Mine Operators Openly Opposed to Yielding Another Point

COMPANIES CANNOT AGREE

A Leading Operator Says No One Man Can Control or Influence the Situation.

By telegraph to The Times.
SCARLETON, Pa., Oct. 15.—The mine operators' strike today is far from being settled. The situation is practically as much at sea as it was the day after the strike was declared on. The position of the miners is made clear in the resolutions adopted by the convention. If these concessions are made by the operators, the whole trouble will be at an end, but what will be operators' side of the question which also have to be considered is the fact that the operators of the district are openly opposed to yielding another point to the miners and also that their actions will not be controlled by any of the big companies.

JNO. E. NIEMYER Jr.

Death of a Noble Young Man Last Afternoon.

Mr. John Ernest Niemeyer, Jr., died at the home of his father, Mr. J. E. Niemeyer, 108 West Fourth avenue, Sunday afternoon after an illness of four months, although he had been confined to his room less than three weeks. Mr. Niemeyer was an excellent young man, just on the threshold of 34 years of age, and during these years he has built up a noble example of manly character which his comrades and friends will ever cherish. Only a short time since he was with his companions in the school room and now his journey of life is over.

SERMON TO MASONS

Baptist Tabernacle Sunday Schools Helps Orphanage.

The Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school held a grand rally yesterday morning in the church and the proceeds were donated to the orphanage. The program was unusually large. The program was introduced by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel, and the interment was in the funeral home. This was the first funeral held in the new Presbyterian church and was particularly so, since the deceased was a young man of such bright promise and noble character.

BRYAN IN OHIO

Bryan's Reception Today at New Philadelphia on a Big Scale.

THOUSANDS CHEER HIM

Spoke From Stand in Court House Square. Denounced the Trusts. His Stop at Canton.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, OHIO, Oct. 15.—Bryan's reception here was on a large scale. A visiting delegation carried a banner, saying: "We did not poll Bryan's leg for our fare." Mr. Bryan spoke from a stand in the court house square. Ten thousand people cheered him. His argument was on trusts, making the point that trusts were taking the people's money from them. In defense of the cotton and sugar companies referred to by Republicans, Mr. Bryan said he did not believe in the cotton or the sugar companies. He was present from Harrison, Belmont, Washington, Holmes, Guernsey, Monroe, Morgan and Stark counties.

FIGHT AT DEPOT

An Affray Occurs as West Bound Southern Enters.

This morning as the west-bound Southern Railway train entered the Union shed a surprising number of men were struggling to stop a fight in progress in the depot. Mr. M.A. Moser was at the station on his way to Durham, where he has a contract for some work. The Haywood orchestra, colored, was there to take the same train. One of the Haywood brothers ran into Mr. Moser and as he thought attempted to push him out of the way. Mr. Moser resisted and for a minute blows rained fast. The negro had an umbrella in his hand and broke it in striking Mr. Moser. The latter, however, struck the negro several square blows, and knocked a bottle as he had into a thousand fragments. A dozen men surged between them and they were finally separated and both led for Durham on the same train in separate cars.

POLICE DOCKET

Budd Gets a Time of $12.25 for His Saturday Rowdiness

NINETY DAYS FOR WIMBISH

Two Negro Women in an Affray and One Proves an Accurate Marksman.

Mayor Powell had a full Monday morning docket today, all grades of offenders being represented. The first name on the list was Bryan Budd, a young white boy aged seven years, who engaged in most outrageous conduct Saturday evening in North Raleigh. He was evidently intoxicated and amused himself by chasing ladies on the street and trying to make them walk with him. A half dozen ladies were badly frightened by his behavior. Budd was arrested and sent Sunday in jail but this morning it seems that the complaint against him had all been withdrawn. He comes from a good family and claims Durham as his home. Budd said that he was under the influence of a powerful drug and did not know what he was doing. The Mayor fined him $12.25 for being disorderly on the street.

BRYAN---NEW YORK

Monster Preparations for the Great Democratic Leader's Reception Tomorrow.

FOUR GREAT MEETINGS

The Most Remarkable Demonstration Ever Planned. Fully 200,000 to Participate.

By telegraph to The Times.
NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Bryan's reception in New York tomorrow night will be the most remarkable of a kind ever witnessed, if the plans of Croker and his advisers go through as expected. Two hundred thousand persons, it is expected, will attend the four meetings held simultaneously at Madison Square Garden, Tammany Hall, Cooper Union and Madison Avenue and 24th Street. The city is to be ablaze with red fire and fireworks, while the kites bearing flags with inscriptions of welcome will fly high. Searchlights are to be trained on flags so that the words can be read by thousands who will throng the streets. Bryan will arrive at the Grand Central depot at 2:45 p. m. Tuesday. He will be accompanied by Hon. A. C. Stevenson, Webster Davis and Norman E. Mack. Visitors will be met by the Tammany Hall reception committee, headed by Croker and escorted to the Hoffman House, where suites have been engaged. During the afternoon Bryan will receive calls from his personal friends. At 4 o'clock Bryan will be the guest of Mr. Croker at dinner, which is to be served in the Moorish room. It will be a sumptuous feast and will cost Croker at least $50 a plate.
