FINANCIAL SIDE: However, this was an exceedingly busy day for Secretary Pogue and Treasurer Denson, and they were in their office on the grounds bright and early. Capt. Denson directed the re-moval of exhibits with skill and up to noon not a single complaint had been made of lost or damaged articles.

Secretary Pogue said to a reporter: "Yes, the Fair has been a financial success, too, although it is impossible to make a statement now; but we can say that the society was never in betcondition. Last year we paid off the interest for a year and a half, and this year we will be able to do equal-ly as well. The society is getting out of the woods and confidence in its credit re-established."

Supposed Murderers of Rice Held for Forgery

By telegraph to The Times NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Albert T. Patrick and Charles F. Jones, charged with forgery in the Rice will case, will have to stand trial. Magistrate Brann today held them both in $10,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury on the technical charge of forgery in the second degree.
William M. Rice, the eccentric and wealthy millionaire, died on September 27th. Jones, his valet, was the only one at his bedside. The day following Patrick, Rice's New York lawyer, attempted to pass a check for $25,000, purporting to be signed by Rice. The hand writing experts have pronounced the check a for gery. Physicians are examining the vital parts of the late millionaire in search of
