Come to Us With Your Troubles.

Everybody has trouble of some sort. Some times we can't get on with them. Do you have gray hair? Does your hair fall out? Do you have any pimples? If so we can cure you, by the use of one or two bottles of Williams' Pink Pills. It makes the hair strong and full of life, and in so doing, brightens the hair, makes it black and it is cured. J. J. WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY

The 22d of February, 1732, was the luckiest day of American history. The next anniversary of Washington's Birthday will be celebrated in our progressive city by playing upon the boards at the Academy of Music the charming play, "A Fiddler's Luck." Why may not this anniversary be a "lucky day" for us all? A talented cast has been selected including Raleigh's favorites, and is being trained by a Boston expert. The play is full of exciting situations; it is drawing, and we were lucky to get it, and hope you will be lucky enough to see it!

W. F. C. ANNIVERSARY.

Invitations have been issued to the 15th anniversary of the literary societies of Wake Forest College to be held Friday, February 24th. At 2 p. m. a debate will be held on the query, "Resolved, That England was justified in making war on the Boers." The debaters are Messrs. Cary, Hollbrook, Barrett and Flack.

The sponsors for the evening are Mr. Woodland Cook and Mr. Weeks Spring field.

Mr. Roscoe Mitchell celebrated his birthday today.

Mr. W. S. Phipps has gone to Greensboro to adjust a fire loss.

It is well to state that Col. J. C. L. Harris, commonly called "The God of War," did not write the communication in yesterday's Times-Visitor signed "The God of War." Another citizen intruded on his den of peace (2).

The statement is made on reliable authority that Supt. of Public Instruction Melrose will support the pending constitutional amendment. Mr. Melrose was seen by a reporter of The Times-Visitor and refused to either confirm or deny the report.

Miss Daisy Young of Morganton is spending this week in Raleigh having her throat treated.

James E. Goodwin, F. L. Smith, Joe C. Wainwright and W. W. Flow signed articles today for the incorporation of a merchandise company at Concord, capital stock $25,000.

REUBEN ROSS CASE

The Fayetteville correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes:

"The Reuben Ross case is truly perplexing. A leading citizen of Reuben county informed your correspondent yesterday that he had never known so great a division of sentiment in the county on any subject. Many prominent men at and around Red Springs, who cherish a disinterested devotion for woman's honor, and who cannot be accused of absolute lawlessness, believe truly in the innocence of Ross, while at Henderson and his vicinity thoughtful, moderate men, who are convinced that Ross should be hung. There is no wonder that the Governor has his hands full in this case."

SWAMP LANDS.

J. B. Blades, of Elizabeth City, was here yesterday with Frank Thompson, of Onslow, his attorney, and bought from the State board of education 200,000 acres of what are known as swamp lands, in Camden, Onslow and Jones counties. On most of the land Blades had for some time had an option. He and his three brothers own and operate nine saw mills. They will cut the timber from the land they have just secured.

"A HEART AS STURDY AS AN OAK."

But what is it the blood which the heart must pump at the rate of 25 times a minute? If the heart is to be sturdy and the nerves strong this blood must be rich and pure.
