WHAT ONE WOMAN THINKS. If you would not be known to do a thing, don't do it. A shirt-waist trunk is the latest convenience for the summer girl. A woman is often credited with being mad when she is only very much in earnest.

It's strange that the man who knows it all turns his knowledge to so little practical account. Accounts of Fourth of July casualties mingle with patriotic orations in the morning papers. You can learn more about a person when it is five minutes too late than in five years before. We are always particularly pleased with ourselves when some one else voices our opinions. The bathtub is one of the greatest compensations for those who have to stay in town all summer. The small boy who has to stay in bed today because of a burned eye from shooting off firecrackers doesn't think Fourth of July such great fun after all. Wednesday the 11th, is the date of the excursion to Norfolk. Weathers and Christian's over the Southern new route.

DEATH'S HARVEST

MRS. MARY CANDIS STEVENS DIED THIS MORNING

She Was One of the Oldest Citizens of Raleigh—Funerals of the Day.

At the residence of Mr. W. R. Crawford, Mrs. Mary Candis Stevens, wife of the late Capt. Edmond Stevens and mother of Mrs. W. R. Crawford, deceased, died this morning at 5:05 after a painful illness of three months. Mrs. Stevens was born in this county, sixteen miles from Raleigh, in the year 1811. She was the daughter of Wm. Partin and Candis Myatt Partin and out of a family of ten children Mrs. Stevens was the last survivor, having been spared to her loved ones for years after her brothers and sisters and her own four children had gone to their reward. Her husband, Capt. Edmond Stevens, died soon after the Civil War and during the conflict two of their four children died. Mrs. Stevens also survived her two then remaining children, Mrs. W. R. Crawford and Mrs. Jones, mother of Mr. Wayland Jones, of this city. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Stevens has lived with her son-in-law, Mr. W. R. Crawford. Her latter days have been so full of suffering that death came to her as a sweet relief. During all the pain she endured she had a firm, unshaken faith and trust in the Saviour whom she loved and served so faithfully. She has been a member of the Willow Springs Baptist Church, sixteen miles from Raleigh, for more than seventy years and here remains will be taken there and laid to rest in the family burying ground, by the side of her life companion tomorrow.

The five year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Pollard, who live on Letts street, died this morning, and the body will be carried to Cary tomorrow and interred there. Rev. Dr. Pittinger will conduct the service.

HOT IN GOLDSBORO

The Weather Provokes Some Reminiscences There. My Dear Sirs:—How is the weather in Raleigh? Hot as hinges here; that is what we called it when it got up to 104 yesterday, and today reminds of the 2d and 3d of July, 1863, thirty-seven years ago. My old ragged Regiment, the Sixth N. C., and a handful of two of a few other Southern regiments, went over to Gettysburg, Pa., on a visit. Not being invited by the Federal army, we were incited, because we shoved rocks from the wall fence on them while they were in hiding on the other side of the rock fence. We broke their lines. They ran like rabbits, making their way through the town of Gettysburg the best they could. We followed with fixed bayonets until about four or five hundred yards east of the town, when we halted to rest for the next set in the open field. The weather was clear and bright. Our leader said lie down; we did so, and as fast as a lizard, but what should we do then; we could not raise our heads three inches; the minnie balls were whizzing like shaking huckleberries from a bush; our faces were flat on the ground; the sun was so hot on us, instead of the thermometer making 104 it appeared as if it was 401. We thought it out that day. That evening about sunset we concluded to go over to the hill near by to the ball. We crossed two more rock fences and shoved more rocks off to get everything out of our way. Finally we went on the Heights. There was a line of cannons which appeared to be as thick as your fingers on your hand, and they were all pointing towards us. We did not like the way things were going on there, and after the ball was over concluded to go back to Dixie. The weather being so very warm we left for Dixie about one o'clock that night, so as to travel some in the cool part of the day. The 21st of July will be thirty-nine years since our first battle of Manassas, or Bull Run. That was another scorcher. If hot weather is considered, I still have my old army belt I wore during those days. Money could not buy it.

Yours, &c., W. H. LYON. Goldsboro, July 5, 1900.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN

FIGHT OVER DRIVER OF RESCUE CO'S. WAGON

Chief Mahler Names Mr. Hinnant and the Company Petition the Board.

The board of aldermen will meet in regular monthly session tonight. However, the weather has had its effect on the city fathers, and they are not anxious to remain in session many hours such a night as this. Chairman Jones of the finance committee said that committee would have nothing except mere routine business to present.

Chairman Drewry, of the street committee, is expected back in time for tonight's meeting. Evidence has been heard on the charges against Mr. Tom Medlin, overseer of some of the street hands, and the committee may report in this matter.

The Rescue Fire Company will tonight memorialize the board of aldermen in regard to the appointment of a driver of the Rescue wagon. Mr. Joe Creighton was driver of the wagon but he was removed and Chief of the Fire Department Mahler appointed Mr. J. A. Hinnant driver. Mr. Hinnant is considered a good man for the place, but he is not the man that the Rescue Company appear to want. They desired that Mr. Lassiter, who has been sub-driver under Creighton, be appointed instead of Mr. Hinnant. In other words Chief Mahler wants Hinnant and the company want Lassiter, and the members of the company will tonight petition the board of aldermen to give them Lassiter. The matter will probably be referred to the fire committee, of which Alderman Joseph Correll is chairman, for investigation.

WILMINGTON VS. RALEIGH

GAM' OF BALL IN PROGRESS THIS AFTERNOON

Quick Pitches for Raleigh—Mr. Joel Whitaker Leaves Today.

Wilmington is playing Raleigh at the fair grounds this afternoon. The game was called at 4:30. Quick is pitching for the Raleigh team this afternoon.

Raleigh boys are playing on the home team to take the place of Prem and Bernstein, who were released. Wilcox is pitching for the visitors, and is considered a good twirler. Summergill, Wilmington's crack pitcher, has a sprained wrist and is not in the game this afternoon. The Wilmington team is one of the strongest in the league, and our boys will no doubt have a hard time to hold them down. They completely shut Durham out yesterday by a score of 7 to 0. Battle pitched the game for Wilmington yesterday, and did fine work.

The line-up of the Wilmington team today is as follows: McBride, s. s. Stennis, 3 b. Rea, c. f. Hooker, 1. f. Fenner, 1st b. Gwaltney, c. Ward, r. f. Jones, 2d b. Wilcox, p. The Raleigh team today stands: O'Brien, s. Manners, c. Kelly, 1st b. McCaffery, 3d b. Harris, 2d b. Wynne, c. f. Brenig, r. f. Bass, l. f. Quick, p. Person, —

Theilmington team arrived this morning at 10:45. Tarboro won an easy victory from Charlotte yesterday by a score of 8 to 2.

It appears that Mr. S. B. Alexander of Charlotte will be the president of the North Carolina Baseball Association. The Charlotte Observer has the following to say in reference to the matter:

THE NEW PRESIDENT. Apropos of baseball the Observer understands that Mr. S. B. Alexander, Jr., of this city, will be the president of the North Carolina Baseball Association. After Mr. George Stephens declined to accept the presidency, some of the other officials of the association have been considering the question of filling the vacant office. As the retirement of Mr. Stephens leaves Charlotte without official representation on the board it has been deemed advisable to select a president from this city, and Mr. Alexander has been the first and only man mentioned for the place. The manager of the Staesville team, and Mr. Miller, the manager of the Charlotte team, of course, have signified their pleasure in voting for Mr. Alexander, and it is presumed here that he will be elected unanimously.

The executive committee which will shortly decide the Durham-Charlotte-Dickson controversy, is composed of Messrs. F. G. Battle, of Durham; F. W. Habel, of Raleigh; W. S. Howard, of Tarboro, and Eugene Morrison, of Statesville. After his election Mr. Alexander will be a member of this committee.

"Poor woman! She works hard all day, and then she's up nearly all night with the babies." "What's the matter with her husband? Why doesn't he help her?" "Oh! he puts in all his time agitating for an eight-hour day for the workingman."—Standard and Times.

5,000 NATIVE CATHOLICS BUTCHERED

Pekin an Inferno, Streets Flowing with Blood

FOREIGNERS TORTURED AND EXECUTED

All Reports from the East Unite in Confirmation of the Tragedy in Peking—Edict to Exterminate all Foreigners.

London, July 6.—Although the many rumors from the far east are contradictory in most points yet they continue unanimous as to the consummation of the horrible tragedy at Peking. It is now stated that the soldiers butchered five thousand native Catholic converts at the capital. The news comes in a Shanghai dispatch, dated July 5th, and adds that confirmation of these reports is given out by respectable Chinese from Chinan Fu who describe Peking as an inferno, the streets literally running with blood. They confirm the numerous stories of executions and tortures of isolated foreigners. Some of the European soldiers were captured by the mob led by Yang Lu, who advocated moderation, but the soldiers were completely wiped out of existence by Tuan Tung Yi and Tung Fuh Sian, who issued fresh edicts ordering a merciless extermination of all foreigners in the empire.

London, July 6.—Lord Salisbury has obtained an agreement from the German, Italian and Austrian governments to authorize Japan to send a force sufficient for the relief of Peking. Russia has opposed this and the union is really against her. Japan is ready to send one hundred thousand troops to China at once.

REV. MARK GRIER AT CHUCHU FU.

Went Out in the Interior of China Before He Heard of Boxer Troubles. (Charlotte Observer.)

Capt. R. A. Torrance has received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. Dr. L. L. Moore, sent from Chuchu Fu, China, and dated May 29th, stating that Rev. Mark Grier, wife and child, had just arrived there from a recent absence at Shanghai and other places. Mr. Grier is a missionary of the Southern Presbyterian Church and a brother-in-law of Rev. Mr. White, of the A. R. P. Church, of Griffith's.

Mr. Grier's friends in this county had hoped that he had heard of the troubles in north China in time to be warned to remain at Shanghai or at least at Chin King, a city near the head of deep water navigation on the Yang Tse Kiang river, which is guarded by gun-boats of the powers. When Mrs. Moore wrote she had heard nothing of the Boxer troubles. Chuchu Fu is 80 miles to the northward from Chin King, and the only hope that the little party of missionaries there have reached a safe port is that they may have been warned by some native runner. It being reported in the Observer's dispatches some time ago that these runners had been sent out to call in the missionaries in the stations of the Yang Tse valley.

The insurrection has not broken out there but it seems to be smouldering and the viceroys, it is said, may not be able much longer to maintain peace.

LAFAYETTE'S STATUE UNVEILED.

(Baltimore Sun.)

The Fourth was celebrated in Paris by the unveiling, in the presence of a large number of French and American notabilities, of the statue of Lafayette given to France by school children of the United States. The occasion was made a fête which was honored by the presence of President Loubet, who accepted the statue in the name of France and interpreted its significance. In assisting the United States at a time of need Lafayette provided a basis for the friendship of two peoples. Monarchical France, through him and others; placed the colonies in a position to found a republic. The speech of President Loubet was followed by the reading of a congratulatory cablegram from President McKinley, expressing most cordial sentiments, and by an address from Archbishop Ireland, who recounted somewhat in detail our obligations to France for aid in a time of need and described the part Lafayette played in the great drama of 1776-81. There is a statue of Lafayette at Washington erected by the French people, and the presentation of a statue of the hero by the youth of America to France is a proper and timely reciprocation of French generosity.
