HYPNOTIZED NEGRO

Appeals for Police Protection From Hypnotist

WALTER MITCHELL HAS A SPELL

A. White Swears that Walter Stole His Watch, but Walter was in the Guard House When the Watch was Taken

Walter Mitchell, a respectable colored man, residing in the Fourth Ward, rushed into the Mayor's office yesterday evening and appealed to his Honor, Mayor Powell, and Chief Mallen for "protection."

He declared that a man employed at the A. and M. College, powerfully, who Mitchell has also been employed, had "hypnotized" him and put a spell upon him, and that he had stolen a watch from him all day. This is a very serious charge, and Mitchell is a very respectable man, and his name is well known in the city.

The Mayor and Chief Mallen, after a long conference, decided to grant Mitchell the protection he requested, and to have a watchman placed in front of his house.

A HOT TIME CAKE WALK

The Carrollton Waiters to Repeat Their Recent Performance

It was in the Carrollton Hotel that the genuine old-fashioned cake walk took place some time since, and how in response to requests from a number who saw the Carrollton Cake Walk the waiters have decided to repeat the performance in Metropolitan Hall on Friday night of this week.

It is a gathering good show that they will present, and the price of admission has been placed at 10, 15 and 25 cents. The 25-cent seats are reserved on the first floor and the box seats is open at Metropolitan and Wayne's drug store. A special section of reserved seats are to be sold exclusively to white people, and the managers of the cake walk promise a good time to all who are present.

The doors will be open at 8:30 p. m., and the performance will begin at 9:00. The advice regarding the cake walk is to pass the time for the benefit of the Beavers' Chapel at Wakefield, this county, of which Rev. R. G. Jones is pastor.

Ernest Jones will lead the cake walk. He is famous for his ability to reproduce the cake-walks of yesteryear, and it is said many of the older people see in Jones the exact reproduction of the old-time cake walk artist.

This partner and the following couples are all good. The spirit of the occasion is in the homes of those who are to participate. The crowd will be orderly, the hall will be warm, the cake walk will be at their best, so a hot time may be expected.

Remember, it is Friday night; the hour is 8:30 p. m.; the place, Metropolitan Hall; the prices 10, 15 and 25 cents; and the object, to raise funds for a church at Wakefield.

CONGRESS

From busy east and homeless west they've gathered once again, From Texas and from Oregon and Florida and Maine They stand where Clay and Sumner stood, where Webster thundered forth.

North Freedom's dome they've gathered from the Southern and the North, One purpose animates them, and one thought is in their breasts, And every patriotic thinks on him the nation's future rests; Each faces a cherished plan to save the country from the dogs, And each is sure that he alone knows how to pull the dogs.

They've left their private cares behind to do the people's will Which each has formulated in his own peculiar bill; They stand where Clay and Webster stood to guard the nation's cause, And while three hundred talk away the rest will pass the laws, —S. E. Kiser, in Chicago Times-Herald.
