MORGAN SAYS CALL CONGRESS.

Democratic Leaders Think The President Needs Aid.

Huntsville, Ala., July 17.—In a letter to a personal friend in Huntsville, Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, gives his opinion on the Chinese question. He says "Expansion by occupancy stops at the border, yet, expansion by influence has occurred in China under the commandment: 'Go ye into all the world,' etc., and we are compelled to support it with all our power and at great expense, without the hope of reward or money.

"It is our duty to protect our people. This demand justifies our course in China; the situation there is too serious to be managed by the President without the aid of Congress, and I am expecting a called session of Congress."

Your best friend can give you no better advice than this: "For impure blood, bad stomach and weak nerves, take Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Prepare for the Twentieth Century:

Each incoming century is an epoch of the past. The nineteenth century ends with 1900. Great preparation and expectation will usher in the year 1901. Making customers at the least possible cost will be one of the great economic questions of the new century. Advertisers in Turner's N. C. Almanac 1901, with its 50,000 circulation, 64 years of reputation and its absolute permanency and you would the problem, for it reaches more homes and business places than any dozen publications in the South, and in point of fact eclipses all other mediums. Only a limited space. It is issued in advance of the coming year.
