POWDER QUESTION.

Promises to Delay Indefinitely the Settlement of the Coal Strike

JEDDO COLLIERY RAIDED

Eight Hundred Strikers Marched Upon it. Officials Expect Work to Resume Monday

By telegraph to The Times. HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 19.—About 800 strikers made a raid on Market's Jeddo colliery this morning. They were led by "Mother" Jones and were quite successful. The mines are still operating, but with a greatly reduced force. The raid this morning was unexpected, and Sheriff Harvey, with a big posse, was on hand to prevent disorder.

The strikers went to the property line, where the sheriff and his men were stationed, and made no attempt to pass through. They did their missionary work on the outside of the line and induced many miners not to go to work. There were several scrimmages between the miners and strikers, but none that were serious.

PREPARING TO RESUME.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 19.—Despite rumors that a settlement of the strike may be delayed for some time, engineers, firemen and other company men are being notified to report for work, and mules are being taken into the mines. The officials fully expect a resumption of work Monday or Tuesday.

SMALL COLLIERIES RESUME.

MAHANOY CITY, Pa., Oct. 19.—The miners are patiently waiting for the notice from President Mitchell to resume work, which he promises when the other leading coal companies fall into line with the Reading and Lehigh. At Minersville yesterday a Standard washer started up with good sized force, but close again after being threatened by strikers. Cambridge colliery, a small concern, at Shenandoah, employing 130 men, resumed operations yesterday to relieve the coal famine.

Not a pound of the product from that place is leaving the city. The Main and Lincoln washeries at Tremont are also working. Through the Panther Creek Valley all the collieries are working full handed this morning.

CONFERENCE TODAY.

Superintendent Zehner and Ferguson Farquhar, attorney for the Lehigh Coal Navigation Company, and General Gobin held a consultation this morning, but nothing was given out.

THE POWDER QUESTION.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 19.—The bright prospects of a speedy settlement of the strike in view, the past few days are once more becoming clouded, and it now looks as if there is to be a prolonged controversy of the vexed powder question, which the miners in the late convention left open for future settlement. A meeting of representatives of the big companies and a number of the smaller ones was held here yesterday, at which it was decided to insist on the powder question being settled before work is resumed.

BODY FOUND IN SECTIONS

LYNN, MASS., Oct. 19.—Last evening the head and arms and missing parts of the body of George Bailey were found floating in the Bridge pond. Inside the bag containing the head was found a rock weighing about twenty pounds. The remains were taken to local undertakers to await action by the coroner.

But the Aged Statesman Has Not Rallied

By telegraph to The Times. WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The physician of Hon. John Sherman, ex-Secretary of State, remained with him all last night, and left the house only for an hour this morning. FOR THE ORPHANAGE

What is Required to Meet its Pressing Needs

The Methodist Orphanage is about ready for the furnishings, and the management asks The Times to publish this statement of the present needs of the institution: Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 18, 1900. To Our Many Friends Throughout the Conference:

I would say that we need the following articles in the furnishing of the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh, N. C.:

From bedstead, three-quarter size; bed-clothing, mattresses, to suit—or bed-ticking, pillows, and pillow-slips, or bleaching to make them; sheets, or sheeting; comforts, or cloth to make them; counterpanes or spreads; towels, table cloths, and everything in a dining room; everything in a cook room; wash room, laundry, pantry, bed rooms and school room and halls; carpets, druggets, matting, oilcloth.

Any one wishing to furnish a bed and bed-clothing can do so by sending us fifteen dollars. We will have the name put on it—memorial—if so desired.

Persons, or societies, or Sunday schools, or churches, wishing to furnish a room, and requiring room, etc.

The second for chapel to seat 200; school rooms to seat 50 pupils, with sliding walls next to chapel.

Third, for school or industrial rooms, same size as the school rooms on the second floor.

To front four ways, with porch for each front—halls running through each way.

Basis, $10,000.

Our purpose is to put the boys in this building until our second cottage is built. If any friend wishes to have that put up, let him furnish the money. It shall bear his name or any name that he or she wishes it to have.

STRIKE QUIET TODAY.

But Strikers Make Some Threats Against Deserters.

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES. BURLINGTON, Oct. 19.—Yesterday was "gala day" at the Alliance Fair, and there was the largest crowd in its history. The free dog performance was enjoyed by all, and the races were splendid. The directors are wearing broad smiles as this is the best fair ever held here.

THE UNION STRIKE, OR "LOCK-OUT," IS QUIET TODAY.

Trouble is expected, however, as your correspondent has heard the operatives assert that they would have to attend to a few persons before it was settled, as some of the union men are speaking of withdrawing and resuming work the last of this week.

STATE REFORMATORY

Organize to Secure the Establishment of a Permanent Reformatory

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

All Denominations Interested in the Work. Plan for the Organization.

A North Carolina Reformatory Association will be organized to work actively for the establishment of an institution to which youthful criminals can be sent instead of to the penitentiary or work-houses of the State. This matter will be brought before the legislature in the strongest light possible.

Last Tuesday night representatives of all the churches and religious societies of the city held a meeting to consider forming a State reformatory association. Rev. J. L. Foster presided and Mr. C. D. Roberts was secretary. A committee was then appointed to formulate a plan and report back at a later meeting.

This committee, composed of Rev. Geo. F. Smith, W. H. Worth, S. W. Whiting, Rev. G. T. Adams, Dr. A. W. Curtis, Rev. Baylus Cade and Mrs. I. C. Blair, met last night in the State Treasurer's office. Mr. W. H. Worth was made chairman and Mr. Baylus Cade secretary. The committee agreed to report that the "North Carolina Reformatory Association" be organized, with the object of securing the establishment by law of a State reformatory for youthful criminals of both sex and for both races.

The committee will further recommend that the officers of the association be a President, a Secretary and Treasurer and one Vice-President for each Christian denomination and society within the State; and these officers shall constitute a central committee of the association.

There shall also be an executive committee of seven, four of whom shall constitute a quorum. A majority of this committee must live in or near Raleigh.

The report of this committee will be considered at the mass meeting to be held Tuesday night, October 30th.

TREASURER WILL PAY

Theophilus White Can Get His Money When he asks

State Treasurer Worth said this morning that he would pay the warrant for Theophilus White's salary as Shell Fish Commissioner whenever it is presented from the Auditor's office, and that as yet it had never been brought to him. This he will do in obedience to a mandamus from the Supreme Court last evening ordering him to pay it. The Legislature passed an act forbidding the payment of this salary to White, but the Supreme Court commands it and the Treasurer is not ready to assail the Supreme Court. He says that when the Legislature meets he will show the mandamus and the opinions of attorneys to justify the payment.

ROOSEVELT RESUMES

Questionable Whether He Can Stand the Strain Much Longer

By telegraph to The Times. MASON CITY, KY., Oct. 19.—In spite of the indications last night at Parkersburg that Roosevelt's voice and nerves were going to pieces, the Governor resumed work this morning at Ravenswood, with a speech from the rear platform. He was in good voice. This he will make ten speeches today and spend nine or ten days in New York, and still be in trim for the great Madison Square Garden meeting October 26th, is questionable.
