THE LEADER IN THE NEWS AND
IN CITY CIRCULATION.

TIMES-VISITOR TELEPHONES:
Inter-State Phone 179
Bell Telephone 132

Communications or items of news concerning subjects of local interest are desired by this paper and will be published if worthy of space. All such communications should be addressed to The Times-Visitor, and not to individual members of the staff. Names of authors should accompany communications, but will be omitted in publication if desired.

HOW DO THE WOMEN STAND?

The Market House Election is to take place week after next, and it has been announced for some days there has been little interest manifested. Today The Times-Visitor received two communications on the subject, one accompanied by the name of the author with request to withhold same, and the other an anonymous article of a slanderous nature, which cannot be published in these columns so unjust is it towards the men who are opposing the sale.

The first mentioned is printed herewith as the first poem of Spring. It introduces a phase of the subject that has heretofore been given no attention, and is as follows:

To the Editors of The Times-Visitor:
There seems to be little interest manifested in the coming election to determine the action of the city regarding the sale of the city market, which is to be held in this city on the 19th inst.

It seems that the purpose of the election has not been thoroughly understood by the voters of the city, though the women have taken the matter in hand to the extent that they are electorizing in a mild way.

It is the first time that the women of the city have put their hands to the plow and it is understood that some of them are intending to make a wide furrow if it is in their power.

The women are not opposed to the present building site on account of its location, but they are averse to having to buy on the same street, and continually passing by, to be forced to wade the filth that is brought out of the market. Then, too, the odors that are constantly in that neighborhood on account of the market meet with disapproval from the women, and whether they have the right to vote on other occasions or not, they should have a voice in the question that is so soon to come before the people, and they will have.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.
Whether "Old Subscriber" is right or not, or whether the women have entered the fight first, if they do take active interest in the election, and if they are in favor of removing the market to some other site, then the end is nigh.
For when a woman will she will.

New York Commercial.
There is a man in charge of the vaults of a safe deposit company in New York, who, in personal appearance, is the exact counterpart of William M. Tweed, as the big Tammany boss appeared in the days of his prosperity on Manhattan Island. He is very much unlike Tweed, however, in the fact that the property of other people, of which he is the guardian, has no temptation for him.

The News and Observer appeared yesterday morning with a new face. It has new nonpareil and union type, and the appearance of the News and Observer is greatly improved. It is a progressive step and is another evidence that the Observer is attempting to give its State readers the best. With the new type the Observer is able to print about three columns more matter each day than heretofore.

The following advertisement appears in today's Times-Visitor:

"LOST—Two songs taken from a pew in Christ Church. 'A Song of the South' and 'Always.' Owners name written on same. Owner will be pleased to have the music returned by the person who took it from the pew."

This is a little unusual. In having the notice printed there is no reflection intended on any one, but it is thought a little strange and something out of the ordinary for any one to take anything belonging to another, from a church.

The birds are said to be going North at this time, and the flutter of the Dickey Bird's wings will be heard on Saturday.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.
"Kentucky seems to be a pretty lively State just now," remarked the constant reader to his literary friend.
"It is," answered the war correspondent just returned from the front at Frankfort. "When I was there every man I met was either running for office or for his life."—Callier's Weekly.

"He That Stays Does the Business."

All the world admires "staying power." On this quality success depends. The blood is the best friend the heart has, and "faint heart" never won anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best friend the blood ever had; it cleanses the blood of everything. If you would be strong in the race of life and "do the business," you must "stay." Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the struggle easy. It gives clear, strong blood; hence perfect health.

Dizzy Spells.—"Sudden dizzy spells would make my hands and side numb and I could not work. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and am a well man." Fred V. Hulloch, Box 94, South Kent, Ct.

Heartburn.—"After eating I had a full feeling and heartburn. This, with headaches, poor appetite and bad taste in my mouth perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla." C. N. Devoe, Chico, Mont.

Impure Blood.—"I am pleased to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as a tonic and blood medicine. It has cured our family of impure blood." Miss Nellie Hilenbrant, Rochester, N. Y.
