

Today's News Today served at your Tea Table at an average cost of One Cent a Day.

The Raleigh Times.

And EVENING VISITOR. Established 1879.

The Times' Circulation in the City of Raleigh is Double that of any Other Newspaper. It Covers the City like a Blanket.

Whole No. 9,370.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5, 1900

$3 a Year.

CLOSE OF THE GREAT CAMPAIGN

Middle States are Debatable Ground

--Simmons and Carr Both Claim State--

Tickets and Polling Places

--Probabilities as Seen by The Times.

Tomorrow is election day and the polls will open at the several polling places at sunrise, which is 6:27 a. m., and continue open until sunset, 5 o'clock p. m., according to Turner's N. C. Almanac. The same rule governs the Senatorial primary. No trouble is anticipated at the election in Wake and there will be little opposition to the Democratic National and Congressional tickets. The Senatorial primary, however, promises to furnish amusement for the disinterested voter with a hankering for excitement. According to the law the saloons of the city will close at 6:27 o'clock on Monday evening and will not open until 5 o'clock the morning following election. Giving away, selling or treating during the prohibitory period is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 and not exceeding $1,000. Upon the whole the election promises to be very quiet unless the Senatorial primary makes it otherwise.

WHO CAN VOTE IN THE PRIMARY.

Any white man who voted for Aycock and the Constitutional Amendment in August. Any white man who votes for Bryan and Stevenson.

THE BETTING.

The Senatorial primary continues the one absorbing topic and it over-shadowed all else. There was some betting on the national result and two large wagers were made. One out of town man made a bet of $225 against $50 each that McKinley would be elected. The odds on McKinley today are from 4 to 5 against one. The betting on Maryland was stated as two to one on McKinley this morning.

PROBABILITIES.

Bryan's majority in North Carolina will be 20,000 to 20,000. The Democrats will carry the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth districts. Eight and ninth districts doubtful, with chances favoring Democrats in Eighth and Republicans in Ninth. Poa's majority in this district will probably be the largest on record.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States: Augustus H. Price, Seventh Congressional District; John R. McCarty, Seventh Congressional District; Thomas P. Wilcox, First Congressional District; Edgar A. Simkins, Second Congressional District; Richard S. White, Third Congressional District; Luren D. Mendenhall, Fourth Congressional District; Robert D. Douglas, Fifth Congressional District; Daniel K. Pope, Sixth Congressional District; John L. Rendleman, Seventh Congressional District; Frank A. Linney, Eighth Congressional District; Charles C. Boone, Ninth Congressional District.

POPULIST TICKET.

Electors at Large, Geo. E. Boggs, of Haywood; V. N. Sewall, of Duplin, 1st district; A. J. Moore, of Pitt; 2d district; J. A. Mowbray, of Lenoir; 3d district; S. C. Frank, of Onslow; 4th district; J. E. Spence, of Chatham; 5th district; T. J. Odham, of Orange; 6th district; S. A. Edmund, of Robeson; 7th district; L. A. Lawrence, of Iredell; 8th district; S. C. Kirby, of Burke; 9th district; Lindsay Ferguson, of Rutherford.

PROHIBITIONISTS.

An electoral ticket for John G. Wooley, the prohibition nominee for President, is said to be out but not one has as yet appeared in Raleigh. Rev. Henry Sheets, of Lexington, wrote to the Secretary of State some time since for information as to the size of the ballot, the paper, etc., and a copy of the law was sent him.

CONGRESSIONAL TICKETS.

The Democrats are counting on only two Congressmen from this State, and nine town districts are in doubt; the eighth and ninth. This Congressional no offices are:

Democrats, districts, 1, J. H. Small, 2, Claude Kitchin; 3, C. A. Thomas; 4, E. W. Poo; 5, W. W. Kitchin; 6, J. D. Bellamy; 7, Thos. Kluttz; 8, J. C. Huxton; 9, W. T. Crawford.

Republican--Districts, 1, Meekins, Ind. and a regular nominee; 2, J. J. Martin; 3, A. H. Sheppard; 4, J. A. Gales; 5, J. R. Joyce; 6, O. H. Dockery; 7, J. A. Horton; 8, Spencer Blackburn and J. B. Fortson, independent; 9, J. M. Moody.

Populists--Have only four candidates in districts as follows: 3, J. E. Fowler; 4, J. J. Jenkins; 5, J. T. B. Hoover; 7, A. C. Shuford.

The fight is in the Eighth and Ninth districts, but Huxton is considered perfectly safe in the 8th and chances are even the 9th between Crawford and Moody, with the advantage in favor of the Democratic nominee.

POLLING PLACES IN THE CITY.

First Ward, Div. 1--Capital Fire House;

THE LAST DAY.

Bryan Begins the Last Series of Speeches of the Campaign.

By telegraph to The Times.
LEXINGTON, N. C., Nov. 5.--Col. Bryan left here at 5:45 o'clock this morning, over the Burlington road, for his series of speeches during the campaign of 1900. His trip will be through a section of the State, which is considered extremely close politically. He will speak at Fairmont, Harvard, Minden, Holbrooke, Wilcox, Blue Hill, Hastings, Aurora and Seaward.

Bryan will return here at 6 o'clock, and speak in the Postoffice Square Park. He will then leave for Omaha, where he will make six speeches tonight.

Gov. Poyner, Congressman Stark and Attorney General Smyth, accompanied the candidate today. Bryan is extremely hopeful of victory tomorrow.

BRYAN IN NEBRASKA.

FAIRMONT, NEB., Nov. 6.--Bryan made his first stop at Exeter, where he addressed 800 at the skating rink. The Bryan special arrived at Fairmont about 7, where the candidate addressed about 400 from a temporary stand near the depot.

LATE ELECTION NEWS

Frauds in Ohio. Sermons of Dr. Parkhurst and the Cardinal.

John Wammaker has offered a reward of $50,000 and has employed a large number of lawyers to discover and prosecute frauds at the polls in Philadelphia and the State of Pennsylvania.

Missouri Republicans claim Flory (Heep) will be elected Governor. Democrats claim Bryan's majority will be 40,000 to 20,000.

The Republican national committee still insists that McKinley will receive 294 electoral votes.

National Chairman Stewart, of the prohibition party's national committee, claims the prohibitionists will poll 300,000 votes this year, and they will continue the campaign without interruption up to 1904.

DR. PARKHURST'S SERMON.

Dr. Parkhurst, in a sermon at the Madison Avenue Presbyterian church, New York, yesterday morning said the "dishonest dollar is a national fraud," and "would transform our entire people into a great American Ananias." He said: "After the presidential candidate, who, to a considerable extent, stands as the representative of the industrial disaffection, has been defeated--as it is said he will be--the situation so far will not be altered at all. The candidate has not made the disaffection; it is the disaffection that has made the candidate. And there is such an inundation of it, and in some of its ingredients so rabid and irrepressible, as to have succeeded in temporarily water-logging a great political party, which when well aloft, and its compass in good working order, could have benefited and divine purposes." He attacked Croker savagely.

JONES VISITS HANNA

The Two Chairmen Swap Campaign Experiences

By telegraph to The Times.
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.--Senator Jones, chairman of the National Democratic committee, and J. G. Hanna, vice-chairman, called upon Senator Hanna at the Auditorium Annex last night, and compared experiences of the campaign.

The Democratic leaders came to the hotel early in the evening, and sent up their cards to Mr. Hanna's room. In a few minutes they were sent down for the two to come to the room of the chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Senator Hanna met the visitors at the door, and received them with cordial handshakes.

"Glad to see you, Senator, how have you stood the strain?" asked Senator Hanna of Senator Jones.

"I am feeling as well as could be expected under the circumstances," replied Senator Jones.

"How have you weathered the storm, Senator?" he inquired.

"Clap it is all over," said Hanna, as he preceded chairs for his guests. For half an hour the two leaders exchanged experiences.

RIOT IN LEXINGTON.

One Negro Killed and Men of Both Races Injured.

By telegraph to The Times.
LEXINGTON, N. C., Nov. 5.--As an aftermath of a riotous night in Yell-mountain, a northwestern suburb of this city, George Broadus, colored, is dead, and David Thomas, Charles Downing, Lige Johnson, William Johnson, Beauchamp Collins, Wilbur T. Kelly, (all white), Sam Hepe, Louis Stevenson, Frank Graier, and "Red Tom" Davis, all colored, are in jail on charges of murder and rioting. The riot occurred late Saturday night and the morning of Sunday.

Downing and Thomas were the bar tenders. The negroes were quarrelling, and Downing fired a shot gun into the crowd, killing Broadus. A dozen men were soon using pistols. Negroes tried to burn the place after the white men got out by the back door.

NECK BROKEN, BUT LIVES.

John McQuade Injured in Sunday Football Game.

By telegraph to The Times.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.--John McQuade, aged nineteen years, a football player, lies on a cot in the Emergency Hospital with a broken neck. He was hurt in a football game yesterday afternoon. McQuade clings to life with the tenacity born of youth and good health. An operation was performed on the injured player last night, and his condition is slightly improved today.

REGISTRATION FRAUDS.

Charges are made of false registration in Cincinnati and other Ohio cities. While the last census gave Cincinnati a population of 325,000, its registration is 81,850, and a citizens' committee has been organizing today for systematic work with detectives for arrests on Tuesday. It is claimed also that colonizations have been made in some of the close Congressional districts. Ohio has now 15 Republican and 6 Democratic Congressmen.

CLEVELAND WILL VOTE.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland in a telegram to the New York Herald says: "I have no thought of dead shooting at present. Am here principally on business. Shall be in Princeton next Tuesday and shall vote." The telegram is dated Greenwich, Conn.

VIEW OF ENGLISH PRESS.

By telegraph to The Times.
LONDON, Nov. 5.--The James Gazette says Bryan will not be elected and that McKinley's "imperialism," which happens to jump with British notions and British interests, will make his return particularly acceptable to Englishmen.

The Westminster Gazette says that, but for Bryan's silver views and his alliance with Tammany, it would like to see him try his social program.

"AFTERNOON."

The first of a series of "afternoon" given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church will be held at Mrs. E. E. Moore's tomorrow, and will prove profitable and enjoyable to those who attend.

Election returns will be read from the stage during the performance of "The Academy" Tuesday night at the Academy of Music.

FILIPINO MANIFESTO

Conservative Element Rejects American Rule, and Demands Independence

By telegraph to The Times.
PARIS, Nov. 5.--Forty-three European Filipinos have issued a proclamation to the people of the United States. The proclamation is signed by Antonio Roxido Jurado, a representative of the conservative class, and is a demand for independence. It says in part:

"If we were sure to follow the treatment of United States troops from the Philippines, we who have so much at stake there, would not wish our countrymen put to the temptation of independence. If Aguinaldo were a selfish tyrant we should contest to the last the possibility of his securing power to consolidate our property."

"Our history proves our capability for self-government. The only period in the last three hundred years when a state of strife existed in the Philippines, was that which began with the establishment of a Napoleonic monarchy in Spain at the beginning of the Nineteenth century. At that time the Filipinos were given a copy of the Spanish constitution to use for their own government. On the restoration of absolute power in Spain under Ferdinand, severe military rule was established in the Philippines; rule again broke out, and has continued ever since. Does this seem to show that we cannot exist peacefully under a constitutional form of government?"

WILL NOT TAKE OATH.

LONDON, Nov. 5.--A Hong-Kong special to the Globe says the situation in the Philippines is unsatisfactory owing to the failure of the Taft Commission to establish cordial relations with the natives, and their inability to organize municipalities, except by force. The failure is due to the obstinacy of the natives in refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the United States.

TOWNS BURNED.

Several towns in which municipal government has been established were burned recently and natives are manifestly determined to continue the struggle indefinitely against the Americans. The authority of the latter is strictly limited to the range of their guns.

LOOK IS GLOOMY.

Present conditions in the islands are detrimental to trade, and the outlook is gloomy. Unfortunately, the dispatch concludes a careful inquiry proves that there is no justification for Secretary Root's prediction that negotiations in Manila will result in the restoration of peace by December. Present prospects cannot with candor be said to favor hopes of peace.

POOR PEACE PROSPECT.

Natives Refuse to Declare Their Allegiance to United States and Burn Loyal Towns.

By telegraph to The Times.
CAPE TOWN, Nov. 5.--Mrs. Kruger is reported seriously ill at Freritia.

PROTEST AGAINST ARSON.

HIS WIFE QUITE SICK.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 5.--The Dutch women of northern Cape Colony will hold a convention at Paarl November 10th to protest against the burning of farm houses and eviction of families by the British.

THE BOERS REAPPEAR.

LADYSMITH, Nov. 5.--The Boers are reappearing. "Shipping" has occurred in the vicinity of the posts. The latter are strengthened.

WILL CLEVELAND VOTE?

He is Still at the Residence of Benedict at Greenwich.

By telegraph to The Times.
STAMFORD, CONN., Nov. 5.--Grover Cleveland is still at the residence of his friend, Mr. E. C. Benedict, at Greenwich. There was a rumor this morning that they would board the "Onida" and sail to New York so that Mr. Cleveland would be in Princeton in time to vote tomorrow. Inquiry at the Benedict mansion today elicited the information that Mr. Cleveland intended to remain there today and tonight. No information was given as to whether he intends returning to Princeton tomorrow.

CLEAN SWEEP SAYS CROKER

Also Pays His Respects to Dr. Parkhurst

By telegraph to The Times.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.--Richard Croker said this morning that he would not be surprised if Bryan had 90,000 plurality in the Greater New York. In his opinion Bryan will make a clean sweep throughout the country.

Croker paid his respects to Dr. Parkhurst, who denounced Croker yesterday in a sermon. Croker said the "old man" had been fastened on by the trusts.

GOV. STONE'S FORECAST

Wyoming, South Dakota and Washington Not in Doubt

By telegraph to The Times.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.--Ex-Governor Stone, of Missouri, in charge of the National Democratic campaign in the East, said today:

"I think we will elect Bryan as I believe popular sentiment is with us. I do act, however, underestimate the strength of the other side. If Bryan gets New York, Ohio and Illinois, he will be elected certainly, and the chances are good that he will carry all of these States."

"We were shaky for a while about Wyoming, South Dakota and Washington, but we feel sure of winning them now. Kansas and Nebraska were never in doubt."

"Bryan will carry all the States he got in 1896, and Maryland, Kentucky and Indiana as well."

ARRESTED FOR BRIBERY

Tried to Buy Election Officer Prominent Indiana Republican

By telegraph to The Times.
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 5.--William H. Evans, custodian of the Commercial Club building, was arrested last night on the charge of attempting to bribe election officers. He is a Republican committee man for the Tenth ward. It is alleged he sent Charles Shoemaker, Republican committeeman of the Sixth precinct of the ward, to Charles F. Myers, Democratic committeeman of the First precinct, Tenth ward, and offered $50 if he would count 25 Democratic votes for the Republicans. Five warrants for other Republicans have been issued.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Mayor Powell had several minor cases to engage his attention this morning, among the number being:

Henry Smith, colored, $3.25 for disorderly conduct.

Calvin Rogers, the same, $3.25.

Cornelius Dishman, $3.25 for driving back without light.

Clem Evans, $3.25 for disorderly conduct on Wilmington street.

MISS CHAMPION DEAD.

Miss Loula Champion, aged twenty-two years, daughter of Mr. W. A. Champion, died at her home on South street yesterday, and the body was taken to the country this afternoon for interment. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all in their affliction. She was beloved by all who knew her.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Remains of Dr. Thomas D. Martin Laid to Rest This Afternoon

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the funeral services over the remains of the late Dr. Thomas D. Martin were held from Christ church in this city.

Dr. Martin passed away at the home of Capt. S. A. Ashe Saturday night at 11:15, after a lingering illness.

The funeral services in Christ church were largely attended and the beautiful service conducted by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall was tender and impressive. The hymns sung were "I would not live always," "Rock of Ages," and "Art Thou Weary." Miss Alice Jones presided at the organ.

The service was concluded at the grave at Oakwood cemetery, where "Abide with Me," and "Nearer My God to Thee" were sung.

The honorary pall bearers were: Messrs. Charles Root, R. H. Battle, J. C. Deary, C. T. Tolpin, Julius Lewis, N. W. West, D. H. Hill, Dr. T. D. Hogg, Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, Dr. Hay, Mr. A. M. McPheters and Dr. Pickell.

The active pall bearers were Messrs. Van B. Moore, Ed. H. Lee, B. M. Gilling, J. R. Chamberlain, J. D. Donahall, W. C. Holman, Miles Goodwin and Prof. Weirte.

Dr. Martin was born in Elizabeth City, December 13, 1825, and was 85 years old. His father, Thomas D. Martin, Esq., was a lawyer who had a few years earlier removed to Elizabeth City from Hanover Court House, Va. His mother, Mary Morris Wingfield, was an aunt of Bishop Wingfield and of Mr. Charles W. Wingfield, of Norfolk, and of Mrs. M. M. Marshall, of this city. Dr. Martin was educated at Vicksburg, N. C., being a pupil there of the celebrated Asa Gray. He studied medicine in Richmond, received his diploma in Philadelphia and attended the hospital in Richmond. He practiced in Hyde county, where his practice was unusually successful. In 1849 he married Miss Henrietta Perkins, of Perquimans county, and removing to that county to practice his profession. He entered the Confederate service as a Lieutenant in the Twenty-sixth Regiment, but was soon detailed as a surgeon, and he continued in the hospitals until 1863, when his health gave way and he was carried to Hillsboro, where his wife was then settled. Towards the end of 1866 he moved to Raleigh, where he has since resided, together with his wife, who survives him.

Dr. Martin was a man of varied information and possessed a bright mind. He remembered incidents and facts with remarkable clearness. He was a favorite with all who knew him and will be missed greatly by all who had known him and enjoyed his company.

DEATH OF A GOOD CITIZEN

Passed Away Late Saturday Night in This City in His Eighty-Fifth Year.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the funeral services over the remains of the late Dr. Thomas D. Martin were held from Christ church in this city.

Dr. Martin passed away at the home of Capt. S. A. Ashe Saturday night at 11:15, after a lingering illness.

The funeral services in Christ church were largely attended and the beautiful service conducted by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall was tender and impressive. The hymns sung were "I would not live always," "Rock of Ages," and "Art Thou Weary." Miss Alice Jones presided at the organ.

The service was concluded at the grave at Oakwood cemetery, where "Abide with Me," and "Nearer My God to Thee" were sung.

The honorary pall bearers were: Messrs. Charles Root, R. H. Battle, J. C. Deary, C. T. Tolpin, Julius Lewis, N. W. West, D. H. Hill, Dr. T. D. Hogg, Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, Dr. Hay, Mr. A. M. McPheters and Dr. Pickell.

The active pall bearers were Messrs. Van B. Moore, Ed. H. Lee, B. M. Gilling, J. R. Chamberlain, J. D. Donahall, W. C. Holman, Miles Goodwin and Prof. Weirte.

Dr. Martin was born in Elizabeth City, December 13, 1825, and was 85 years old. His father, Thomas D. Martin, Esq., was a lawyer who had a few years earlier removed to Elizabeth City from Hanover Court House, Va. His mother, Mary Morris Wingfield, was an aunt of Bishop Wingfield and of Mr. Charles W. Wingfield, of Norfolk, and of Mrs. M. M. Marshall, of this city. Dr. Martin was educated at Vicksburg, N. C., being a pupil there of the celebrated Asa Gray. He studied medicine in Richmond, received his diploma in Philadelphia and attended the hospital in Richmond. He practiced in Hyde county, where his practice was unusually successful. In 1849 he married Miss Henrietta Perkins, of Perquimans county, and removing to that county to practice his profession. He entered the Confederate service as a Lieutenant in the Twenty-sixth Regiment, but was soon detailed as a surgeon, and he continued in the hospitals until 1863, when his health gave way and he was carried to Hillsboro, where his wife was then settled. Towards the end of 1866 he moved to Raleigh, where he has since resided, together with his wife, who survives him.

Dr. Martin was a man of varied information and possessed a bright mind. He remembered incidents and facts with remarkable clearness. He was a favorite with all who knew him and will be missed greatly by all who had known him and enjoyed his company.

WEDDING IN CARY

Miss Blanche Parks and Mr. Bryant Jones Married Yesterday.

Last evening in the Baptist church in Cary Miss Blanche Parks, of that place and Mr. Bryant W. Jones, of Raleigh, were united in marriage. The church was beautifully decorated and a large number attended from Cary, Raleigh and other places. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John E. White in a most impressive manner. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jones, the young couple who acted as attendants, came to Raleigh, where they will make their future home.

Mr. Jones is a progressive young merchant of West Raleigh, and the bride is one of Cary's lovely daughters.

MOODY CASE ARGUED

Judge Robinson Restores Thos. Robertson's Citizenship

The Superior Court met again this morning, being the beginning of the third week. Judge W. S. C.D. Robinson presiding.

The case of A. H. Moody against the State prison for injuries received while there came up on demurrer and the judge sustained the demurrer and an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. Messrs. Douglas and Simms represented the plaintiff and Messrs. Busbee and Busbee and Argo and Snow the defendants.

Thomas Robertson's application for a restoration of his citizenship came up. His case a few years since will be remembered as quite sensational. It was tried before Judge Robinson and the defendant was sentenced to the roads for five years. Mr. Robertson today gave all the requirements for having his citizenship restored, and Judge Robinson granted the application.

CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE.

The Eastern Conference of the Christian church will meet next Wednesday near Youngville in this county.

OLLA PODRIDA.

The Olla Podrida meets at the home of Mrs. Womack tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. W. G. Separk is in the city.