TEH DYNAMITED THE CAR DISAGREE ON 2 POINTS

Express Messenger Baxter, However, Concealed Himself and Riddled One Robber

By telegraph to The Times. Council Bluff, Iowa, Oct. 4,-An express, car on the Kansas City express over the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs, brought the body of a dead train robber to this city today, and it was turned over to the police. The robber was riddled with bullets by the express messenger Charles Baxter, in charge of the car, at the moment when the successful dynamiting of the car was almost ac complished.

The train was held up three miles from the city as it ran under a cov ered bridge on Mosquito Creek. The robbers elimbed on the tender, covered the engineer and fireman and the forward end of the train was run half a mile shead.

The express messenger refused to open the door. Two charges of dyna-mite were placed at the door.

The engineer was compelled by a revolver to touch off the first charge which was unsuccessful.

The fireman was compelled to fire the second charge. This blew the car door open. One of the robbers climbed in the car prepared to blow open the safe when Baxter, who had con-cealed himself opposite the side car, in the weeds, waiting an opportunity, shot the robber, firing six shot at him, all of which took effect. Springing out of concealment he attempted to shoot the other robber but the latter escaped.

SUCCESS OF A RALEIGH MAN.

It is very gratifying to the many friends of Dr. Charles R. Turner to note his success in the city of Richmond. He graduated in dentistry a few years ago and was at once taken into copartnership with Dr. Cowarchin, one of the most able and popular den-tists in Richmond, Va. Dr. Turner from the start gave promise of being a very skillful operator, and was soon rewarded with a large and lucrative practice. He has just been elected Professor of Dentistry in the University College of Medicine, located at Richmond. He is a young man of ability and has already earned for himself a good position even among the ablest in his profession in this country. He is the son of Dr. V. E. Turner, of this city. As he is a Ral-eigh young man, The Times feels a special pride in his career.

BRITISH CAPTURE.

Tents Large and Commodious and Rev. W. D. Hubbard, of the Taber. nacle, Dissents From Dr. Marshall's, of the First Church,

View of Miracles and Prayer.

The sermon preached by Rev. Dr. A. A. Marshall last Sunday on the subject of Christian science has excited much comment and discussion topic at the regular Wednesday even-Tabernacle was largely this theme in which several speakers expressed a view antagonistic to Dr. Marshall's position on the subject of miracles and of prayer. Rev. W. D. Hubbard, the pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, read from the twelfth chapter of Romans, and based his talk on the first and second verses of the chapter reading: "1 beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your, bodies a living sacrifice, holy, accept-able unto God, which is your reasonable service, and be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and ac-ceptable, and perfect will of God." Mr. Hubbard first commented on being transformed and the importance and duty of rendering the body the temple of God.

Mr. Hubbard then stated that he had read in the public print the ser-mon of Rev. Dr. A. A. Marshall in the First Baptist church last Sunday morning and was surprised at his atti-tude on the subject of miracles and in regard to answering prayer. He expressed his high regard and love for Dr. Marshall and said that on that very afternoon he had called on Dr. Marshall and had a friendly talk with him on the subject. Mr. Hubbard said he inquired if Dr. Marshan had been correctly quoted in his sermon and Dr. Marshall assured him that his position was correctly stated, namely, that the power of working miracles, which was given by God in apostolic times had been withdrawn and God worked his wonders now through his natural laws, that those laws were not now abrogated in specific instances, but that the phenomenas which God wrought came through his fixed laws. To this view Mr. Hubbard expressed his dissent. The second point on which the pastor of the Tabernacle does not agree with the paster of the . irst Baptist church, is prayer. Dr. Marshall said in his sermon that God did not an-

Within less than three weeks the read force of Wake county will be in a new camp with brand new tents and the very best equipment.

Road Supervisor W. C. McMackin said today that he would, upon the arrival of the new tents, move the offer of ten per cent advance. The throughout city and last night the camp to the Hicks place on the Holleman road, three miles from Raleigh, ing prayer meeting in the Baptist. The new tents are of the very best material obtainable, and will afford abundant accommodation for the prisoners and the horses. The two tents will be 17 feet in height and 30x70 feet in width and length.

The canvass used is heavy and dur-able and cost $375 for the two. The tents have flys attached and the record of the supervisor shows that the health of the prisoners has been better when quartered in tents than in buildings. The tents are warm and comfortable and throughout the vere cold weather last winter even not a case of frost bite or cold hurt oc-Mr. McMackin says that the curred. health of the prisoners for the past eighteen months has been unequaled. There are now forty prisoners on the roads and 8 teams are used. A guard is used to every 10 or 12 men, The road force is now quartered be-yond Whitaker's mill, on Crabtree.

When the new tents arrive and are erected upon the new site, the old tents will be stored away for summer use; this will be a saving to the coun-ty as tents, like everything else, are saved by overhauling and rest.

Mr. MacMackin says that after this shower he will put a squad on the Hillsboro read and get it in first class shape before Fair week. Mr. Mc-Mackin points out that it is the dry weather and not the rain which dam ages the macadamized roads, and it is nscless to work on them in excessive-ly dry weather. The locse stones on the Hillsboro road will be removed and may holes properly filled in.

tion to their employees regarding an West End mine, at Mosanaqua, is now the only mine in the entire region working full handed. Every ton mined is sold in advance.

The strikers today face the seriousless of the strike for the first time. The general counsel in this city, representing twenty three local unions, having fourteen thousand members. have applied to President Mitchell for supplies for the men, and this afternoon President Mitchell will hold a conference with them regarding the best plan to distribute focal at Pottsvill.

All the Reading mines in this county are now tied up. Lincoln Colliers, the last to hold out, failed to resume work this morning. Reading has but one colliery going. North Frank, at Trever-ton, producing about fifty cars daily, which will likely surve the strike. Coal is becoming scarce, and shipments are nearly suspended.

494 MARRIAGES

This Year a Record Breaker but Capt. Hood will Increase the Number.

The fiscal year for the officials of Wake county runs from November 12th to November 12th of the succeeding venr, and although the year is not yet out, the number of marriage enses issued thus far has exceeded the returns for any entire twelve nonths in the past. During the year ending November 12th, 1899, Register of Deeds Hood issued 444 marriage licenses, while up to October 1st, 1900, he has already issued 494, just 50 more than in the previous year and he still has some five weeks left in white. to increase this majority.

New Capt. Hood calls upon all eligible people, young or old, in Raleigh and vicinity, to help him out in this worthy ambition that on the twelfth next November Wake county lay of may proudly boast of 600 marriages which would totally in the year, which would totally eclipse anything in the past. This appeal is personal and it is hoped for the sake of Capt. Hood and this grand old county, that each and every bachelor will contribute to this glorious result. The suggestion has been made to Captain Hood, and he is understood to regard the idea with favor, that a systematic canvass of the county be made and all the licenses possible sold. The only drawback to this plan is the reusal of Capt. Hood to cut the price. He still insists on $3, and refuses to sign his name if only $2.97 is poked in his direction. Several Raleigh men have become interested, however, and are anxious to assist Captain Hood in his record-breaking ambition, and the matter of raising a campaign fund for the promotion of matrimony is under ting. discussion. If some enterprising citizens will raise a suitable fund Cant. Billy Hood can make licenses a bargain for the next few weeks, offering them at $2.75 and drawing the remaining quarter from the general cam-paign fund. This will be of incstimade assistance to Capt. Hood in the canvass in the interest of matrimony which he will institute.

PRETTY PATTERN HATS The Most Fashionable Feminine

wood Higgs & Co.

Headgear on Exhibition, Four Fine Exhibit in Cloaks.

No more exquisite or beautiful hats and feminine headwear have ever been exhibited in Maleigh than these now on display in the millinery department of Messrs. Sherwood Higgs and Company, who already have a State reputation in this line.

Their millinery department is situated on the second hoor, and its rich decorations in white, green, gold and garnet, with the most beautiful pat-tern hats arranged in the most artistic manner, make a picture of rare loveliness

The cream of the world's creations are all there.

Sherwood Higgs & Cd. displayed the latest novelties in French pattern hats, millinery, ready-made sults and wraps dress fabrics and trimmings, ladies' neckwear, fans, belts, etc. While every department had its share of visitors, the millinery and ready-made departments were the center of, attractions.

The general tendency in millinery this coming winter, as indicated by the bass displayed, will be toward large hats, but with flat trimming. Mirror and panne ver-vet and taffeta silks will be the most popular materials. Green, castor, gray and red, ranging in shade from a deep rich gurnet to a flame color, will be the colors nost sought after.

Among the novelties that attracted particular attention are as follows: hat with cape to match displayed on model in north show window was imported by one of the largest millinery houses in New York, being reproduced by Mad-ame Collier, from one of the model hats exhibited at the Paris Exposition. A pla-teau of castor mirror velvet stitched with two natural Amazon plumes falling gracefully from the back, cought with trimmed with a choux of mode and Arabian lace-on bandeau, gold buckle with white erystal velvet.

Another is a Gainsborough, covered with black panne velvet, by Madame Pauyanne, faced underneath with small black ostrich tips, black velevet ribbon on bandeau, caught with rhinestone buckle, drapery of renaissance lace on the bring. rown of appliqued chenille.

Another Russian turban of brown velvet by Madame Josse, faced with white meline, gold lace over top, band of mink fur with tails to fall off on the hair, castor rose on bandeau.

There are cases and tables of pattern hats attractively displayed. Especially oticeable is the table of mourning hats of the finest pattern hats that could be secured. The figure is also clothed with a beautiful cape to match. The window is studded with electric lights and the effect at night is heightened.

$3 a Year,

CONTINUES TOMORROW. The opening, which began this morning, will be continued all day tomorrow. Everybcdy who did not visit this beautiful display should not fail to do so tomorrow. It is a marvelous display and those who fail to go will miss a rare treat. It is such a display as is seen in the largest and most fashionable cities of the North.

M'ADOO--CAMERON

Announced that the Wedding is to Occur Early in November.

The Richmond News of yesterday says that newspapers throughout North Carolina have announced that Miss Frances Hawks Cameron, daughter of Mrs. General Francis H. Cameron, of 315 West Franklin street, this city, had been married to Calvin Dicks McAdco, of Greensboro, N. C. STRIKE AT HAW RIVER

Operatives Demanded that the Superintendent be Discharged.

The Greensboro Telegram says: "It eems that there is to be no ending of the trouble among the cotton mill operatives in this State. Since the organization of labor unions among the employes of North Carolina mills there have been strikes at a number of places, the latest disturbance being reported from Haw River, where all the mills are shut down.

"From reports received here it appears that the operatives were the ag-gressors in the matter. It is said that the employes of one of the mills at that place became dissatisfied with their superintendent and demanded that he be discharged.

"The management refused to neeede to the demand, and as a result, the operatives walked out. The employes of the other mills went out through sympathy for their fellow workmea, resulting in shutting down the three linw River mills.

"Practically all the Haw River cotton mill operatives are members of a union, and strong unions also exist at Graham, Burlington and other places and the display of misses hats. Tables in Alamance county. The other unions and sheives of walking hats are in great are talking of taking up the Haw swer prayers for the sick through the whilwind of miraculous cure, but in the still small voice operating in and by the natural restorative laws of nature, Dr. Marshall contended that God was a prayer-hearing and prayeranswering God, but that he worked his cures in the laws of nature. Mr. Hubbard did not discuss his opposing views on the subject of miracles and prayers, but stated that he felt that Dr. Marshall's position was not biblical and said that he felt it incumhent upon him to express other sentiments, in the language of the scrip-tures he was "sent for the defence of the gospel." Hence Mr. Hubbard said that next Sunday morning he would preach from the text, "Set for the defence of the gospel," found in the 17th verse of 1st chapter of Phillipians, the 16th and 17th verses reading: "The one cerely, supposing to add affliction to of any so-called religion. Mr. N. B. Broughton then expressed his views that God did work miracles now outside of all natural laws. Mr. Hubbard will & doubtless be greeted by a large congregation next Sunday.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of little Nelson, son of Rev, and Mrs. G. F. Smith, was held from the Edenton Street Methodist church last afternoon at 4:30, and was largely attended. The service was conducted jointly by Rev. J. T. Gibbs, Rev. G. T. Adams, and Rev. Eugene Daniel. All the other ministers of the city and many from other denominations at-tended to show their sympathy for the beloved pastor of the Edenton Street church and his wife in their loss, The flowers were profuse, Messrs, C. M. Hughes, S. M. Young, Telfair Horton and Morris Green acted as pall bearers. The body was deposited in the Watson vault in the city
