JONES' CONFESSION.

Millionaire Rice's Valet Confesses to District Attorney Osborne.

GIVEN "THIRD DEGREE."

As a Result There Will be no Inquest and the Case Will Go to the Grand Jury.

By telegraph to The Times. NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Charles F. Jones, the valet of millionaire Wm. Marsh Rice, who died under circumstances that indicated foul play, after making a will that turned his millions over to Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, has broken down, it is stated, and confessed. As a result of this there will be no inquest, and the case can go directly to the grand jury. That body will consider it today.

OSBORNE WITH JONES.

Assistant District Attorney Osborne and Chief of Detectives McKinley, had a star chamber session with Jones Tuesday night, lasting from 9 p. m. till 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. Jones was put through the "third degree," advised to confess and finally agreed to consider the proposition, and slept over it. Last night Jones was brought to Osborne's private office, and there, it is stated, in the presence of Osborne, McKinley, Capt. Baker, the Texas lawyer of the Rice hers, and two other lawyers, he made a full confession.

JONES ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Charles F. Jones, valet of the late millionaire William M. Rice, attempted suicide this morning. At 4 o'clock this morning he was found with his throat cut from ear to ear. He did it with a pen-knife. He was hurried to Bellevue hospital. The doctors say his wounds are not fatal.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES.

Albatross Breaks Deep Dredging Records.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Nov. 1.—The United States Fish Commission steamer "Albatross" has returned from a 14-month cruise. Much of the time she has been in the Pacific. Some highly important discoveries were made during the voyage, and the record for deep sea dredging was broken. At a point in the South Pacific, 50 miles east of Tonga Island, the "Albatross" dragged the bottom of the sea at a depth of 4,200 fathoms or five statute miles. The best previous record was 2,000 fathoms. The "Albatross" also made the important discovery that most of the islands in the South Pacific are misplaced from two to twelve miles by the charts at present in use.

LAUNCH "LAWRENCE."

The Torpedo Boat Destroyer Named for the Gallant Captain

By telegraph to The Times. WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Invitations have been issued to witness the launching of the United States torpedo boat destroyer "Lawrence," which will take place at Weymouth, Massachusetts, November 7th, at the yards of the Fore River Engine Company. The boat is named in honor of Captain Lawrence of the old United States navy, who became known as "Don't Give Up Ship" Lawrence, because of his remark on an interesting occasion. One of his descendants, Miss Ruth Lawrence, will christen the boat.

BOERS STILL ACTIVE.

Capture British Outpost and Loot a Train.

By telegraph to The Times. CAPE TOWN, Nov. 1.—A telegram from Krantstad, Orange River Colony, says the Boers captured and later released a British outpost of ninety men there. Afterwards they looted and burned a mail train.

THE TREASURY STATEMENT.

BUY FROM US.

By telegraph to The Times. GLASGOW, Nov. 1.—The Clyde shipbuilders have placed orders for 150,000 tons of shipbuilding material in the United States, this saving $5,000,000 pounds sterling on prices of material in Scotland.

Considerable interest is shown in the football game between the University of North Carolina and the University of Georgia.

MCKINLEY'S HALLOWEEN.

Youngsters Make Merry in the Famous Front Yard at Canton.

PUMPKINS AND HORNS.

They Called for a Speech But President Didn't Respond.

By telegraph to The Times. CANTON, OHIO, Nov. 1.—Fifty children gathered in front of President McKinley's yard last night, with pumpkin lanterns and tin horns, to let the President and Mrs. McKinley know that it was Halloween. The dignity about the place was so thick that they were afraid at first to break through it and enter the yard. They stood outside and cheered. Finally the more venturesome ones led the way to the famous front porch. The President and Mrs. McKinley appeared at the door. A seven year old lad, thoroughly American in spirit, piped out: "Speech."

ROOSEVELT ON DECENCY.

ATTICA, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Governor Roosevelt addressed an attentive audience here today. The theme of his remarks was prosperity and decency in politics.

SILVER SPRINGS.

Governor Roosevelt was welcomed by an enthusiastic crowd of 300 at Warsaw. The Governor spoke from a stand. He excoriated Richard Croker for inciting men to violence in order to upset the verdict of the people next Tuesday. He said if Mr. Bryan had a plurality of one in New York he would as the executive, see that his count was protected. The same he said, would apply to his own party. The Governor devoted ten minutes to the issues of the campaign.

TYPHOON KILLS HUNDREDS.

Storm on Coast of Annam Causes Great Loss of Life.

By telegraph to The Times. HONG KONG, Nov. 1.—A typhoon has occurred at Tourane, Annam, causing vast destruction. Sixteen hundred persons are reported to have perished, and 4,600 were rendered homeless. These typhoons are the most terrible storms in the world, and occur at intervals all along the coast of the east as far north as Japan and China. They are sometimes accompanied by tidal waves, and always cause great destruction to human life.

MARRIED IN DEATH CHAMBER

A Strange Wedding Ceremony in Baltimore

BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 1.—A strange wedding took place in Hampden yesterday. James E. Whykins stood beside the bed of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Whykins, and was married to Miss Edith M. Shook. Mrs. Whykins died Tuesday. Before her death she desired to see her only son married to the bride of his choice. All the arrangements were made, but Mrs. Whykins died before the marriage could be consummated.

STABBED TO DEATH.

Germans Who Killed Chinese Forgot They Were Men.

By telegraph to The Times. BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The papers here publish a letter from a German soldier in China, part of which is as follows: "We captured on Sunday seventy-four Chinese, who had killed the German patrol. They were sentenced to death, and in order to save cartridges, we were to stab them to death with bayonets. It is impossible to describe the fearful slaughter. We forgot that we had once been men."

MISSIONARY CANTATA.

The missionary cantata given at the Christian church some time ago under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Foster, will be repeated Friday evening at eight o'clock. No admission fee will be charged, but an offering as before will be taken for missions. Many requests have been made for the repetition. Public cordially invited. Doors open at 7:30 p. m.

ARRANGING THE BOOKS

Miss Abbott of Neb. to Classify Volumes in Raney Library

Miss Abbott of Lincoln, Nebraska, and her mother arrived in Raleigh this morning. Miss Abbott is an expert librarian and she has come to Raleigh to classify, arrange and superintend the placing of the books in the Olivia Raney Library. This work is her specialty. A number of young ladies of this city, a number abundantly sufficient, have volunteered their services to assist Miss Abbott and they will work under her direction whenever their presence can be of advantage.

RUSSIAN COUNTERFEITS.

Quantities of Spurious Notes Made in Hamburg.

By telegraph to The Times. HAMBURG, Nov. 1.—The Russian secret police have discovered a stupendous counterfeiting plant among the Polish and Russian refugees here. The counterfeiting scheme was engineered by an expert lithographer, who was supplied with models of Russian treasury note paper stolen from the art section of the Paris Exposition.

APPROVES LOVE MATCH.

Emperor of Austria to Arch-Duchess Stephanie.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—The Emperor Franz Joseph recently received the Countess Lovlavi (formerly the Arch-Duchess Stephanie), and after promising to make Lovlavi Prince, made the following remarkable statement: "I thoroughly approve of your marriage and believe in love matches. Royalties have learned to distrust political marriages. All young, inexperienced people, princesses included, should, I believe, within certain limits, marry just who they please."

BAKER-BOND MARRIAGE.

Last evening at the residence of Rev. W. D. Hubbard, on Newbern avenue, Miss Edna Baker and Mr. N. G. Bond, both of this city, were united in marriage. The bride and groom are both popular young people and their hosts of friends extend to them hearty congratulations.

DEPOT ORDINANCE.

Mayor Powell had two huckmen up again today for violation of the depot ordinance. This city statute has to be rigidly enforced for the safety of all concerned.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Col. A. B. Andrews Ends a Quarter of a Century's R. R. Service

This morning was the twenty-fifth anniversary of Col. A. B. Andrews' connection with what is now the Southern Railway system, and the few extremely intimate friends of the Colonel who were aware of the significance of this day extended to him their hearty congratulations. A quarter of a century ago this morning Colonel Andrews became superintendent of the North Carolina division, from Goldsboro to Greensboro of what was then the Richmond and Danville Railroad. What changes these years have brought! This North Carolina road is now a part of the great Southern Railway system, with its 6,000 miles of track, and Col. Andrews has risen steadily with the road and contributed to its growth and prosperity until he now occupies the position of first vice-president of this great corporation, the highest office in railroad circles ever held by a North Carolinian.

HAD GOOD CROWD.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 Attend the Colored State Fair.

The colored State fair had a fine crowd today. The visitors from other towns came in on the morning trains, and was swelled by the crowd from the city. The threatening weather doubtless kept many away, but there were between two and three thousand admissions to the grounds today. The Midway was well filled with people, and there was a considerable crowd in Floral Hall. There are some twenty improvised restaurants and fruit stands on the grounds, and they did a pretty good business. The fairs who sell rings to throw at canes and knives, the photograph man, the Filipino boy, the man who "eats-anything" and a number of other Midway attractions furnished fun for the crowd. The man with the rubber balls was also on hand, and the colored people amused themselves much after the manner of white people at a fair.

A CREDITABLE PARADE.

President Dudley Delivers an Address. Successful Balloon Ascension.

The heavy clouds prevented the balloon from ascending to a very great height, and it came down very quickly. The ascension was a very pretty sight. The procession to the grounds this morning was very creditable. It was led by the chief marshal, James H. Jones, with twenty mounted assistant marshals. The Greensboro band and the Goldsboro orchestra furnished the music, while a number of carriages containing prominent colored citizens followed the bands. McDaniel, the trick bicycle rider, executed many evolutions on his wheel, creating much amusement. He was followed by a large crowd of little negro boys.

TRIED AT RALEIGH

Case of J. L. York Transferred to This City.

Special to The Times. WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 1.—The case of J. L. York, for using the mails to defraud, was today transferred to Raleigh. It will be heard at the December term of the court, beginning the first Monday. The case has excited much interest. York was brought here for safe keeping, some time before the court opened.

RAILROAD CASE TRIED.

Today's session of the Superior Court, Judge Robinson presiding, was consumed with the case of J. M. Marks against the Cape Fear and Northern Railroad Company for damages he received in an accident. Judge T. B. Womack represents the plaintiff and Messrs. H. E. Norris and Armistead Jones the railroad. When the court took a recess until this afternoon the case was not finished.

TO BE REPEATED.

The beautiful little missionary cantata, "Faith, Hope and Love," will be repeated by request next Friday night at the Christian church. All are cordially invited to be present. No admission. An offering for missions will be taken.

THE LITERARY ASSOCIATION.

The register of the State Literary Association is open at Robert Simpson's drug store, in the Raney Library building. A number of members have already placed their signatures in the book, and it is hoped that all will do so. Some 125 persons have already joined the association. It should easily have a thousand members if all who are interested will join.

RALEIGH ASSOCIATION.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard, Rev. O. L. Stringfield and Mr. John E. Ray left this morning for Benson, Johnston county, where the Raleigh Baptist Association will be held. Several others from the Baptist Tabernacle, which is in this association, will go down this afternoon.

ALVORD IN FEDERAL HANDS.

By telegraph to The Times. NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—It has been set off that Cornelius L. Alvord, the $70,000 absconder, will be turned over to the Federal authorities for punishment.

THIS IS ALL SAINTS DAY.

HOW HICKS FELL

A Raleigh Boy Writes Graphic Description of Campaign in China

Particulars have been received of the death of Wyatt Hicks, the brave Raleigh boy who lost his life August 6th last in the battle of Yang Tsien, China. The bare news of his death was wired by the War Department to the young man's father in this city, but he never learned the facts attending his son's end until a few days since when the mail brought him a letter from far away Peking, a letter written by a stranger to the recipient, but bound in friendship because of the love which both bore for the dead. But more remarkable still the author of this description of the campaign in China that cost the Raleigh boy his life, was a comrade, a fellow citizen and a former resident of Raleigh. Wyatt Hicks served in Company I, of the 14th Regiment, and Joseph D. Fuquay served in Company I, of the same regiment, and they were the only men from this State in that entire regiment. Joseph Fuquay is a native of this county near the Harnett line, and for more than two years worked in Raleigh. In 1897 and '98 he clerked in the Southern Law Book Exchange. Mr. Fuquay served in the American-Spanish war and had contemplated entering Wake Forest College, but enlisted in the United States Army and was sent to the Philippines.

DAGGERT'S BRAVE CHARGE

Joe Fuquay Tells of the Death of Wyatt Hicks and the Chinese Fights.

His letter indicated to the father of Wyatt Hicks, is dated at Peking, September 1st, 1900. Mr. Fuquay gives such a fine description of the campaign in China that, omitting his introduction expressing sympathy to Mr. Hicks, whom he felt for because of his fondness for his son, the Times is permitted to print the following from Mr. Fuquay's letter: THEIR COMRADESHIP.

The sad tidings of course have already reached you regarding the death of your son, Wyatt G. Hicks, killed on August 6th, in the battle of Yang Tsien. Our relations were most intimate, although he was a member of Company I and I of Company I, both in the 14th Regiment. Our acquaintance was formed in the Philippines and both having been reared in Wake county and, besides I had also lived in Raleigh nearly two years, we naturally grew to be intimate friends. Companionship with Hicks seemed like being back among relatives and friends. We were the only men in the regiment from Central or Eastern Carolina so far as we were able to learn. Hicks was an exceptionally interesting talker, and his was a cheerful and kindly disposition. As a soldier he was honest and faithful, without an enemy in the regiment.

SHOULDERS TOMORROW
