reside, they had about a peck of meal a weeke to a person, or now, since harvest. Indian corn to ye propor

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S FIRST During the Revolution Thanksgiving became national. Thursday, November 26, for a national observance. This was given at New York on October 3, and may be taken as the pioneer of Presidential Thanks-giving proclamations. Here is an extract from it: Whereas, It is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Al-mighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits and humbly to implore His protection and favor.

Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of No-vember next, to be devoted by the peo-ple of these States to the service of

It is refreshing to know that we are soon to have with us those emperors of comedy, Richards and Pringle's-Rusco and Holland's Big Minstrel Festival, with their sixty ludierously funny comedians, agile and expert dancers, beautiful singers and a score of novelty acts. Monday, December 4th, at the Academy of Music is the date set for their ap-pearance. This organization which started in a modest way some years ago. has through the most liberal kind of management acquired an enviable position in the amusement field and is today conceded to lead the world in its class. They bring with them this year more well-known comedians and novelty acts than have ever before been collected together in one company. Many thousands of dollars have been expended in equipping the production with scenery of the most superb kind, and the costuming is a marvel of elegamee and heauty.
