

THE COMING OF BABY

Brings joy or pain. Its for the mother to decide. With good health and a strong womanly organism, motherhood but adds to a woman's attractiveness. McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI takes away all terrors by strengthening the vital organs. It fits a mother for baby's coming. By revitalizing the nerve centers it has brought chubby, crowing youngsters to thousands of weak women who feared they were barren. It purifies, heals, regulates and strengthens, and is good for all women at all times. No druggist would be without it. $1.00. McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

Cooper, Delta Co., Texas, Sept. 2, 1898.

For years I have felt that I ought to write you a testimonial for the benefit of women suffering from ailments peculiar to their sex. My wife miscarried with her first child. Her feet, hands, face and whole body swelled so bad she could not stand on her feet. The doctor said she had the dropsy. He doctored her for three or four weeks. I asked him if Wine of Cardui would help her. He said: "It's not worth a d—." Seeing my wife steadily going down hill, I went to our druggist and told him of the doctor's remark. The druggist said his wife owed her life to Wine of Cardui—that it had twice saved her, and for me to take a bottle of it and if it did not help my wife he would give it to me. Before she had taken a whole bottle she was able to pick cotton, and did at times pick 250 lbs. a day. After our next boy was born wife had the falling of the womb. The doctor examined her and said she was so bad she would have to wear a supporter. I thought we would try Wine of Cardui again and got her another bottle, and that bottle brought her back to good health before it was used up. With the next child she used it to prevent miscarriage with good results. After the child was six months old she began to flood badly, and kept it up for months. We got Wine of Cardui again and it brought her around stout and well. Our last little girl is two months old. Wife has been well all the time with aching limbs, weak back and no appetite, trembly spells, etc. We got Wine of Cardui four days ago, and already it is showing its wonderful effect. My wife looks at this great medicine as an "Angel of life." We have gotten many of our friends to use it. The same doctor that said it was no good is now using it in his practice. A. M. EDWARDS.

VACANCY IN THE BOARD ALDERMEN

Chairman Miller of the Finance Committee Resigns.

TO ELECT NEW MEMBER FROM SECOND WARD

New Chairman of Finance Committee Also to Be Chosen—Removal of Mr. Miller From the Ward and City Limits Cause of His Retiring.

The next meeting of the Board of Aldermen to be held Friday, March 2, will be the most important and interesting one held in some time. The most important matter will be the report of the special committee, appointed at the last meeting, composed of Aldermen J. C. Drowry, chairman, J. S. Wynn, Maxwell Gorman, Lynn Wilder, and H. H. Crocker, to evolve a feasible plan of securing an auditorium, and whose report will recommend the sale of the present market house (provided the people by vote recommend it, and $50,000 or more can be secured for it, and the purchase of the present city lot for an auditorium site or city lot; the new market building to be located elsewhere, on one of a half-dozen sites upon which it is recommended the committee secure options for the city prior to the election on the sale of the present market and city.

ALDERMAN MILLER TO RESIGN. Another interesting event will be the formal tender of the resignation of Alderman Henry W. Miller, one of the representatives of the second division of the second ward, and chairman of the Committee on Finance.

Of course a successor will be chosen by the Board, after a suitable person is recommended by the remaining representative from that division, who in this case happens to be Alderman J. C. Drowry. This is the custom which has obtained and it will doubtless be observed gentlemen have been mentioned, we learn, but if any decision has been reached we are not informed. The most eligible and capable man, and the one preferred by the majority of the voters of this division, as near as can be ascertained, is the man Mr. Drowry says he will recommend.

Mr. Miller's resignation will leave a vacancy also in the Finance Committee, whose chairman he was. Who the new member will be remains to be seen. As to the new chairman, one of the two old members will be selected of course—either Mr. W. E. Jones or Mr. Lynn Wilder. The latter too a friend of his stated today does not aspire to the chairmanship, so it can be confidently predicted that Mr. Jones will be the new chairman.

The new municipal fiscal year begins March 1, and so the new chairman will begin his duties at an opportune time. WHY MR. MILLER RESIGNS. The loss of Alderman Miller seems to the city of Raleigh as a thing to be regretted. He has done a deal of labor for the municipality, without compensation of course, as no Alderman receives a cent of pay in any manner for his services. There is a great deal of labor attached to most of the committees, but two of them especially have a vast amount of careful and laborious work, and most of this devolves upon the chairman.

We allude to the chairman and other members of the Finance and Street Committees. Our people, and especially those who often rush into print in criticism of the actions of our "City Fathers" should remember this; and they should also remember that it is impossible to please everyone, and that the man in whose private life who never makes a mistake in some thing of a public, excepting of course the citizen today, and we can assure much that he said.

Mr. Miller recently constructed a handsome residence in the northeastern suburbs of the city, a short distance from the corporate limits. He has now moved into his new residence, which takes him out of the division and the ward he represents. According to the requirements of the city charter this fact makes him ineligible, and he must therefore resign.

THE MAD MAID'S SONG.

Good morning to the day so fair,
Good morning, sir, to you;
Good merrrow to mine own torn hair,
Bedabbled with the dew.

Good morning to this primrose, too,
Good morning to each maid
That will with flowers tumb bestrew
Wherewith my love is laid.

Ah! was to me, was is me!
Black and well-a-day!
For jilt, Sir, find out that hee
Which bore my love away.

I'll seek him there; I know ere this
I'll seek him in your eyes;
Nay, now I think they've made' his grave.

I'll seek him there; I know ere this
The cold, cold earth doth shake him,
But I will go, or send a kiss
By you, Sir, to awake him.

Pray, hurt him not though he be dead;
He knows well who do love him,
And who with green turfs near his head.

And who do rudely move him,
He's soft and tender (pray take heed,
With hands of cowslips bind him,
And bring him home! But 'tis decreed
That I shall never find him.
—Robert Herrick.
